

LOG 1975

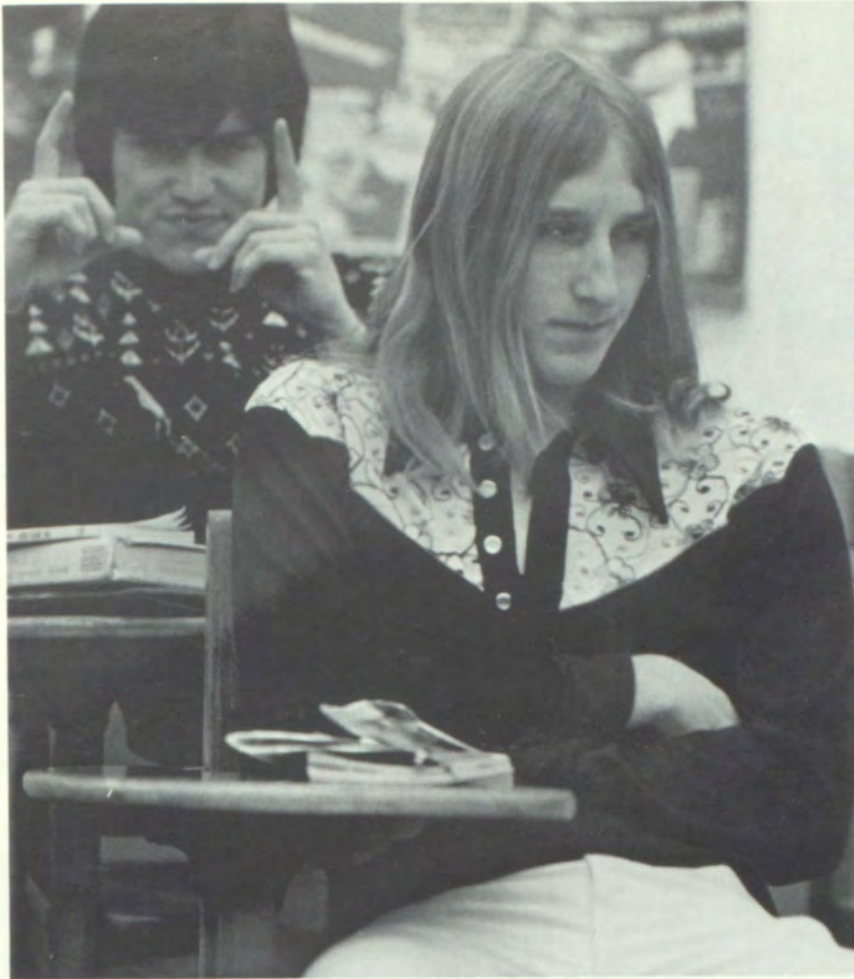

'The time has come,' the Walrus said,
'to talk of many things:
Of shoes — and ships — and sealing-wax —

Of cabbages — and kings —
 And why the sea is boiling hot —
 And whether pigs have wings.
 Lewis Carroll

To enjoy life in this world, one must always deal with people, never with things.

