Bonfire 1990

Exercising the right to do the senior hand drill are Marni Moretti, Jeni Kanche, and Stacey Mulvihill.

Lee Williams, Shannon Donnelly, and Hallie Lieberman feel the heat at the bonfire.

Preparing for victory are Jill Alden, Jeff Iovino, Annie Coll, and Brian Gerich.

Lynn Langston and Ginny Hall realize that someone is sneaking up on them.

On September 12, 1990, Mt. Lebanon students gathered in Bird Park for a combined bonfire/slave auction. Preparation for the slave auction began in school that week when $1.00 lottery tickets went on sale for the 28 students who had offered to be slaves. At the bonfire, slaves were auctioned off and the proceeds of over $500 were divided evenly between the Caring Program for Children and the Kenya Project. The bonfire itself stirred school spirit for the football game that week against North Allegheny. Helping people less fortunate and promoting school spirit provided a great reason for the bonfire and put a new twist on a continuing Mt. Lebanon High School tradition.

The first fall senior boat ride, held on September 26, 1990, proved to be a great time for everyone who went. After boarding the Gateway Party Liner for an evening cruise along the three rivers, the Class of '91 danced the night away. The boat ride's proceeds went to the 1991 prom fund. Judging by the enthusiasm of the senior class, the spring boat ride should prove to be another success.

Mt. Lebanon's Homecoming festivities took place on October 19-20. After nomination by the senior class, the students on this year's court were Carole Chandler, Kristen Frank, Kristin Eckert, Erika Nikolich, Alex Kenrick, Derrick McNeese, Evene Sabatini, Jason Tettow, and King and Queen Lee Haller and Sara Gilroy. The decorated car procession, led by the King and Queen, showed the true colors of Mt. Lebanon's class spirit. The football team's victory against Trinity and the band's Halloween halftime show provided the fun for the rest of the evening. Homecoming weekend was capped by the junior-senior Homecoming Dance on Saturday Night as couples packed the Rec center for a night of socializing and dancing. This year's Homecoming will be fondly remembered by all who experienced it.

Senior Rec 1991

Mt. Lebanon's 1991 Senior Recognition kicked off Friday morning with the judging of the decorated senior homerooms. All the efforts and hard work of the seniors was put on display, with 12-31's "Juan in a Million" coming in first place. Other entries included the Bat Cave 12-11, 12-32's Whoville, and Zappa's Zoo of 12-23. The 7th period pep rally showed the talents of the Senior Rockettes and Cheerleaders as the student body gave their support for Blue Devil sports teams. The pep rally also psyched the crowd and the football team for Friday night's game against Upper St. Clair. The 1991 seniors showed their class spirit by sporting their blue and white at school, and at the game, as members of fall sports teams, Band, and Cheerleaders were recognized. Despite a disappointing loss to USC, 1991 Senior Recognition made great memories.

The 1990 Holiday Show

The twelfth annual Holiday Show on December 19, 1990 was a great show for good causes. Proceeds from this year's show went to the Joseph B. Price Memorial Fund, the Caring Program, the Kenya project, the Light of Life Mission, Pleasant Valley, Whale's Tale, and Glen Rosing. Considering the talent in the show's thirty acts, it came as no surprise that the show was a success. Acts included dances by the senior cheerleaders and Rockettes, and surprise appearances by famous celebrities like James Brown, Jerry Lee Lewis, and the New Kids on the Block. Several bands such as Soup, Infusion, Purple Active, Ricochet, and several student renditions of popular songs musically rounded out the evening. A special mention is deserved by Kathy Hughes for her beautiful singing of "Wind Beneath My Wings", dedicated to Mr. Price. The KGB male dance troupe made its annual appearance, along with a possible tradition of cross-dressing cheerleaders. This year's faculty skit was a tribute to our departing Santa, Mr. Mascetta, and the whole cast joined to sing "Jingle Bells" in the show's finale. This year's performance continued the Holiday Show's tradition wonderfully, and Mt. Lebanon can look forward to more great shows in the years to come.

The Marching Blue Devils

"The Lebo Marching Blue Devils completed a very successful season performing the hardest show ever done. We performed the show thrillingly during half-times at the football games and kept the entire student body pumped up at the pep-rally. In addition we played at four band festivals, including one of our own, and at six elementary schools. All the practices and performances culminated on our spring trip to Virginia Beach where we performed outstandingly in the Parade and Field Show competitions."

