The Devil's Advocate

Dear Devil,

My parents and I are having a big disagree in my future. They want me to continue the family (swelling vacuum cleaners door-to-door) and with nothing against vacuum cleaners, I want to go to become a doctor and really clean up. I have been scholarship, so money is not a problem. My parents me and refuse to take my dreams seriously.

What should I do?

Dear Unsure,

I'm sure your parents don't mean any harm want what they think is best for you. However, it is Sit down and have a heart-to-heart talk with you and tell them calmly how you feel. Then listen to of it. Maybe you can reach a compromise, such as a salesman for a few summers while college. Good luck!

Dear Devil,

My boyfriend wants me to pierce my nose a turkey bone through it, but I am afraid to do this may not smell as good as I do now. What should I do?

Dear Chicken,

I don't think that wearing a turkey bone in nose will make you smell worse, but you should ask if this is really something you want to do. If you're your nose just because it's "in" or because your boyfriend wants you to, don't do it. Someday you may not want that turkey bone anymore and you'll be stuck with a hole in your nose and that will be really tacky.

Unless it's your nose is stuck with earnings.

Every Friday night at the football games, the pair psyched up the rowdy crowd from down on the turf and up in the stands as well. Also, the girls faithfully painted signs, with the help of some cheerleaders, for the home soccer games. You both did a great job!

The 1985 Varsity Volleyball team produced a 9-6 record, the best of any Lebo volleyball team over the past seven years. The key to this achievement was the dedication of the girls to off-season workouts. Participation in weight-training, attending summer volleyball camps, and playing in the summer recreational leagues increased the skill level to make the team highly competitive. The senior leadership was superb and the enthusiasm from both the J.V. and the varsity teams made the season an extremely successful one. Also, a special thanks to Kelly Nicholson for her consistent and accurate scorekeeping. Congratulations, girls!