Galiani

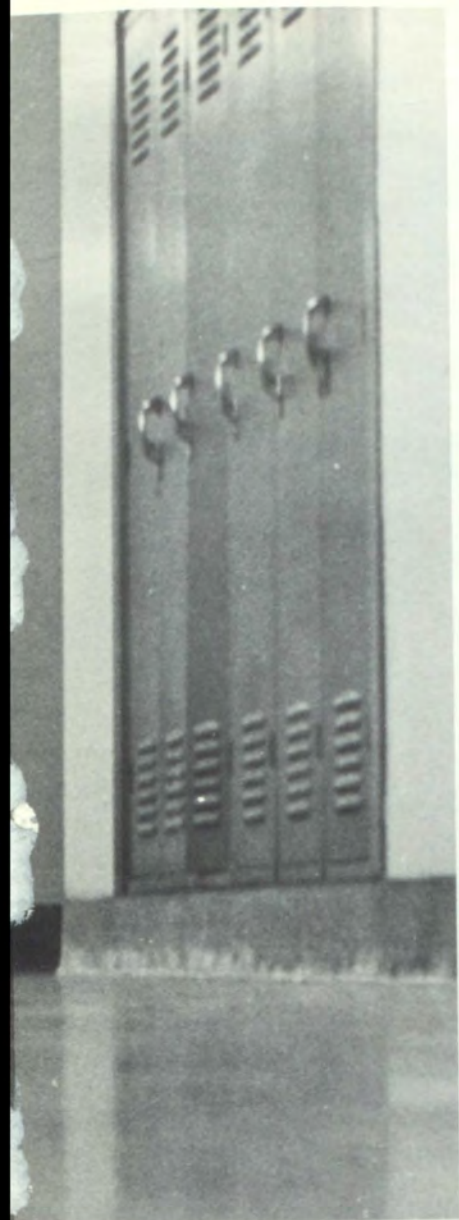

Leonardo daVinci ruled his notebooks in columns headed fox, wolf, bear, and monkey and made notes of human faces by ticking them off in these columns.

George Bernard Shaw

The place you live in is awfully important. It can give you a chance to grow, or it can twist you, like that. When I was in school, they used to teach us that evolution made men out of animals. They forget to tell us it can also make animals out of men.

Sidney Kingsley: Dead End

Our life is frittered away by detail . . . simplify, simplify.
Henry David Thoreau

The window gives onto the white trees.
The master looks out of it at the trees,
for a long time, he looks for a long time
out through the window at the trees,
breaking his chalk slowly in one hand.
And it's only the rules of long division.
And he's forgotten the rules of long division.
Imagine not remembering long division!
A mistake on the blackboard, a mistake.
We watch him with a different attention needing no one to hint to us about it,
there's more than difference in this attention.
The schoolmaster's wife has gone away,
we do not know where she has gone to,
we do not know why she has gone,
what we know is that his wife has gone away.
— Yevtushenko

Who's gonna steal the show
You know, Baby, it's the guitar man.
He can make you love
He can make you cry.
He will bring you down
And he'll get you high.
Then he comes to town and you see his face
And you think you might like to take his place.
Something keeps him going for miles
and miles a day
To find another place to play.

Mt. Lebanon football ended a disheartening season with a winning record. We have come to expect too much from the football team; this year's 5-4 record is not as good as past records nevertheless, it is a winning record. This, coupled with a few discouraging losses, created great fan apathy and made a depressing season.

On the other hand Mt. Lebanon commanded five victories, three of which were particularly exciting: the 6-2 win over Uniontown which was decided on the last play of the game; a commanding 44-0 rout over Bethel Park, and the ecstatic 19-14 victory over rival Chartiers Valley.

We can expect a sportsman's best effort — nothing more. In the future we must accept defeat with grace; we must cheer the effort; we must not boo the disappointment.

Many teams have been described as being better than their records indicate; whether this is true or not for most teams is difficult to know for sure. The Mt. Lebanon soccer team is one such team that is better than could be determined by its 5-10-1 record. The team lost a number of games by only one goal and was outscored by a total of six points through the regular season.

Soccer is a tremendous sport which deserves more support than it has received and the team earned the commendation it is now receiving. Next year let's support our soccer team; it should prove to be even more exciting next year since Coach Wilcher has so much potential returning next season.

Girl's Volleyball

The girls volleyball team had a good year, tied for first in the section at the end of the regular season. However, the team was disappointed with the loss to section dominating Montour in the playoff game.

Coach Winch is anticipating a fine season next year as many team members are returning.

Someone told me
It's all happening at the zoo.
I do believe it,
I do believe it's true.
. . . What a gas! You gotta come and see
At the zoo.

I remember my
youth and the feeling
that will never come back any more —
the feeling that I
could last forever,
outlast the sea, the
earth, and all men.

Joseph Conrad

. . . Can you imagine us
Years from today,
. . . How terribly strange
. . . Old friends,
Memory brushes the same years.
Silently sharing the same fear . . .

I have had playmates, I have had companions,
In my days of childhood, in my joyful schooldays —
All, all are gone, the old familiar faces.