"This has been and extremely busy and exciting year for the varsity squad. After attending a summer camp at Slippery Rock University, we practiced every morning and afternoon in the two weeks prior to the start of the school year. Additionally, our squad participated in our first competition of the year at Ross Park Mall and received the award for the "Most Spirited Squad." As our football and soccer seasons began, we started fundraising for the national competition in Jacksonville, Fla. In September, our squad won first place in the South Hills Village Cheerleading Competition and went on to win first place in our division in the regional competition held at Shaler High School. Most exciting was the fact that we had scored higher than any of the other forty-eight competing squads that day! Special activities this year included performing at the Class of 1940's fifty year reunion, doing a cover story for the Mt. Lebanon Magazine, and performing at the Galleria's Fashion Show. In March, our squad competed in the national competition held in Jacksonville, Fla. where we hope to continue our success. Special thanks to Mrs. Gruden and each and every girl on the squad. Congratulations on a great year!"

"This year, the staff of the Devil's Advocate hopes to complete five issues by the end of May. Finally perfecting work on the computer system which was installed last year, we have been able to work faster and involve more people in the layout process and the technology of journalism in the 1990's. We ran into several problems due to poor proofreading, but these have been worked out and the Devil's Advocate is better than ever. Special thanks to our advisor, Mrs. Cecotti. Without Mrs. Cecotti's and Mr. Batchelor's patience and dedication to the Devil's Advocate we never would have been published. Special thanks also to everyone who put in the long hours after school every day to finish an issue."

1990-91 Log Staff

Jeanne Bowman, Editor-in-Chief.

"This year's LOG was created by the seventeen members of the LOG staff as a result of hard work, persistence, creativity, and dedication. Even though the LOG staff earns no academic credit, we still work in the LOG office at least one class period a day. The LOG is a faithful account of this year's people, places, and events in Mt. Lebanon High School, and creating it is a satisfying experience. By devoting countless hours on weekends and during and after school, the LOG staff receives the satisfaction of seeing a finished product of our work in the hands of practically everyone in Mt. Lebanon High School. Special thanks to our faculty advisor Ms. Funk, our Jostens representative Jim Jackson, and Norman's Studios, for without them a finished LOG would have been an impossible thing to accomplish. If our pride in this publication is any measure of its merit, then the 1991 LOG should be one of the best."

"The 1990-91 Girls' Golf team, led by co-captains Kelly Doran and Allison Stittsworth, had an improved season. (5 wins - 3 losses) We finished second in our section and made it to team WPIALs. Four of the nine golf team members will be graduating this year but we would like to wish Ms. Renaud and the remaining players luck in the future. This season was a rewarding and enjoyable one for all of us."

"The year looked a little less promising than 1989 because we lost 4 seniors. We started out very strong winning the first half of our matches, but then we lost to Baldwin in a very close match. That loss broke our winning streak of about 90 matches, so we were pretty upset. We lost again to USC away, but they legitimately beat us. We finished our season 9-2, won our WPIAL area qualifiers, and finished sixth in the WPIAL finals. We sent three players to Area Qualifiers and all three made it to the WPIAL Qualifiers. Chris Marando and John Anderson qualified for states and came in thirteenth and fifth respectively. Mark Angel was the other WPIAL qualifier. In summary, the team was as dedicated as last year, but we simply lacked the depth and talent present in 1989."

By the last game against U.S.C. we had put ourselves in a position to win the conference championships. Even though we lost, the season was a very positive experience. Everyone on the team had the right attitude and everyone gave 100%. Thanks to all our fans and supporters. I wish next year's team good luck."

Although there was a lot of talent on the young team, we needed a season to perfect our skills and learn how to work well as a team. Our new coach played an integral part in this development. She taught us the intensity, dedication, and winning attitude needed to achieve our goals. With only two graduating players, the team has great potential to be a dominant force in the future."

"Upholding a tradition of excellence established by Coach Charlie Stull's previous 19 teams, the 1990 Girls' tennis players posted an impressive record of eighteen wins and two losses. The 3-2 upset victory by "Charlie's Angels" on St. Clair's courts set the stage for a final showdown between the rivals. After dispatching the competition in both brackets of the WPIAL Tournament, the Section 8 Co-Champs finally squared off for the WPIAL Championship. Although our team finished the season just short of the ultimate goal, we are proud of our competitive record, our team spirit, and each other. Coach Stull forged a strong, deep team which boasted 15 lettermen, thirteen of whom will return next year to unseat our rivals. Our two seniors, both four-year lettermen, depart having been part of four outstanding teams, each of which competed in a WPIAL final, two as runners-up and two as champions. Over two decades the Mt. Lebanon High School girls' tennis team has consistently attained enviable athletic success. Our 1990 team was no exception."

