Rockin' The Paradise

Whatcha doing tonight
 Have you heard that the world's gone crazy
 Young Americans listen when I say
 There's people putting us down
 I know they're saying that we've gone lazy
 To tell you the truth
 We've all seen better days
 Don't need no fast buck, lame duck, profits for fun
 Quick trick plans take the money and run
 We need the long term, slow burn, getting it done
 And some straight talking, hard working son of a guns

Whatcha doing tonight
 I got faith in our generation
 Let's stick together and futurize our attitudes
 I ain't lookin' to fight but I know with determination
 We can challenge the schemers
 Who cheat all the rules
 If we take pride, be wise in spotting the fools
 Big shots, crack pots bending the rules
 A fair shot here for me and for you
 Knowing that we can't lose
 Then we'll be: Rocking in Paradise . . .

Every age is modern to those who are living in it.
Benjamin Cardozo

We are tomorrow's past.
Mary Webb

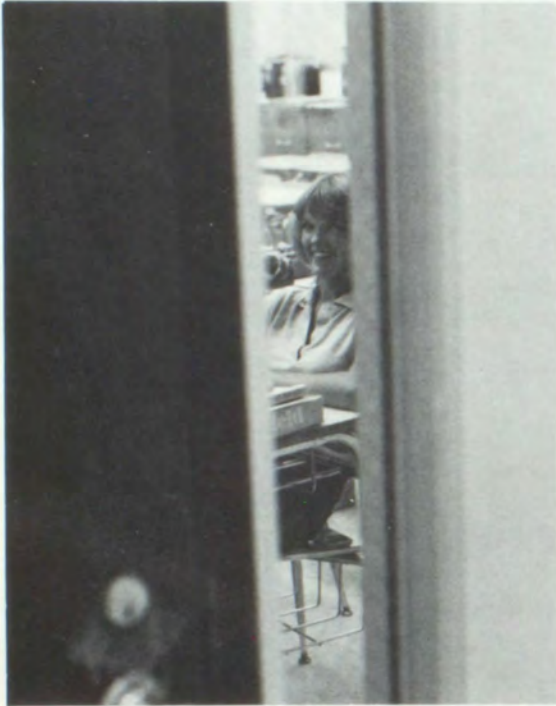

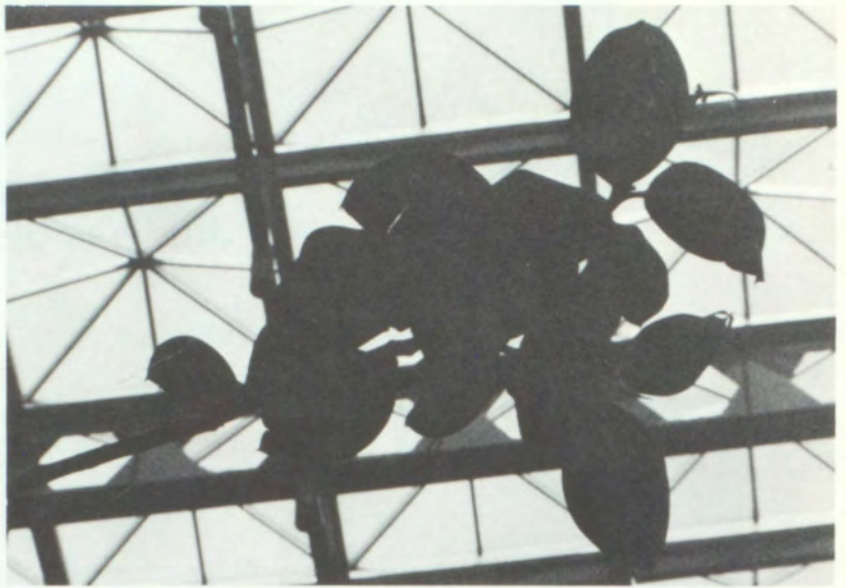

Activity only is what makes and keeps you happy and cheerful.
Jean Paul

The most completely lost of days is the one on which we have not laughed.
Nicolas Chamfort

