*Your children
Are not
Your children*

They are the sons and daughters of Life's longing for itself.

Kahlil Gibran

"The most protracted "Monopoly" session was one of 754 hours from July 28 to August 29, 1968, by boys at Hattiesburg, Miss."

The Guinness Book of World Records, 1970.

It is strange
how you may walk about and never see a person
at all . . .

. . . and then when you get to know them
how often you run with them.

*For Beauty I am not a star
There are others more handsome by far.
But my face I don't mind it,
For I am behind it.
It's the people in front that I jar.*

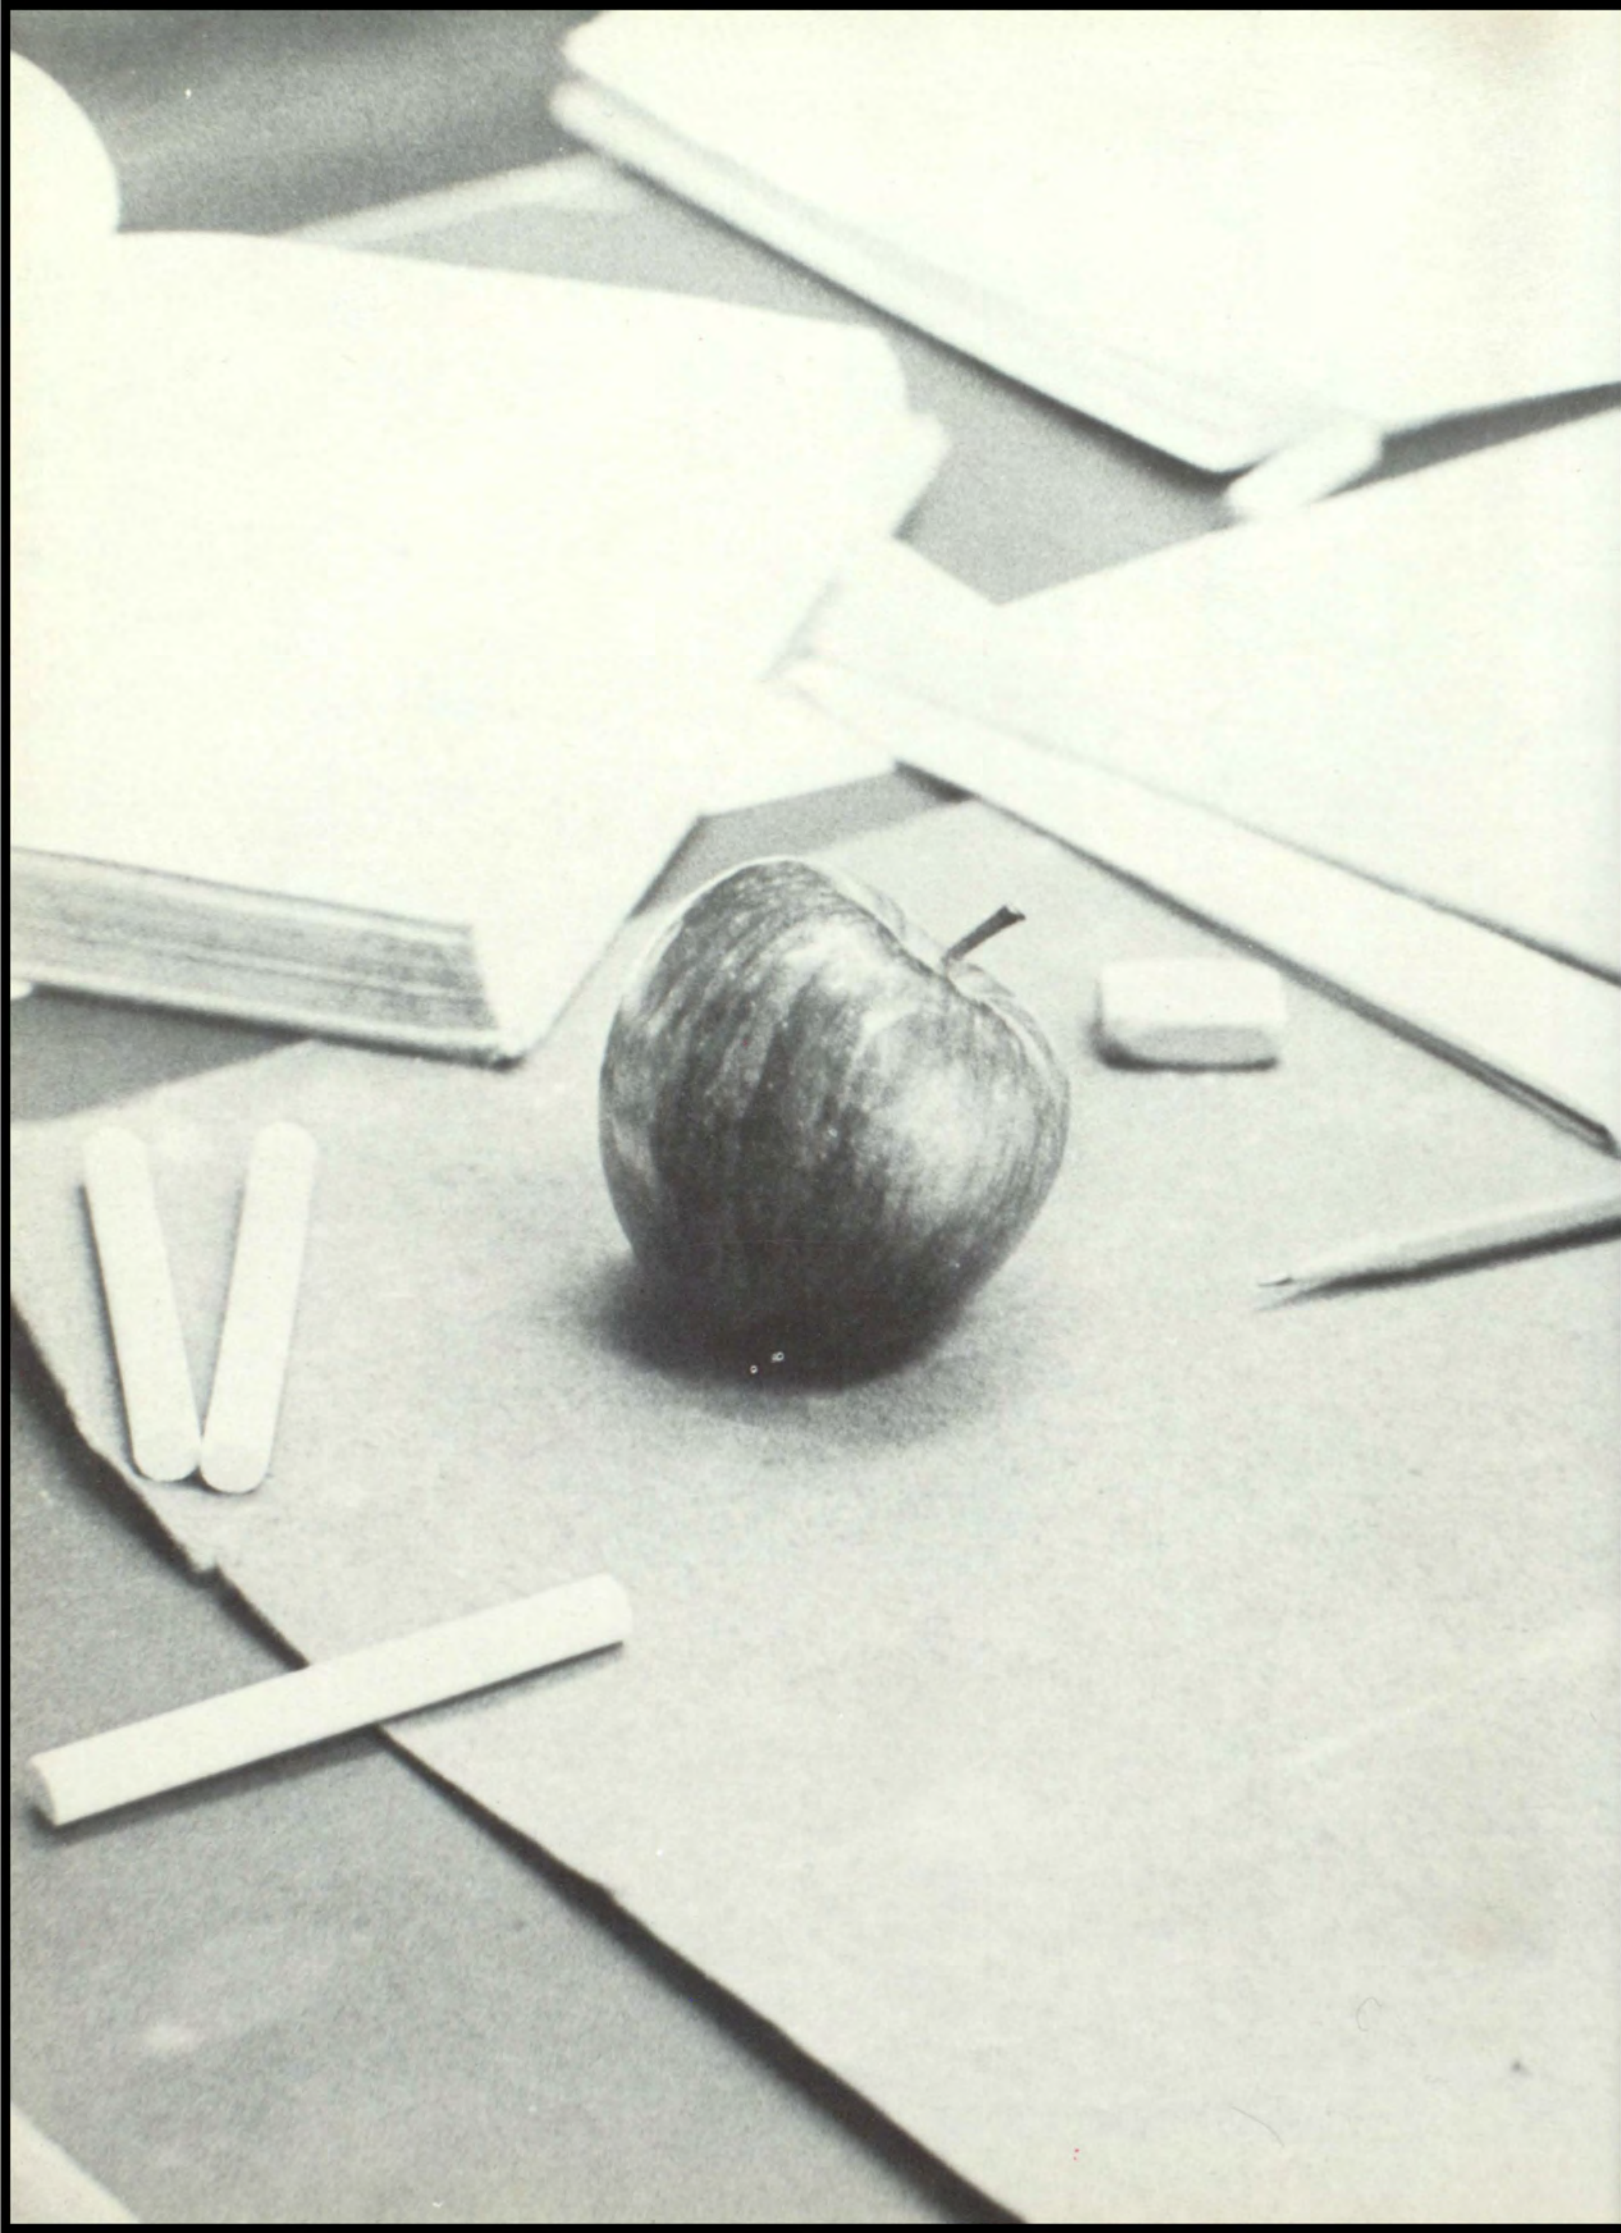

Virtuous motives
are no defense against armed and
resolute wickedness.
Winston Churchill

*In one sense there is no death.
The life of a soul on earth
Lasts beyond his departure.
You will always feel that life
Touching yours, that voice
Speaking to you, that spirit
Looking out of other eyes,
Talking to you in the familiar
Things he touched, worked with,
Loved as familiar friends.
He lives on in your life and
In the lives of all others
That knew him.*