"The 1990 Mt. Lebanon Soccer team overcame the doubts that they would not live up to Lebo Soccer's traditional high expectations by posting a 19-3-1 record. During the regular season, Mt. Lebanon posted an undefeated section mark, tying only rival U.S.C. in the last regular game. In their first clash, however, the Lebo boys downed U.S.C. 1-0 in a similar hard-fought battle. The only setback was a non-section loss to Fox Chapel, the eventual state champs and Lebo nemesis. After earning a bye in the first round of the playoffs, Mt. Lebanon trampled Penn-Trafford, 3-0, to gain a birth in the WPIAL semifinals versus North Allegheny. Unfortunately, this would be the game where Lebo would meet their match, as N.A. walked away with a 2-1 victory. This game, coupled with a loss to Fox Chapel in the consolation game for rights to the state tournament, ended Lebo's season. Nevertheless, the boys should be proud of an excellent season. Senior leadership proved vital as captains Geoff Tomb, Doug Hammel, and Bryan Weet led the team offensively with 12 tallies apiece. Tomb was a Post-Gazette All-Star as well as Almanac Co-MVP. Hammel and standout goalie Jarrod Duffy, a junior, earned recognition as both Almanac and Post-Gazette All-Star. Weet was elected team MVP. The midfield was controlled by senior halfbacks Mark McGalla and Mike Mincin. Roy Wilson, a senior, dominated at several different positions while senior striker John Ferguson proved to be a valuable playmaker. Other seniors who made this team a great success were fullbacks Brad Morgan, Karl Stabenow, and Jeff Webster, who was hampered with a back injury for the majority of the season. Adam Haberman, a senior goalie, was a very capable back-up and team leader.

Look for great things from Lebo in the future as well, since the defense was spearheaded by juniors Kevin Chitester, Mike Rosky, Kyle Cooper, who received the team's Most Improved Player Award, and sophomore Etienne Hightower. Coming back are some offensive weapons as well, including juniors Bob Trethewey, Chris Lust, Sam Kakitsis, and Matt Aubin, who saw quality time this year. Valuable contributions came from the sophomore class too from the likes of forward Scott Marshall, midfielder Jon Kostyal, and Sean Sweeney. Freshman Gust Kapetan along with freshman keeper Grant Naylor received some varsity experience. Finally, junior defender Anthony Benintend, out this year with a back problem, should return to help next year's squad. All in all, it was a terrific season and the future continues to shine bright."

"The girls varsity soccer team had an outstanding season finishing with a 20-1-2 record. With hard work and dedication, we earned the Section IV title for the second straight year. Two of the most important regular season games came with our arch rival, USC, and the results were a 0-0 tie and a 1-0 victory. In the play-off action, we destroyed both Peters Township and Quaker Valley 4-0 to advance into the WPIAL championship game. There we faced USC once again; however, this time things did not end in our favor. Disappointedly, we were defeated 1-2. For the second straight time, we were crowned WPIAL Runner-ups. This year we are graduating five important seniors; however, with many strong returnees and promising underclassmen, it seems likely that, in the near future, the WPIAL Championship will be ours."

"The 1990 girls' cross-country team aspired to extend their outstanding record this fall; with the majority of last year's talented team returning this year, their goal was definitely attainable. The team finished in second place in both the section and the WPIAL, losing only to Bethel Park. In addition, the team won the Tri-State Area Coaches Invitational and finished in second place at the State College Invitational, which draws teams from all over Pennsylvania. The team culminated its season by achieving tenth place at the PIAA State Championships. Throughout the season the girls worked as a unified team and improved together to achieve their goals. Because the team is very young they will continue the strong tradition of competitive Mt. Lebanon teams for many seasons to come."

"Although this year's boys' cross-country team had a disappointing season which ended at WPIAL qualifiers, the relatively inexperienced team showed great endurance and diligence in all of their meets as well as in their daily practices. Led by senior co-captains Dave Golomb and Jason Winschel, returning seniors Lee Haller and Bill Morycz, and newcomers Damon Rhodes, Mike Yurcheshen, Craig Kemerer, and Brad Mehl, the team finished with a 7-4 dual meet record. The season was highlighted by the team's impressive finishes at three invitationals they attended. At California State University, the boys placed eighth out of 30 teams. Also, they finished fifth out of 25 teams and seventh out of 27 teams at the Fairview Invitational and Penn State Invitational respectively. Unfortunately, untimely injuries to key runners led to close losses to rivals Bethel Park and Upper St. Clair.