Archibald MacLeish

Isn't your life extremely flat
With nothing to grumble at?
W. S. Gilbert

Contracting a real friendship is one of the most completely involuntary things a man can do.
Henry S. Haskins

G. C. Lichtenberg

If you do not think

John Galsworth

My interest is in the future because I'm going to spend the rest of my life there.
Charles Franklin Kettering

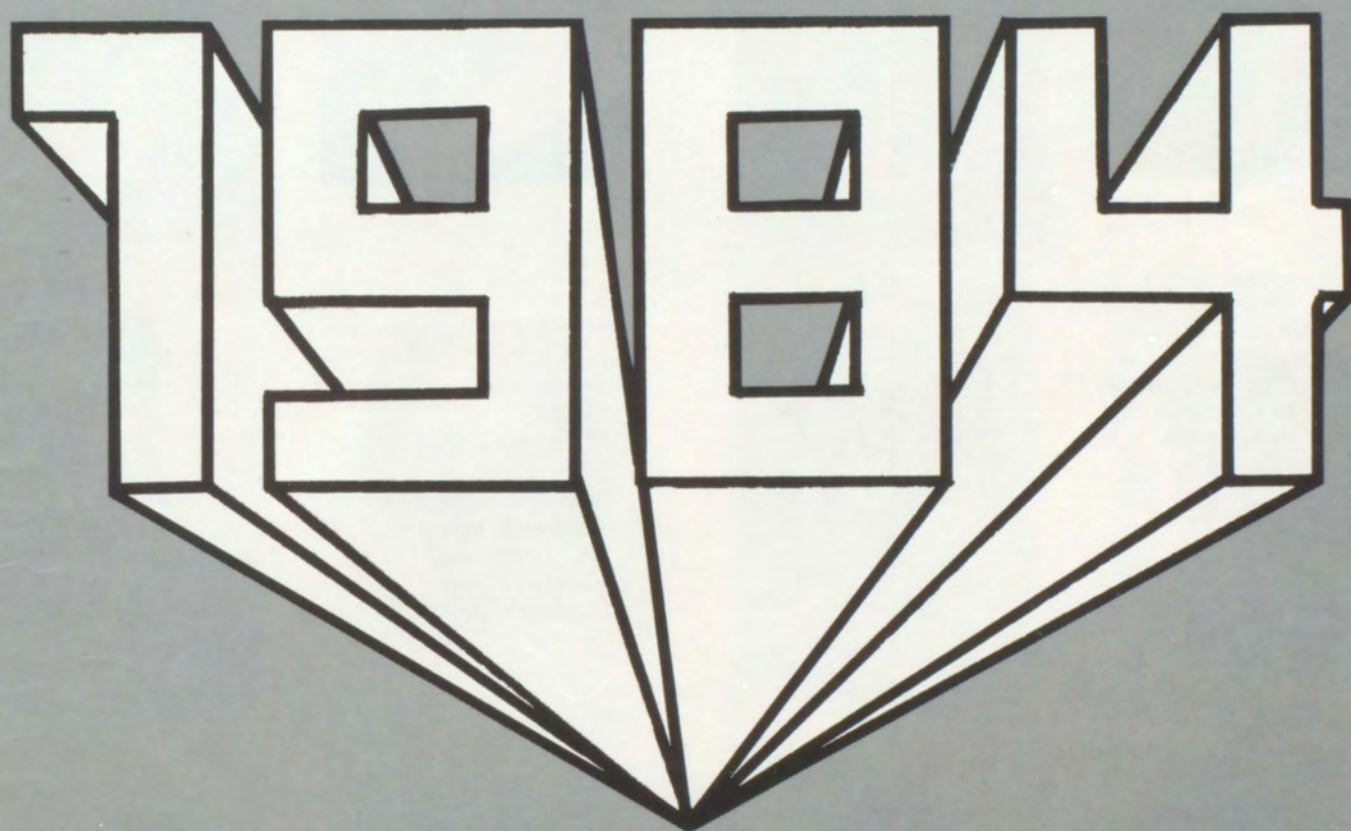

It is necessary, if one is to reflect reality, not only to depict why a man does what he does, or why he nearly didn't do it, but why he cannot simply walk away and say to hell with it.