*Angelo Patri
In loving memory of
Our friends,
David Gergins

LITTLE GIRLS

*I remember all the things we used to know
I remember carefree days in the summer sun
Barbie dolls and an ice cream freeze
Flip-flop sandals, a hug or a squeeze
Little girls with floppy hair and scraped up knees.*

*We knew happiness and joy in our childhood years
We shared each other's worries and our fears
We went through new shoes and toys and books
And gave each other dirty looks
Then laughed — and grew to love each other all the same.*

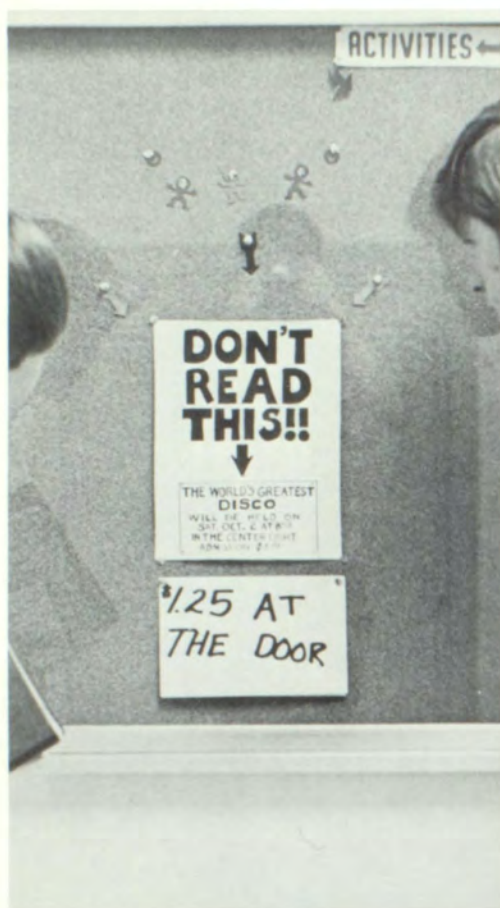

*We're growing up now, we just got our high school rings
We're growing up — we've learned to face many things
But there's one new thing that I just can't take It's something real, not artificial or fake
My friend's going to leave me — she's going away.*

*She's leaving soon, going to beat me in our final race
But I'll always remember that calm smile upon her face
I'll remember rag dolls and soda pop
Our cute little sandals that went "flip-flop"
I'll remember my friend, in love on a summer day.*

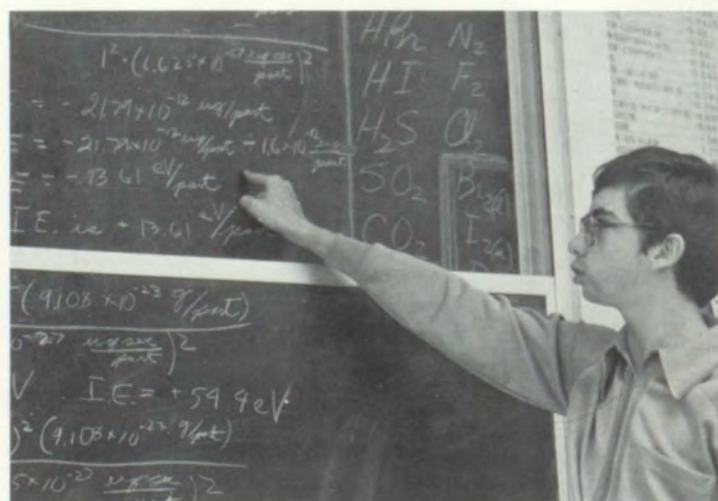

I'll remember my friend, with love on a summer day.

WHEN I LOOK BACK
ON ALL THE CRAP
I LEARNED
IN HIGH SCHOOL,

IT' A WONDER
I CAN THINK
AT ALL.

Life consists not in holding good cards but in playing those
you do have well.

