

LOG 1978

Mt. Lebanon High School
Volume forty-eight

I have lived long enough:
My way of life
Is fall'n into the sear,
The yellow leaf.

— Shakespeare,
Macbeth

To create a little flower is the labour of ages.

— William Blake

When i was asked
"Why are you so happy?"
i answered
"i don't need a reason to be happy, i need a reason to be sad."
— Susan Murphy

The most lost day of all is the day on which we do not laugh.

— Nicholas Chamfort

God is a geometrician.

— Plato

i walk along an unending path, that curves and twists, catching me unaware.
when i come to a crossroad alone,
i must make a decision.
whether or not that decision is right remains to be discovered around the next bend.

— Heidi van Anglen

Look behind thee and consider what thou wast.
— James Howell

There are three types of people:
Those who make things happen,

Those who watch things happen,

And those who don't know what's happening at all.

— Unknown

Sharp reflections at unexpected moments flash vividly through my mind remembering the recurring experiences that make me myself.

— Louanne Shetter

What manner of man is this?

— Anonymous

The things taught in colleges and schools are not an education, but the means of education.

— Ralph Waldo Emerson

SENIORS

It's that time to make a change, but just relax and take it easy.
You're still young; that's your fault;
there's so much you have to go through.
Find a girl; settle down;
if you want, you can marry.
Look at me; I am old, but I'm happy . . .
All the times that you'll cry, keepin' all the things you'll know inside, it'll be hard, but it'll be harder to ignore it.
So take your time; think a lot;
why think of everything you've got,
or you will still be here tomorrow, but your dreams may not . . .
How can I try to explain?
When I do, you turn away again.
It's always been the same, the same old story.
From the moment you could talk,
you were ordered to listen.
Now there's a way,
and I know that you have to go away.
I know; you have to go.

1st SEMESTER STUDENT CONGRESS

All the smiles you've given me, I'll remember past tomorrow, the treasure of this life of ours we shared.
I'll know forever just how fragile this life of ours can be, prolonged like a snowflake which struck by the sun disappears into eternity.

F.M.M.

Do you know these people? Chances are, they know you even better than you know yourself. If you know one of these people, be advised to limit your phone calls to the minimum, "I'll meet you at . . ." Never gossip with them . . . and . . . uh . . . periodically check your room for tiny microphones. You never know when an F.M.M. member will be out, ruthlessly searching for activities points.

AMERICAN FIELD SERVICE

A.F.S. is an incredibly fantastic experience. Whether it's South Africans learning how to go bananas, Swiss playing soccer, Americans wearing Indonesian costumes or dancing Samba, A.F.S. unites us all. A small world is much more than a Walt Disney song.

"CHAMBER MUSIC"

Revolving around the antics of patients in an insane asylum, the play featured Andrea Roper, Val Gough, Curt Mason, Patti Spadafore, Bonnie Levin, Ania Grobicki, Carolyn Cable, Lauren Campedelli, and Chris Tauson. The play was directed by Mr. Chuck Weintraub and was student directed by Chris Tauson with technical aid given by Mr. James Lutz and the Technical Theatre Company.

"PLAZA SUITE"

Neil Simon's delightful comedy, PLAZA SUITE, received a well-deserved round of applause as it was presented by the Theatre Company in the spring of '77. The play was directed by Mr. Donald Salvo, with technical help from Mr. James Lutz. The actors enhanced the circular sets and its components with what can truly be considered "comedy".

The Actors: Stephanie Weissberg, Linda Westapal, Brian Walsh, Libby Ferrell, Edsel Burkholder, Margo Artale, Joe Albano, Laura Brown, Steve Terhune, Kathy Spitz, Ron Greenberg, Jay Kopelman, Mark Hoyle, Jamie Kearney
Student Directors: Stephanie Weissberg, Libby Ferrell

"ANTIGONE"

On November 3 and 4, 1977, the Mt. Lebanon High School Theatre Company presented ANTIGONE in the Fine Arts Theatre. The classic Greek tragedy written by Sophocles, and adapted by Jean Anouilh, was directed by Donald Salvo with technical help provided by Mr. James Lutz. The marvelous acting, and well-conceived lighting and set designs conveyed the ideal mood for a production which would have pleased both Sophocles and Anouilh.