FACULTY

FUTURE TEACHERS OF AMERICA

The faculty of Mt. Lebanon High School has been and will continue to be a large part of all their students' futures as they will be a large part of the school's future. Without a doubt, our teachers and our experiences in their classes have been the most important aspect of high school, but what we often do not realize is that our high school teachers will continue to influence our educations and our lives even after we graduate from Mt. Lebanon. The different personalities and opinions of each teacher we have had, have made an impression, whether good or bad. Everything we learned from all those different teachers in a myriad of classes has left us with an education we will use throughout college and our lives.

UNDERCLASS

Freshmen

On the following pages are the classes of '85, '86 and '87. These students will experience many changes at Mt. Lebanon High School during the next three years. The seven-period day, removal of the diagonal and the addition of seventh — and eighth — grade students to the high school complex with all have profound effects upon the students involved and the educational process itself. The successful integration of these new ideas with the traditional aspects of Mt. Lebanon High School will be a task for the classes of the next few years. Whether these changes are for better or worse, they are a part of the future that students in this school must contend with.

SPORTS

In Mt. Lebanon, athletics is a tradition. With more Western Pennsylvania Interscholastic Athletic League Championship titles than any other school in this part of the state, we have earned a reputation for outstanding achievement. The students who participate in the athletic programs under the direction of Mr. Glenn Aston-Reese have demonstrated dedication and excellence. Congratulations Football, Soccer, Cross Country, Tennis, Golf and Volleyball teams!! And, to the coaches, without which none of these teams would have reached such heights of accomplishment, thank-you for all of your support and persistence.

They may receive little recognition, but they certainly did not go unnoticed. Lebo swimmers worked long and hard, but in the end, came up shallow. Individually, however, these beady eyed swimmers did very well, with eight swimmers qualifying for W.P.I.A.L.s and four for states. But, alas, this year was one for broken feet and broken records. Many of the records on the new record board were smashed before they were even posted.

