For those who wish to remember
All the great times of the past,
The first and second year for some
But we reminisce our last
Tracing our cherished memories
From the first day to the end
Preserving that special feeling
And the photo of a friend
And when the dreams of tomorrow
Seem to push the time aside We'll walk along the path of past
And remember them with pride

Take your time think alot, think of everything you've got, for you will still be here tomorrow, but your dreams may not.

Cat Stevens

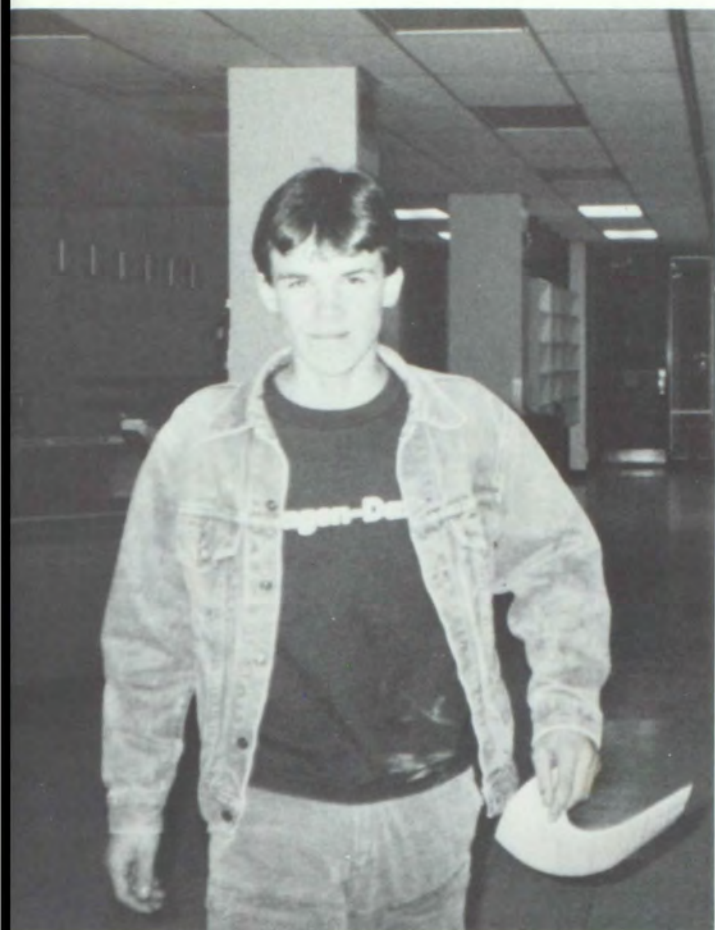

There are places I remember.
 All my life though some have changed;
 Some forever not for better.
 Some have gone and some remain.
 All these places have their moments
 With lovers and friends
 I still can recall.
 Some are dead and some are living,
 In my life I've loved them all.

IN REVIEW

"Mt. Lebanon High School-the movie '87" is a four-star movie. The novice producer/director, Joseph Mascetta, gives a brilliant mixture of drama and comedy, with an intellectual twist. It is not surprising that this first work by Mascetta was so successful considering the behind-the-scenes efforts put forth by the assistant producers and directors. The starring cast of "Mt. Lebanon," the SENIORS of 1987, gave an explosive performance which will set them up for more and better roles to come. The excellence of the film did not stop there. The supporting cast gave a more than ample base from which to work. Also, the stunt-work in this movie sets an unbeatable precedent which associate producers and directors envy. To top off the accomplishments of "Mt. Lebanon" are the extras. The sound-track, the background actors, the assistant cinematographers, and the dancing add the extra special touches that will make "Mt. Lebanon High School- the movie '87" one of the most exciting movies ever.