For love, and beauty, and delight,
There is no death nor change.
Percy Shelley
In memory of Herr Oesterich

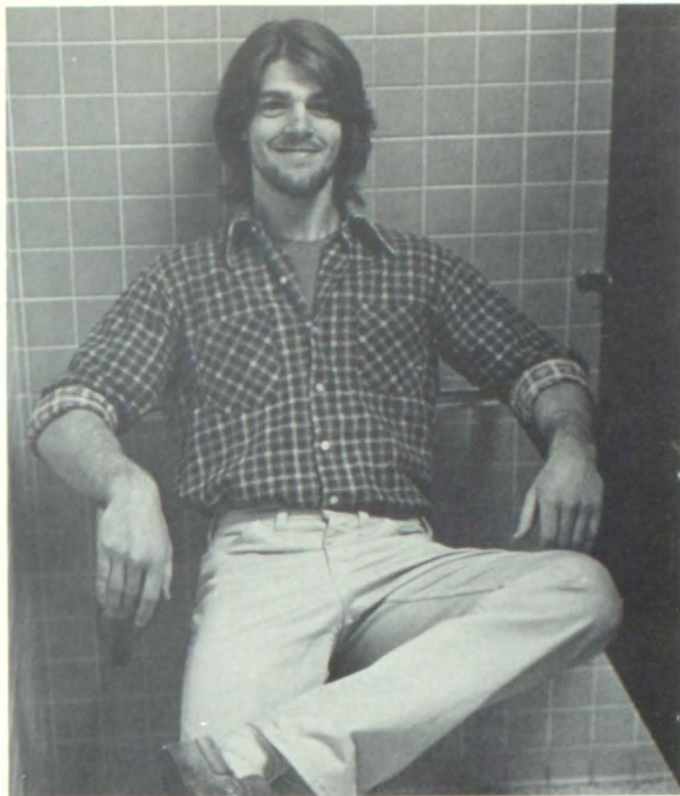

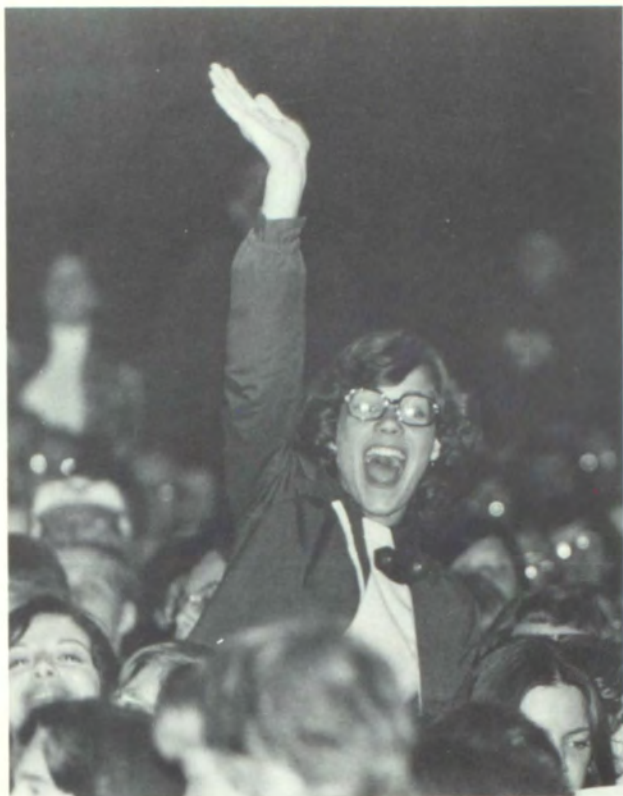

It is a huge, forbidding space, with countless corridors, and myriads of people scurrying in and out, up and down.