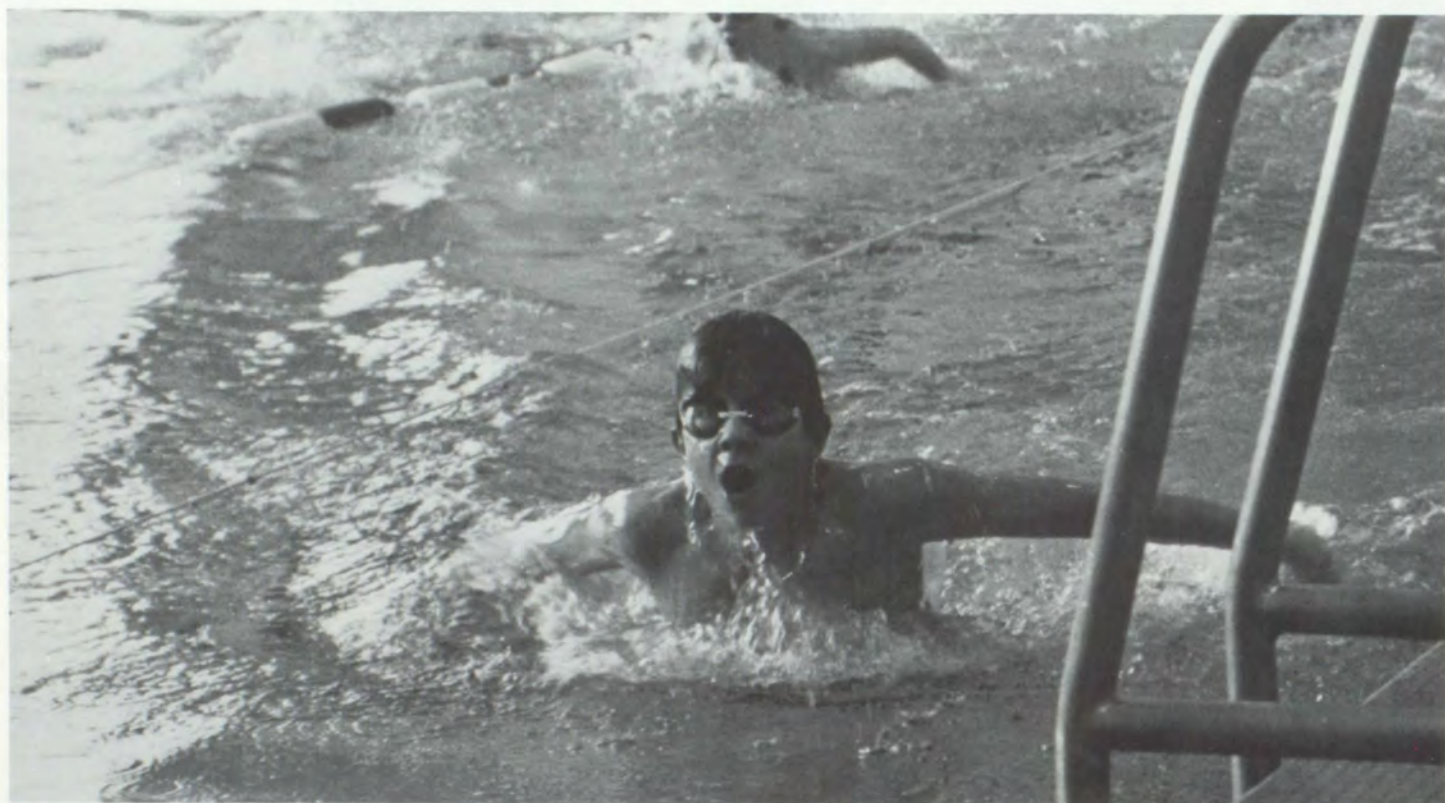

Best of luck to the graduating seniors — Anne Tarry, Mary Shardt, Brian "Foot in the water" Press, Mike "The moon" Ross, and Rob "Animal" Allen. P.S. Special congratulations to the divers who managed to compete without a diving board!!

The Devil's Advocate prints seven monthly newspapers per school year. It is an organization of 5 departments: business, production, layout, circulation and news reporting which includes features, sports, editorials and news. Students report on stories about high school activities. After gathering information and writing, they typeset their articles. Editors then make a mark-up of each page. After the layout is complete, the high school graphics department makes a photographic plate for each page and prints the paper on a printing press. The staff collates and circulates the paper to the students.

Editor's Log: Stardate January 24, 1984

Yearbook editing — the final frontier. Starship Commander Christie Beggs and her skeleton crew of ten other senior editors embarked on a mission to explore new costumes and seek out the ultimate picture . . . daring to go where no editors had gone before — the fire station at Greater Pittsburgh International Airport. Great adventure awaited us as we began our quest. Having begun the difficult and strenuous process of equipping ourselves in silver asbestos, we were suddenly thrust into a red-alert situation, sending us leaping out of this equipment, and its rightful owners leaping into it as the fire crew was alerted to possible danger on the runway. Fortunately, the alert was a mere precaution and we were able to again suit-up, this time successfully completing our mission — with the help of photographer Brian "Flash" Gordon. We then set out once again for home base, with starship pilots Diane Damratoski and Danny Rizzo reaching speeds up to warp 1 on the Parkway West. We the crew of the Mount Lebanon Log owe our success to the firemen at Greater Pitt, who provided us with the costumes to explore these new worlds in Log photography.

Outdoors Club members learn by doing. Club members try to dispell the "Lebo Cake" label by participation in such outings as caving, canoeing, cross-country skiing, winter camping, backpacking and whitewater boating. Our goals are to develop environmental awareness, to promote outdoor education and to enhance self-reliance through our outings. The club plans a week-long canoe-camping trip to Algonquin Park in Ontario, Canada for this July.

The Stage Band is extra-curricular and rehearses twice weekly after school. Its repertoire has expanded to include modern jazz-rock and fusion forms. The Stage Band has presented numerous performances in the Pittsburgh area over the years.

STUDENT CONGRESS

Presidents: Greg Katshir, Jamie Linkowski, Vice-Presidents: Steve Finke, Dan Polsky, Secretaries: Paul Anderson, Katie Simpson.