Throughout the season, however, the team displayed great spirit and attitude and had a great time. Hopefully, this season provided the necessary experience for a very determined, talented, and spirited group of underclassmen to compete for future WPIAL and state championships. And remember - beep, beep, thumbs up!"

"This year, the Lady Blue Devils started off somewhat slowly. We showed poise, however, and stuck together, hopeful to improve. We lost a heart breaker to Moon, and when we retrieved our leading scorer Erin Butcher, we had high hopes to defeat them in the championship game of the Seneca Valley Tournament. Due to the lack of our height, they overpowered us again. The highlight of the tournament was the selection of Chris Azouri, one of our two seniors, to the All-Tournament team. Jen Benkovitz is another important senior. Although we have few senior players, the junior class is capable of picking up the slack. Along with previously mentioned Erin Butcher, the juniors include Farrell Leo and Julie Stocker.

The team, however, does not stop at the juniors. As anticipated, there are few members to make up both the junior varsity and varsity squads. The sophomore and freshmen classes are very vital to this year's team. Leading the way for the sophomores are point guards Lisa Warno, Mary Kay Pivetz, and Jackie Grady. Future freshmen stars include Amy Barnett, Jen Seaver, Heather Border, and Christina French.

Every team sets goals to accomplish for the end of the season. Our 1990-91 team is no different. We have high expectations of winning the section crown and thus going to the playoffs. Mr. Ronald Bradley has not been to the playoffs in a while. As a team, we owe it to him to try to get there. Our assistant coaches, Miss Cate Gannon and Mr. Bob Lowe, would love to be there as well. We are now on a mission."

The girls' varsity swimming team has unsurprisingly dominated the competition again this year and is looking to repeat last year's performance as section champion. Captained by senior Alicia Best and junior Courtney Warren, the team is undefeated (5-0) midway through the season with five swimmers already qualified for WPIAL championships in individual events: Alicia Best, Alexis Fedorchak, Diedre Lamb, Sunday Lewandowski (diving), and Courtney Warren.

The boys' team is also off to a blazing start this year. Despite relatively dim prospects at the start of varsity training, the team has amassed a 5-1 record over halfway through the season. So far, senior captains Mike Brecker and Jason Havlin have qualified for WPIAL championships in individual events.

Coached by Bill Conrad, the truly tough practice schedule of over four hours per day has paid off for nearly everyone. Tapering as the season comes to a close is expected to enable more swimmers to qualify for WPIALs and lead both squads to swim even faster and better than before. With the solid swimming seen so far, the end of the season will undoubtedly be even more impressive than the beginning, culminating at the WPIAL and PIAA championship meets.

And also . . . the boys' team will make the final decision on the long-awaited second annual swimsuit (and personality) competition held in conjunction with WPIALs at the end of February with the official crowning of "Miss Paper Suit 1991."

Mike French struggles for position.

Evene Sabatini takes the advantage over his opponent.

"Despite our team again competing in the toughest section in the state, we experienced a few bright spots. Although we were unable to field a full team, we had some individual successes. A young team, we relied heavily on a strong class of sophomores. The junior class also contributed some much-needed help. The seniors, although riddled with injuries, provided leadership for the hard times. Next year holds promise for this improving squad. We would like to thank our coaches, trainers and parents for a great season."

"The 1990-91 Varsity Hockey Squad, led by co-captains Ryan Driscoll and Seth Kilzer, has made vast improvements over the past few seasons. With the additions of freshmen All-Star's Brian Drew and Robert Guillen, and the reemergence of senior goalie Todd Rosenwald (5-0), the outlook for the 5-2 Blue Devils is very good. Coming off the highlight of the season so far, a 4-3 victory over USC at the Neville Ice Arena on the South Side, the team is looking forward to extending its five-game winning streak over opponents such as Thomas Jefferson, Bethel Park, Baldwin, Keystone Oaks, and, of course the USC Panthers. After the March 5 game against Baldwin, the Blue Devils hope the scoring of Jeremy Church and the defense of Jeff Potter will help carry them to playoff victory."

On the 1990-91 JV Hockey Squad, standouts such as goalie Dave Filoni (4-2-2) and captain A.J. Horn hope to push the team to victory in its last two games giving a 6-4-2 record for the season. The emergence of Colin Symons, along with the continued excellence of scoring leaders Andy Wills and Mike Filoni, have more than made up for the loss of starter Tim O'Reilly 2/3 through the season to the varsity squad.