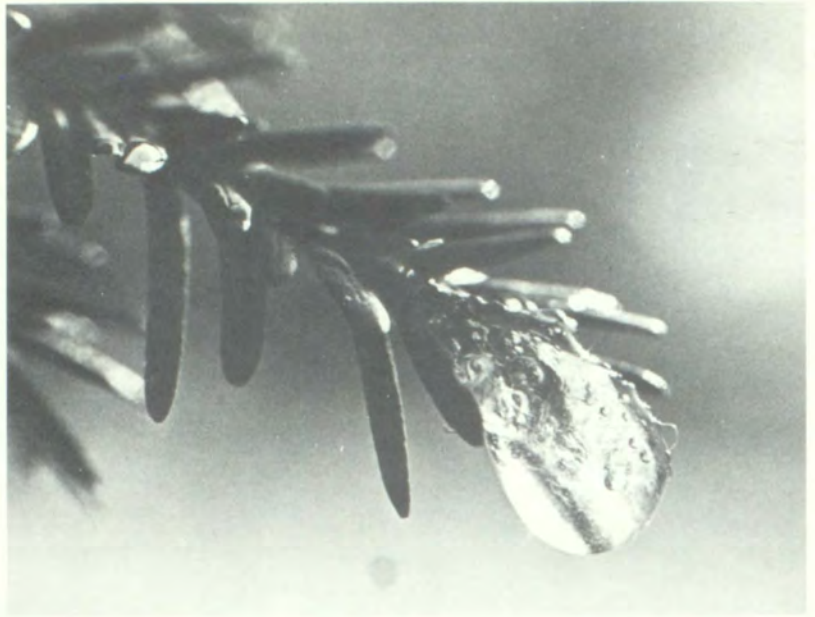

Where do they go — do they even know?

Who are all these blank-faced robots with their automatic grins as they spy an acquaintance?

What are these rows of tired bodies, big, small;
interested, apathetic?

We are the hollow men
 We are the stuffed men
 Leaning together
 Headpiece filled with straw . . .
 . . . Between the idea
 And the reality
 Between the motion
 And the act
 Falls the shadow . . .
 . . . This is the way the world ends,
 Not with a bang but a whimper.

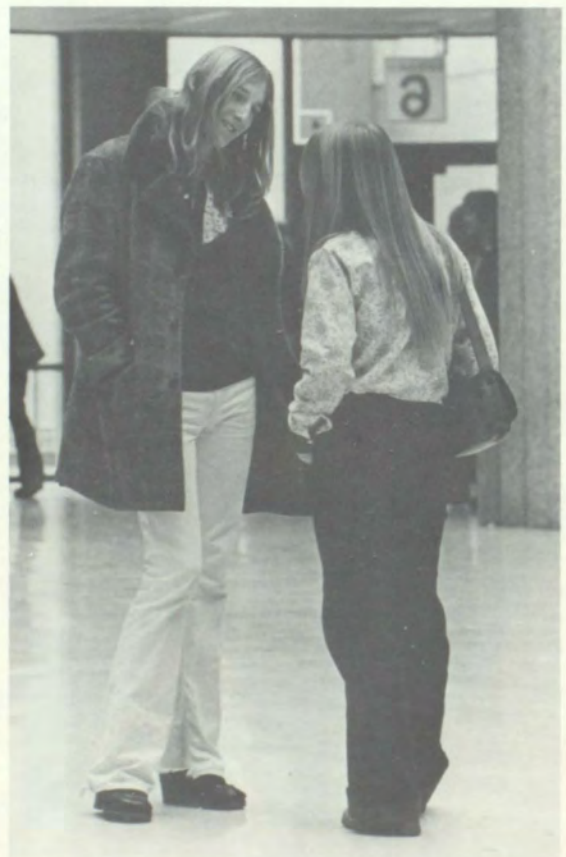

T.S. Eliot

"The Hollow Men"

'Oh frabjous day! Callooh! Callay!'
He chortled in his joy.

Lewis Carroll, Through the Looking Glass

How do they cope with the constant pressures, the constant motion, and the overriding indifference of the institution?

However mean your life is, meet it and live it; do not shun it and call
it hard names.
Henry David Thoreau

Observe the robots in their organized groups, aloof, divided from each other. See that occasional straggler, without a position. What about him?

And always that questing. Why?

I have been a stranger in a strange land.