Each year, a cross-section of the student body is elected to represent all the high school students in the decision-making process. These students are also responsible for initiating, planning and organizing student activities such as fund raisers, the senior prom and all other dances throughout the school year. This year, Student Congress has made a special effort to work with the Student Peer Assistance Program to achieve better communication among students and between students and faculty in the school.

STUDENT PEER ASSISTANCE PROGRAM

The Student Peer Assistance Program has tried to create support systems for students and give their high school careers direction. SPAP concentrates on preparing students for the competitiveness in college and career planning. Hopefully, this ambitious program will continue under the leadership of all classes after 1984.

STUDENT UNITED NATIONS

Student United Nations provides an opportunity for students to learn about individual nations and the problems of the world through discussion. The club's two basic functions are the several in-school discussions held throughout the year and the participation in many model United Nations in the Northeast. This year, SUN sent delegates to both the Gannon University and New York City Model United Nations. These model U.N.'s function exactly like the real U.N., providing a slightly different experience than found in the less formal meetings within the high school. The subjects discussed this year include the Korean plane crisis, the Marines, in Lebanon, the nuclear arms issue, and education in America. Through these functions, SUN provides a learning experience for all involved.

These cues and expressions are familiar to the behind-the-scene personnel, better known as Technical Theatre Company. Working directly under the guidance of Mr. James Lutz and the production directors, the technical theatre company is responsible for all aspects of the production except the acting.

IT'S RAINING RHYTHM

On December 23, 1983, the Dance Company along with selected students from Mrs. Kapron's and Miss McCreary's classes participated in a daytime dance production. The show included a ballet piece and a jazz piece, along with modern and contemporary selections, with a wide variety of music and costuming.

ELF DAY

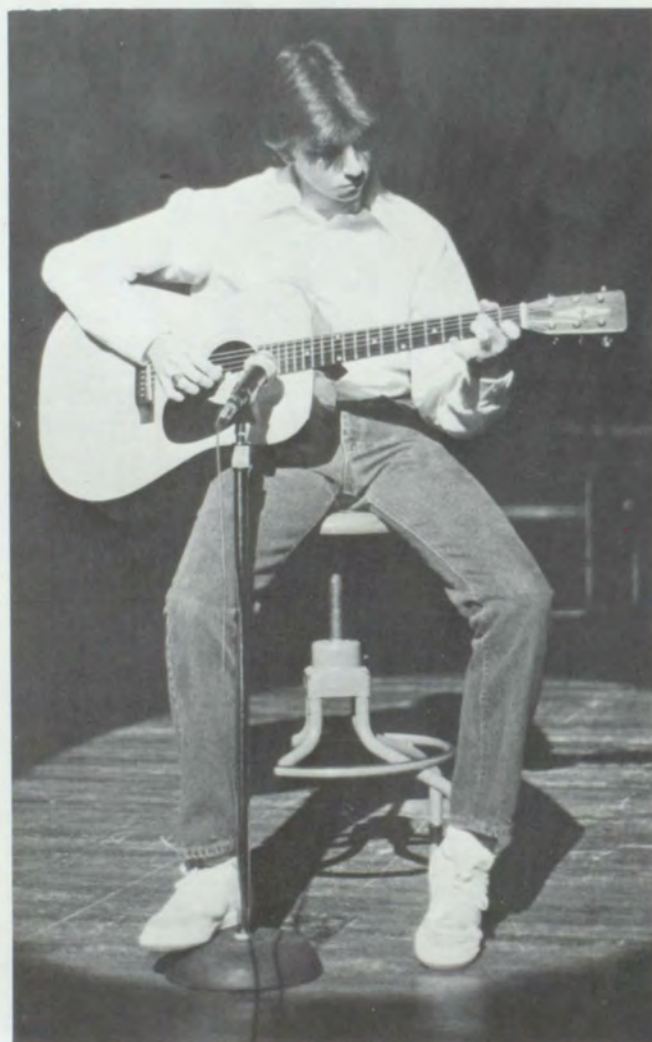

This year, for its fall night-time production, the Mt. Lebanon High School Theatre Company chose a two act play entitled "Spoon River Anthology". The play was adapted by Charles Aidman from a book by Edgar Lee Masters, originally published in 1915. The play form first ran on Broadway in 1963. Actually a series of poetic monologues, the anthology became an interesting musical performance. Individual portrayals of the many characters were very well done.