The Actors: Kathryn Teague, Linda Westapal, Maryanne Lewis, Elizabeth Bulette, Ingrid Weisgerber, Leigh Ewing, Joe Albano, Rob Steele, Mickey Jenkins, Laura Brown, Susan Hamaker, Terry Lewis, Eric Mendlow, Jay Kopelman, Mark McFarlin, Brent Bowen, Rich Sleppy, Byrna Katz

Student Director: Susan Hamaker

The Technicians: Tim Amos, Drew Niedbalski, Eric Kardon, Kay Lauck

"KISS ME KATE"

The combined Choral, Orchestra, Dance, and Technical Theatre Departments presented Cole Porter's KISS ME KATE on May 6th and 7th 1977. Additional services were provided by Mrs. Karen Poland, Mr. Thomas Flynn, Mr. James Lutz, Mr. Tom Stacey and Mrs. Joanne Bailey.

The Actors: Jim McCrum, Kelley Smith, Dave Sifferd, Cathy Cornes, Dan Duff, Laurie O'Brien, Peter Brown, Tom Lackner, Chris Clark, John Nicklas, Adam Barr, Tim Waugh

"A POCKETFUL OF MUSICALS"

Highlights from hit Broadway musicals provided the theme for last year's Dance Company show, A POCKETFUL OF MUSICALS. Directed by Miss Cecelia Fleckenstein, with additional choreography by Mr. Donald Salvo, the extravaganza featured male dancers and the dance classes. Mr. James Lutz provided technical help. We tip our hats to the wonderful job done by the dancers.

the greatest man is not the one who never falls, for he often walks a path with no stones;
but rather the man who picks himself up each time he falls.

Dennis Kirkendall

Leslee Daugherty

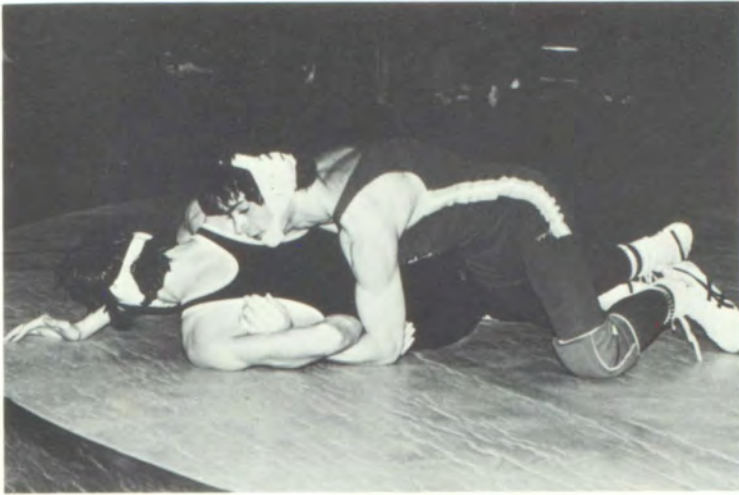

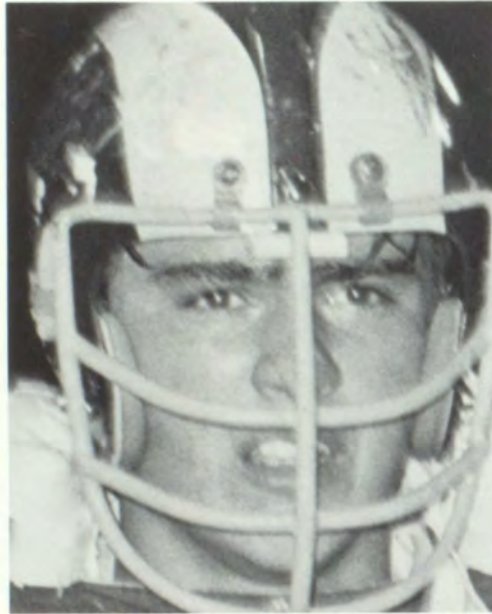

A sportsman is a man who,
every now and then,
simply has to get out

that's not a proper way of expressing yourself.