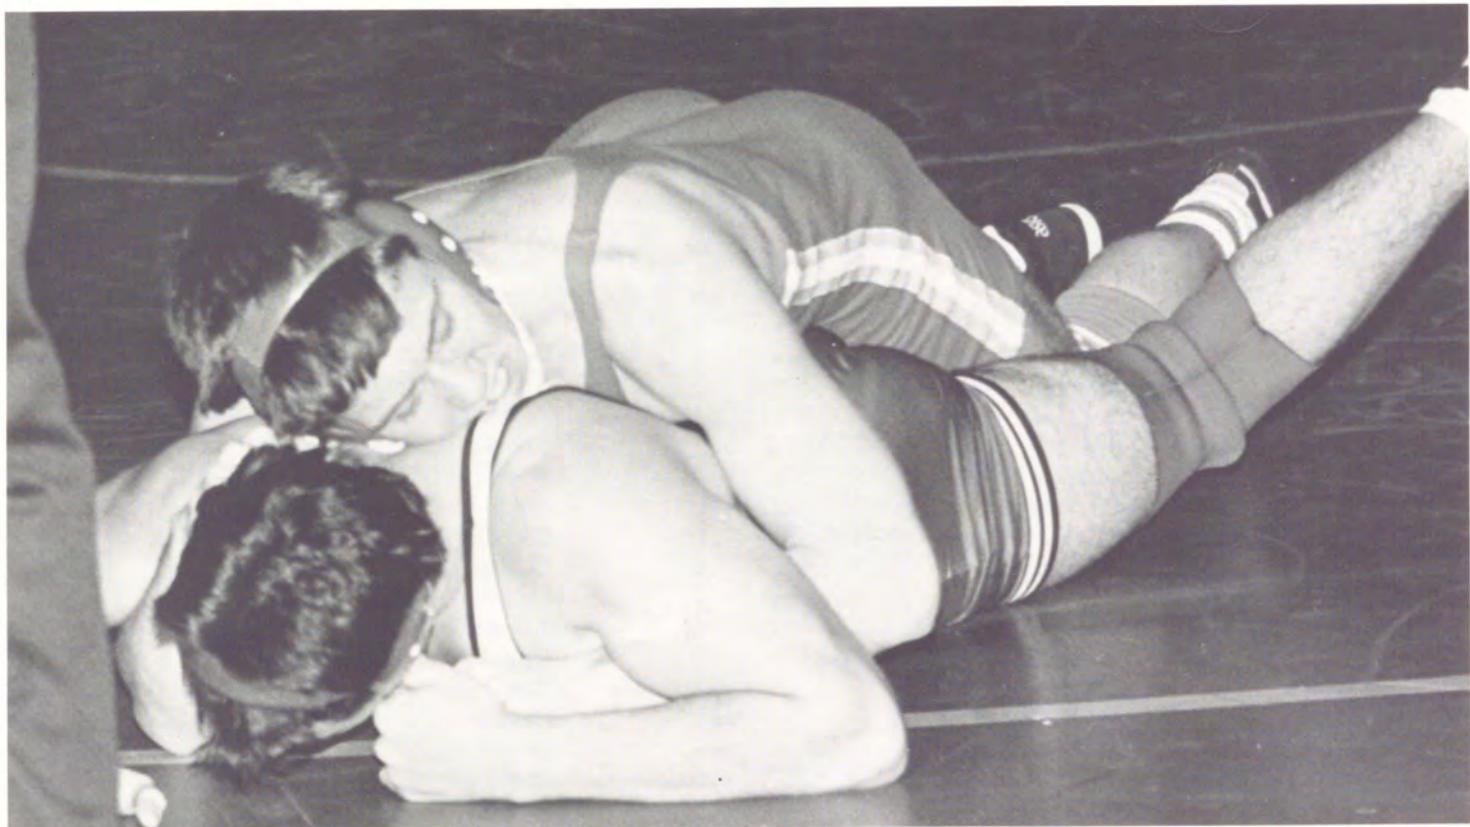

As for the future of the Blue Devils, one can only look up. Next season, the varsity squad will remain intact except for the loss of Todd Rosenwald, whose skates Jess Feltz and Dave Filoni will hopefully fill. In addition to Dave Filoni, other key members of the JV squad will bolster the varsity roster, creating a juggernaut not even USC can stop!"