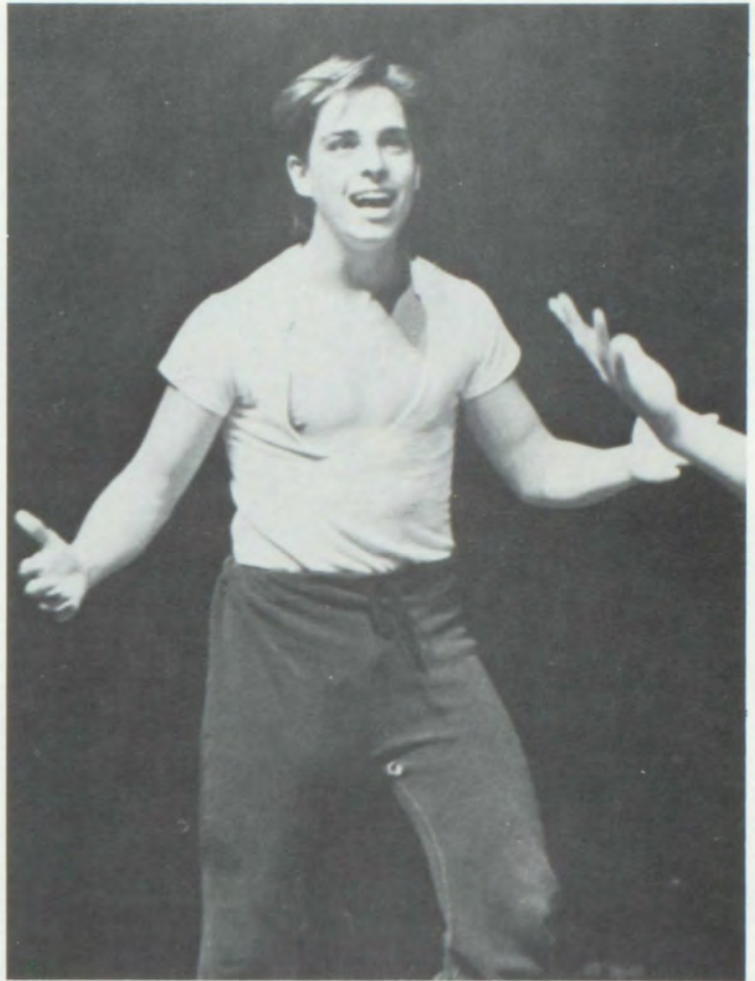

HOLIDAY SHOW

The Holiday Show is an all-school variety show organized by the Student Congress officers who also serve as Masters of Ceremony. This year thirty-five acts auditioned. Twenty-seven acts, including two bands, singers, dancers, comedians, a male dance company, and talented jugglers appeared in the show. As usual it was sold out in advance. Proceeds were donated to charities chosen by Student Congress.

"NEWSPEAK"

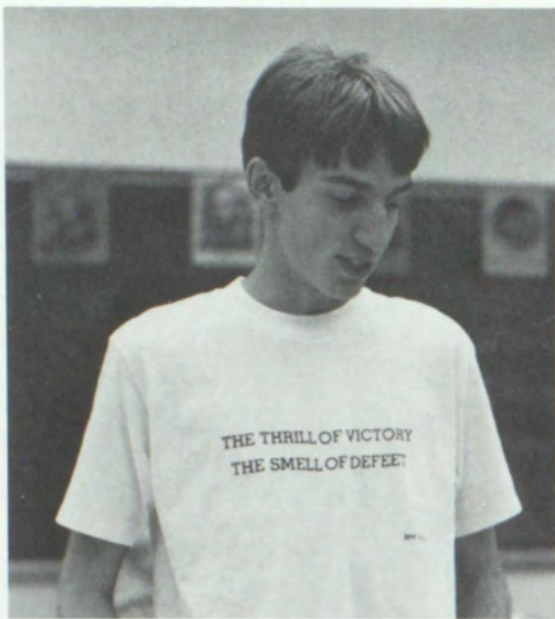

THE JOURNAL OF THE NEWSPEAKERS ASSOCIATION

I not only use all the brains I have, but all I can borrow.
Woodrow Wilson

In a few minutes a computer can make a mistake so great that it would take many men many months to equal it.