Opposing Coach

For the Mt. Lebanon Soccer Team, the 1977-78 season was the best in recent history. The team posted a dazzling regular season record of 19-0. Of the victories, over half, including the last five, were shutouts. After this remarkable season, the team defeated Shaler 2-0 in the first game of the WPIAL Playoffs to set the stage for the most memorable game of the season. This WPIAL Championship game pitted the Blue Devils against defending champion North Allegheny. Predictably, the game was close, and exciting. Surprisingly, however, the teams were tied 0-0 at the end of regulation play. Then, in the waning moments of the fourth five minute overtime, fullback Steve Babcock headed a corner kick from Jim McNamara past the outstretched arms of the stunned goalie. After this thrilling victory, the team travelled to Shippensburg for the PIAA Playoffs. Mt. Lebanon crushed Central Fulton 6-0 in the first game, but dropped the following match against Bethlehem Liberty 2-0. To culminate this remarkable season, Lebo defeated West Snyder 2-0 to finish third in the state.

In addition to the team success, many individuals gained recognition. Striker Gee Peckich, who averaged a goal a game, was named Pittsburgh Press Soccer Player of the Year. Steve Babcock was the only Blue Devil selected to the All-State Soccer Team. Goalie Bill Drambel, and Peckich received All-State Honorable Mention. Five players, Babcock, Drambel, Peckich, McNamara, and Greg Homan were chosen for the WPIAL Coaches' All-Star Team.

Although the Mt. Lebanon Team finished the season with a 6-4 record, the team could easily have finished 8-2. Two games, against Upper St. Clair and Baldwin were close contests, decided in the final minutes. The Blue Devils were led by the outstanding running of senior halfback, Phil Peckich. Peckich set a school season rushing record of 1459 yards in nine games, as well as the single game record of 274 yards. His 17 touchdowns paced the team. Peckich and Eric Schmude, who set a school record with seven receptions for 137 yards, were named to the All Conference Team.

The defense was led by All Conference Team members John Luderman, Tim Lohman and Mark Hnath. Quarterback D. R. Papalia and linebacker John Jaskot received Honorable Mention. The future is bright for the Blue Devils, as several underclassmen, including Anthony Agostinelli, and Mark Schoeppner, gained valuable experience this season.

Despite some disappointing moments, spirits were uplifted by crowd favorite, halfback Tony Mazzei. Throughout the season, Lebo fans cheered, hoping that Mazzei would play. Finally in the game against Penn Trafford, Mazzei got his chance, and on Lebo's final play of the game, he broke away for a 40 yard touchdown run.

The Mt. Lebanon Boys' Cross Country Team, coached by Richard Toler and Ted Ashburner had one of its best seasons ever. Outstanding performances were recorded during the undefeated season by John Wes-sels, Dave Rihtarchik, Rich Laitta, and by seniors Scott Anderson and Bill Standfest. The team won the Western Conference Title, was third in a Tri-State Meet, and eighth in the WPIAL Finals. As coach Toler said, "The J.V. team was very strong this year, and we're looking for valuable help from them next year."

The Girls' Team had a record of 5-4. They came in ninth in the WPI-AL Finals. The most outstanding competitor for the girls this season was Beth Gailey, who received the Mollenauer award.

GIRLS' TENNIS

The 1977 Mt. Lebanon Girls' Tennis Team culminated an undefeated 19-0 season by defeating Franklin to capture the WPIAL Team Championship. This final contest produced terrific tension as the teams were tied 2-2 until Lebo won the last match to steal the championship 3-2.

Two doubles teams travelled to the WPIAL

Championships. Erin and Maureen Peszko placed third, and Jill Bahm teamed up with Betty Rae Gray to take fourth place.

Looking forward to next year, Coach Stull says the team "should be at least as strong if not stronger," especially since only two of the top seven players this year are seniors.

Wrestling fans will remember the 1977-1978 Mt. Lebanon Wrestling Team for many years. With only two matches remaining, the team has a remarkable 10-0 record. The most closely contested match of the season was the second one, against Elizabeth Forward, which Lebo won by only one point. The Biggest route was a 45-6 thrashing of Chartiers Valley.

Because of its impressive record, the team is ranked number one in the WPIAL by the Post Gazette. Scholastic Wrestling News ranks the Lebo grapplers as the best in Pennsylvania. Lebo began making its bid for the undisputed state title when it captured the Western Conference Team Championship.