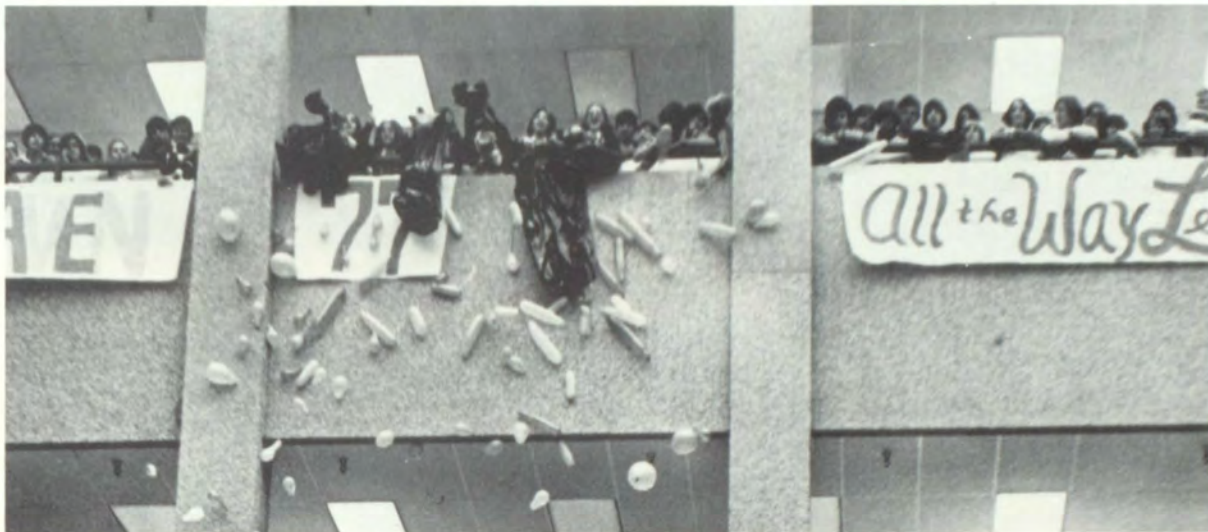

Umbrellas, like faces, acquire a certain sympathy with the individual who carries them.

AGREES WITH OURS.

— JOSH BILLINGS

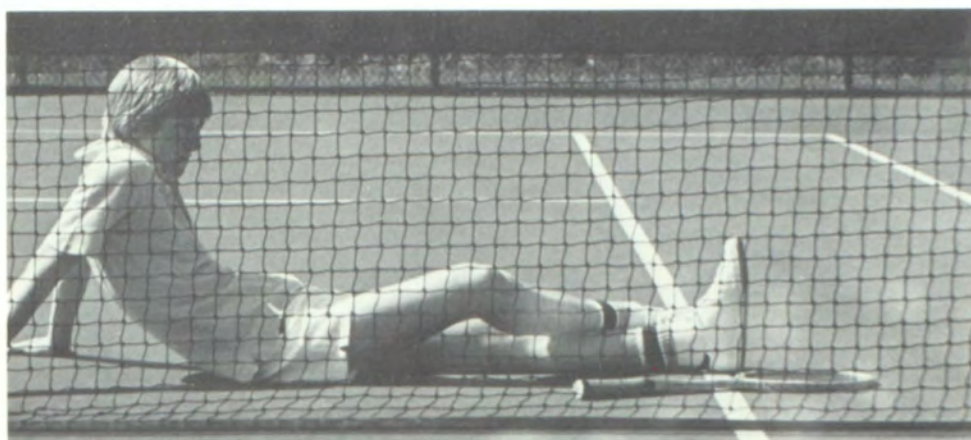

Here comes the sun
And I say
It's all right.

Either the well was very deep, or she fell down to look about her, and to wonder what was going to happen next.

*"Curioser and curioser!" cried
Alice.*
— Lewis Carroll

THE SCHOOL IS THE PLACE WHERE PEOPLE ARE CONSTANTLY SEEKING TO FIND THEIR DOOR
AND WHERE THEY ARE DOOMED
TO WANDERING
FOREVER.

The Days
May Come
The Days
May Go

But Still
The Hands
Of Mem'ry
Weave
The Blissful
Dreams
Of Long
Ago

Pupils must not be encouraged to think that there are short cuts to knowledge.
Bertrand Russell

*THE SCHOLAR MUST, FROM TIME TO TIME,
RETURN TO THE PEOPLE AND RELEARN
THEIR LIFE, THAT HE MAY CONTINUE TO LIVE HIMSELF.*