Merle L. Meacham

You see things and you say "Why?" But I dream things that never were; and I say "Why not?"
George Bernard Shaw

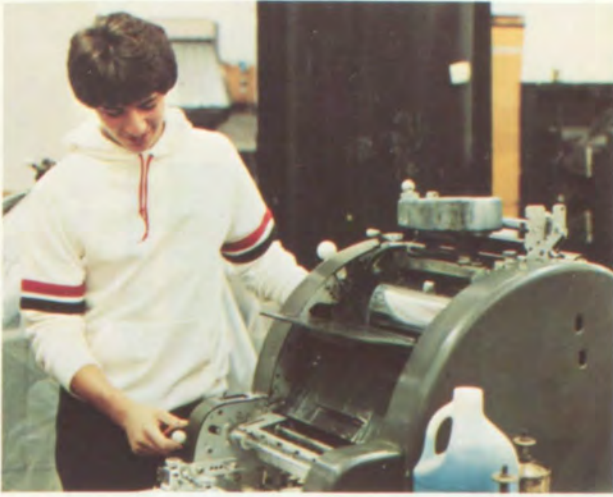

The universe is true for all of us
and different for each of us.

Marcel Proust

I am a human being
 With hopes and fears and feelings and
 I am a student
 Using my mind to learn and grow.
 I am a writer
 With compassion for all living beings and
 I am a musician
 Loving life and everything about it . . .
 I am a person
 With my life stretching long and promising ahead of me.
 Janie Lehmann

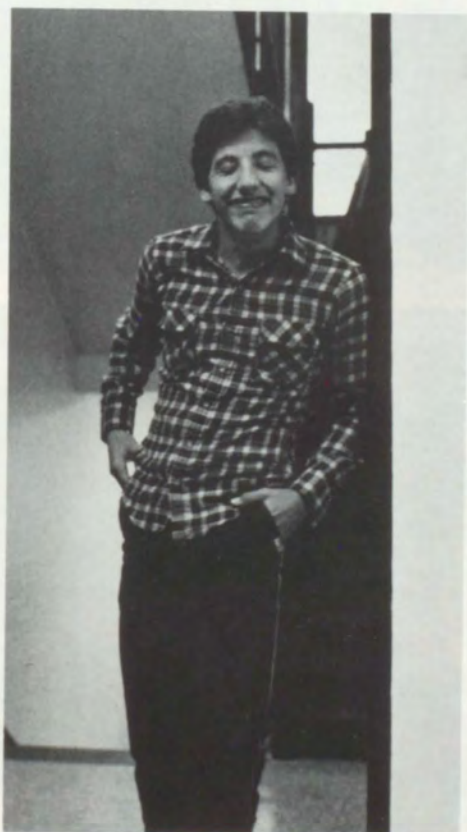

Very strange is this quality of our human nature which decrees that unless we feel a future before us, we do not live completely in the present where we stand today.

Philip Brooke

Friendship is the golden thread that ties the hearts of all the world.

In architecture, the beauty is in the line and design. In painting, it is the form and color. In works of art, it is the craftsmanship. Possession of these things brings pleasure to some, but the real joy comes from enjoyment of their beauty.

William Ross

The danger of the past was that men became slaves. The danger of the future is that men may become robots.
Erich Fromm

Our faith in the present dies out long before our faith in the future.

Ruth Benedict

The way out is never as simple as the way in.
E. W. Howe

You may be right. I may be crazy!
Billy Joel

The future always arrives
a little before you're ready to give up the present.

The essence of the creative is its novelty and hence we have no standard by which to judge it.

Carl R. Rogers