Although the dual meet season is not always a valid indicator of how a team will fare in tournament competition, Lebo appears to be in excellent shape for the upcoming post-season tournaments. Three individuals were Western Conference Champions. These were: Scott Griffith, 138 lbs., Phil Peckich, 155 lbs., and Mark Hnath, 167 lbs. As of this writing, three team members, Mark Gannon, 119 lbs., Todd Camel, 126 lbs, and Peckich, were undefeated.

The 1977-78 Mt. Lebanon Basketball Team consisted of six seniors, five juniors, and two sophomores. Seniors Dan Donahue (6-0) and Bill Drambel (6-4), and sophomore Chauncy Buford (6-2) started regularly; while seniors Joe Miller (6-3) and John King (6-2), and junior Bill Eskew (5-11) shuffled in and out of the remaining forward and guard spots. Reserve forwards were senior Eric Schmude (6-2); and juniors Rob Hughes (6-2), John Martin (6-1), and Don Miller (6-0). Senior Ernie Barber (5-9), junior Marc DeCello (5-11), and sophomore Jack Riley (5-8) supplied the Blue Devils with depth at guard.

The team's non-section record was 3-3, including a second-place finish in the Mt. Lebanon Christmas Tournament, and their final intra-section record was 10-6, which threw them into a four-way tie for second place in the league standings.

Drambel provided much of the impetus in Mt. Lebanon's victories, utilizing his soft, arcing bank shot to score over twenty points on numerous occasions. In fact, he led the Blue Devils in scoring in five of their last seven games. Earlier in the season, when Drambell was injured, Miller had picked up the scoring slack at forward. The team's season-long floor leader, Donahue, who provided quickness and ballhandling, could also score. He mixed twenty-foot jump shots with driving lay-ups to score a season-high thirty-one points in Lebo's 90-88 loss to Trinity.

The 1977-78 Girls' Basketball Team had an excellent season, posting a record of 19-4, and capturing their section championship. Two of these losses came during the Snowflake Tournament held at Franklin Regional, where Lebo finished a disappointing fifth.

The two play-making guards, seniors Leah Kennedy, and Angie Crapis, had outstanding seasons for the Blue Devils. Rebounding strength was provided by forwards Linda Schneider, and Anne Buchanan. The graduation of these four starters will leave a void which will be hard to fill. Another void will be created with the departure of Coach Andrew Sharkey. Despite these losses, the team looks forward to another good year next season.

This season, the Mt. Lebanon Girls' Volleyball Team posted a record of 5-5, finishing fourth in their section. The team started the season by winning their first games. Despite this rousing start, the squad floundered, and lost the next four in a row.

Coach Mary Pat Lackner lists Cathy McClain, Hettie Albo, Lisa Loftis, Lori Pietsch and Mary Ann Brody as the season's outstanding players who greatly boosted the team. Coach Lackner looks for an excellent season next year as much "young and promising talent" will be returning.

The 1977-78 Mt. Lebanon Rifle Team has a record of 6-3 with six matches left. Of the sixteen members fourteen are seniors so the coaches hope to recruit many new participants. The rifles used are .22 caliber. Any interested marksman should talk to interim coach, Mr. Strobel.

GOLF

Nick Fegen, Keith McQuillen, Dave Mitchell, Jim Kolan, Gary Warner

The 1977-78 Boys' Golf Team ended the season with a record of 10-3. The home course, St. Clair Country Club, was the site of Lebo victories over Bethel Park, Ligonier, Baldwin, Thomas Jefferson, South Catholic, and Brentwood. Although the team did not win its section, they had an outstanding season, and should do well in the future.

Both Nick Fegen, and Keith McQuillen, second and third year lettermen respectively, competed in sectional and regional qualifiers. The two were part of a group of six who advanced from sectional play to the regional competition.

Row 1 — M. Miller, D. Mikus, C. Cook, Ms. Renaud Row 2 — L. Laughlin, M. McGrath, M. Park, S. MacBeth, M. Scanlon Missing: J. Kluck, N. Miller

The 1977-78 Girls' Golf Team posted a record of 6-2; however, they were defeated by Upper St. Clair in the sectional finals. Julie Kluck, the team's leading player, shot the medal score, and along with Ceil Cook and Marilyn Park, entered the state qualifier held at Lake Arthur. Unfortunately they did not reach the finals.

HOCKEY

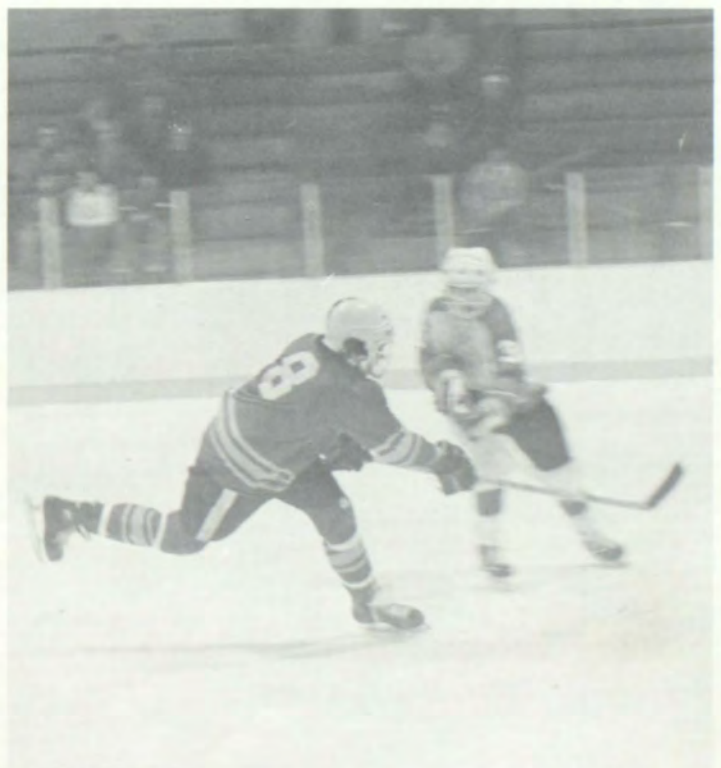

Row 1 — J. Meyers, B. Rush, D. Fairgrieve, E. Rodell, G. Tishuk, B. Chetlin, S. Frey, J. Frohlinger, B. Iadicicco, P. Borys, M. Kraemer Row 2 — Coach Stephenson, D. Pilarsky, T. McArthur, M. Greco, F. South, L. Tisdale, R. Rupp, M. Mizerak, S. Massof, B. McDermott, C. Horan, Coach Gefsky

According to several team members, the 1977-78 season was disappointing for the Mt. Lebanon Hockey Team. Despite a mediocre record, there were many highlights throughout the season. The most exciting game was a 3-2 victory over Upper St. Clair. A 5-3 triumph over North Allegheny was former coach McDermott's 100th win. Although the team played well in most games, it was plagued by late-game defensive lapses.

The offense was led by sophomore phenom Brad Rush, who, with five games left, had scored 22 goals. The defensive corps were led by Mark Kraemer and Lex Tisdale. Goaltending was admirably handled by Bob Chetlin, who was among the league leaders with a 2.25 goals-against average, Greg Tishuk, and Stuart Frey. Rush, Chetlin, and team captain Brian McDermott, were selected to play on the Dapper Dan All-Star Team. Kraemer and Chuck Horan were named as alternates. The team looks forward to having a successful year next season, as they will have a solid nucleus of players returning.

INTRAMURALS

Those who participate in intramural sports do not often get the recognition they deserve. Soccer is an especially tough game when played in a foot of snow in below-freezing temperatures. Lance Langston of the Ramblin' Guys merits an award as the only player to wear shorts throughout the season. Congratulations are also in order for the Stormtroopers, champions of the intramural soccer league.

For those who think flag-football is an easy sport, I suggest a game against the Fighting Irish, champions of the flag-football league for the second consecutive season.

Some people have fun beating each other with sticks. For those people, intramural hockey is the sport. The champions of that sport were Lebo Soccer.

The sport with the most participants is volleyball. Phase one of the tournament was captured by Starship Four. Other championships to be decided are: softball, basketball, and ping-pong.

BOYS' TENNIS

Row 1 — J. Bachrach, R. Howie, A. Rawicki, D. Vetter, D. Gavett, J. Mercer, J. Huzella, P. Steinman Row 2 — P. Steliotes, R. Feild, D. Martin, J. Eppelsheimer, M. Levine, W. Waterman, P. Flanagan, S. Hull, L. Gray, B. Rush, T. Fissinger

The 1976-77 season was a remarkable one for the Mt. Lebanon Boys' Tennis Team. Its overall record was 17-1. This included three wins in the WPIAL Team Championships. In addition to the team title, Lebo captured several section honors. Don Gavett and Phil Flanagan won the Section Doubles Championship by beating teammates John Eppelsheimer and Win Waterman in the finals.

Despite the graduation of some key players, Coach Stull has a fine core of returning lettermen including seniors John Eppelsheimer, Phil Flanagan and Andy Rawicki. These three, along with an influx of younger players, will attempt to duplicate this season's superlative accomplishments.

BASEBALL

The 1976-77 Mt. Lebanon Blue Baseball Team had a fantastic season, finishing with 22 wins and only 3 losses. In intrasectional play, the team was 12-3, which tied them for first place.

The season began with a fourteen game winning streak, which included a no-hitter pitched by Bill Drambell, Vern Maxwell, and John Mirabelli. Coach McCloskey relied on a starting lineup of Joe Hughes, c, Tony DeCello, 1b, Jack Bowen, 2b, Nick Fegen, ss, Bill Drambell, 3b, Ed Shindler, 1f, Matt Sekelick, cf, Gerry Simon, rf, and pitchers Scott Steen, John Mirabelli, Larry Dean, and Bill Eckenrode. Hughes lead the club in homeruns, while Sekelick had the highest batting average. These fine starters were backed by some very capable substitutes including: Paul Bowers, John Critser, Bernie Lawrence, Vern Maxwell, Dan McHugh, Wayne Mikus, Bill Riley, Toby Torchia, and Marty Vuono.

The most memorable and disappointing game of the campaign was a 6-5 loss in the sectional playoffs. This coming season looks even more promising for the Blue and Gold. Several starters are returning, and last year's key substitutes will be starters. The major reason for the optimistic outlook is that Coach McCloskey has his entire pitching staff returning.

GIRLS' SOFTBALL

Varsity

Row 1 — P. Dietz, L. Ewing Row 2 — K. MacNamara, B. Heckman, J. Finn, P. Fanning, G. O'Brien
Row 3 — Coach M. O'Conner, C. McClain, S. Jackson, M.A. Brody, V. Milie, A. Ferrero Row 4 —

Despite winning its first four games, the 1976-77 Mt. Lebanon Girls' Softball Team, finished the season with an unimpressive 7-5 record. With a few more breaks, the team could have easily been 10-2, as three of the losses were "one run" games.

The solid hitting attack, which twice scored over ten runs in a game, was led by Leah Kennedy, Mary Ann Brody, and Cathy McClain. Janis Finn and Barb Heckman were the team's pitchers. Many starters will return next season, so the team should improve dramatically.

Junior Varsity

Row 1 — C. Stough, S. Steele, K. MacNamara, G. Jackson, A. Ferrero, C. Craft, J. Gould Row 2 — L. Pietsch, J. Reinhold, B. McHugh, T. King, C. Stough, J. Kleinschmidt, L. Iannacchione, K. McKenna, S. Gallagher, Coach, M. O'Conner

Row 1 — P. Gordon, R. Meehan, J. Pike, N. Backes Row 2 — L. Laughlin, E. DeZubay, M. Scanlon, S. Thomas, L. Hasselman Row 3 — Coach D. King, L. Laughlin, L. Mitchell, A. Schiffhauer, R. Kownacki, T. Tattersall, B. Dean

The fifteen members of the 1976-77 Mt. Lebanon Bowling Team had an excellent season. Posting a record of 72 wins and 40 losses, they captured the championship of the WPIBL. Both Sue Thomas, who placed second for a high series with a 541, and Lynne Hasselman, who had the second highest game, a 215, performed well in the post-season tournament held at Bowling City. Linda Laughlin and her partner placed first in that Tournament's doubles competition, as Linda bowled a 189. Jim Pike bowled well also, scoring a 219. The team was coached by Donna King. She and the team should be proud of their outstanding accomplishments.

GIRLS' GOLF

S. Kistler, G. Kistler, M. Mc Grath, J. Kluck Missing: N. Merriman, C. Cook, M. Park

The '76-'77 Girls' Golf Team was led to the sectional championship title by three fine golfers: Ginger Kistler, Sharon Kistler, and Nancy Merriman. In regular season play, the girls had a record of 8-1. By beating Upper St. Clair in the quarter-finals 9-2, and Bethel Park 12-4 in the semi-finals, the team advanced to the WPIAL championships at Rolling Hills Country Club on May 31, 1977. In a frustrating contest, the girls lost to Franklin 12-4.

Next season, the girls will play in the fall. Hopefully, they can improve on this season's outstanding performance, and win the WPIAL title.

GIRLS' TRACK

The Mt. Lebanon Girls' Track Team had an excellent year. At the end of the season, six girls competed in the state championships held at Shippensburg State College. Two girls were entered in the field events: Kathy Murphy placed 5th in the javelin, and 7th in the discus. Beth Gailey, a sophomore, placed 6th in the high jump with a leap of 5' 3". Lebo runners also fared well. Donna Anderson bettered her best time in the two mile run by ten seconds, although she did not place. The mile relay team of Lisa Gergins, Beth Gailey, Susan Gailey, and Lisa Loftis performed admirably in the grueling competition. Endless hours of practice and fine team spirit payed off for each of these dedicated and talented athletes as well as the rest of the team.

Row 1 — M. Ehland, L. Bell, K. Douglass, T. Ashburner, M. Leb, D. Balk, M. Donnelly, N. Elsasser, B. Wenk, B. Redding, E. Baker, D. Dillon, K. King, K. Welsh Row 2 — L. Rothermal, C. Lineman, B. The 1977 Boys' Track Team, despite its great team effort and spirit, had a mediocre season. The Varsity team record was 3-3. Although the team did not fare well, some outstanding individuals competed in the WPIAL championships. Mt. Lebanon's two mile relay team, Greg Conover, Cal Schnure, Bill Moorhead, and Tom Mulkeen, placed 2nd at this meet. Bill Moorhead also ran well in the 880, finishing 5th. In addition to these fine runners, Mt. Lebanon had an excellent field competitor. Jim Johnson placed 6th in the pole vault. Many great athletes will be returning, and others are moving up from the junior varsity to give the team a strong outlook for next season.

Life is but a bridge we build to link Before and After,
And wise the man who builds his span of faith and love and laughter.

— Jill Taylor

When I must leave you for a little while Please do not grieve and shed wild tears
And hug your sorrow to you through the years.
But start out bravely with a gallant smile;
And for my sake
and in my name Live on and do all things the same,
Feed not your loneliness on empty days.
But fill each waking hour
in useful ways.
Reach out your hand
in comfort and cheer
And I in turn will comfort you and hold you near.
For family and friends
From . . . Lisa Gordon

All the world's a stage.
And all the men and women merely players; They have their exits and entrances; And one man in his time plays many parts.

— William Shakespeare

Sunlight drenched,
 An empty bottle
 Scattering bits of dust
 To dance on beams — like a child's fantasies
 That have no support,
 But superb idealism
 And a little light, Empty but wise.

as i grow older, i realize that change is consistent with added years. friends who were once so close seem to become strangers overnight. the times we shared become memories which i hold, not willing to completely let go. new people come into my life everyday, but my thoughts go back to those who were once so very much a part of me. sometimes i long for yesterday.

Yesterday

I am yesterday.

I am gone from you forever.

I am the last of a long procession of days, streaming behind you, away from you, pouring into mist and obscurity,
and at last into the ocean of oblivion.

I depart from you, yet I am ever with you . . .

I am one of the leaves of a growing book. There are many pages before me.

Someday you will turn us all over, and read us, and know what you are.

I am rich, for I have wisdom . . .

I am Yesterday; yet I am the same as Today and Forever;
for I am you; and you cannot escape from yourself.

— Frank Crane.
