In Memoriam

On the eve of our commencement we pause to pay tribute to two wonderful people who will be with us only in spirit, one a student the other a teacher, both our friends.

We shall always remember Marilyn De Villing with her bright shining eyes and her dazzling smile, working on the LANTERN, singing in the chorus, or driving her red Nash Rambler. The value of her friendship was enhanced by her thoughtfulness and sincerity. She had a wonderful capacity for gaiety and laughter and was happiest when she was making others happy.

French class with Miss Zahniser was an exciting adventure into the foreign world of the romance languages. Her sweet and charming manner made her a great favorite with all the students. She will long be remembered for the understanding help which she gave so willingly. As a teacher she was superlative, as a friend, unexcelled.

Our memories of our associations with Marilyn and Miss Zahniser will always be pleasant and happy ones.

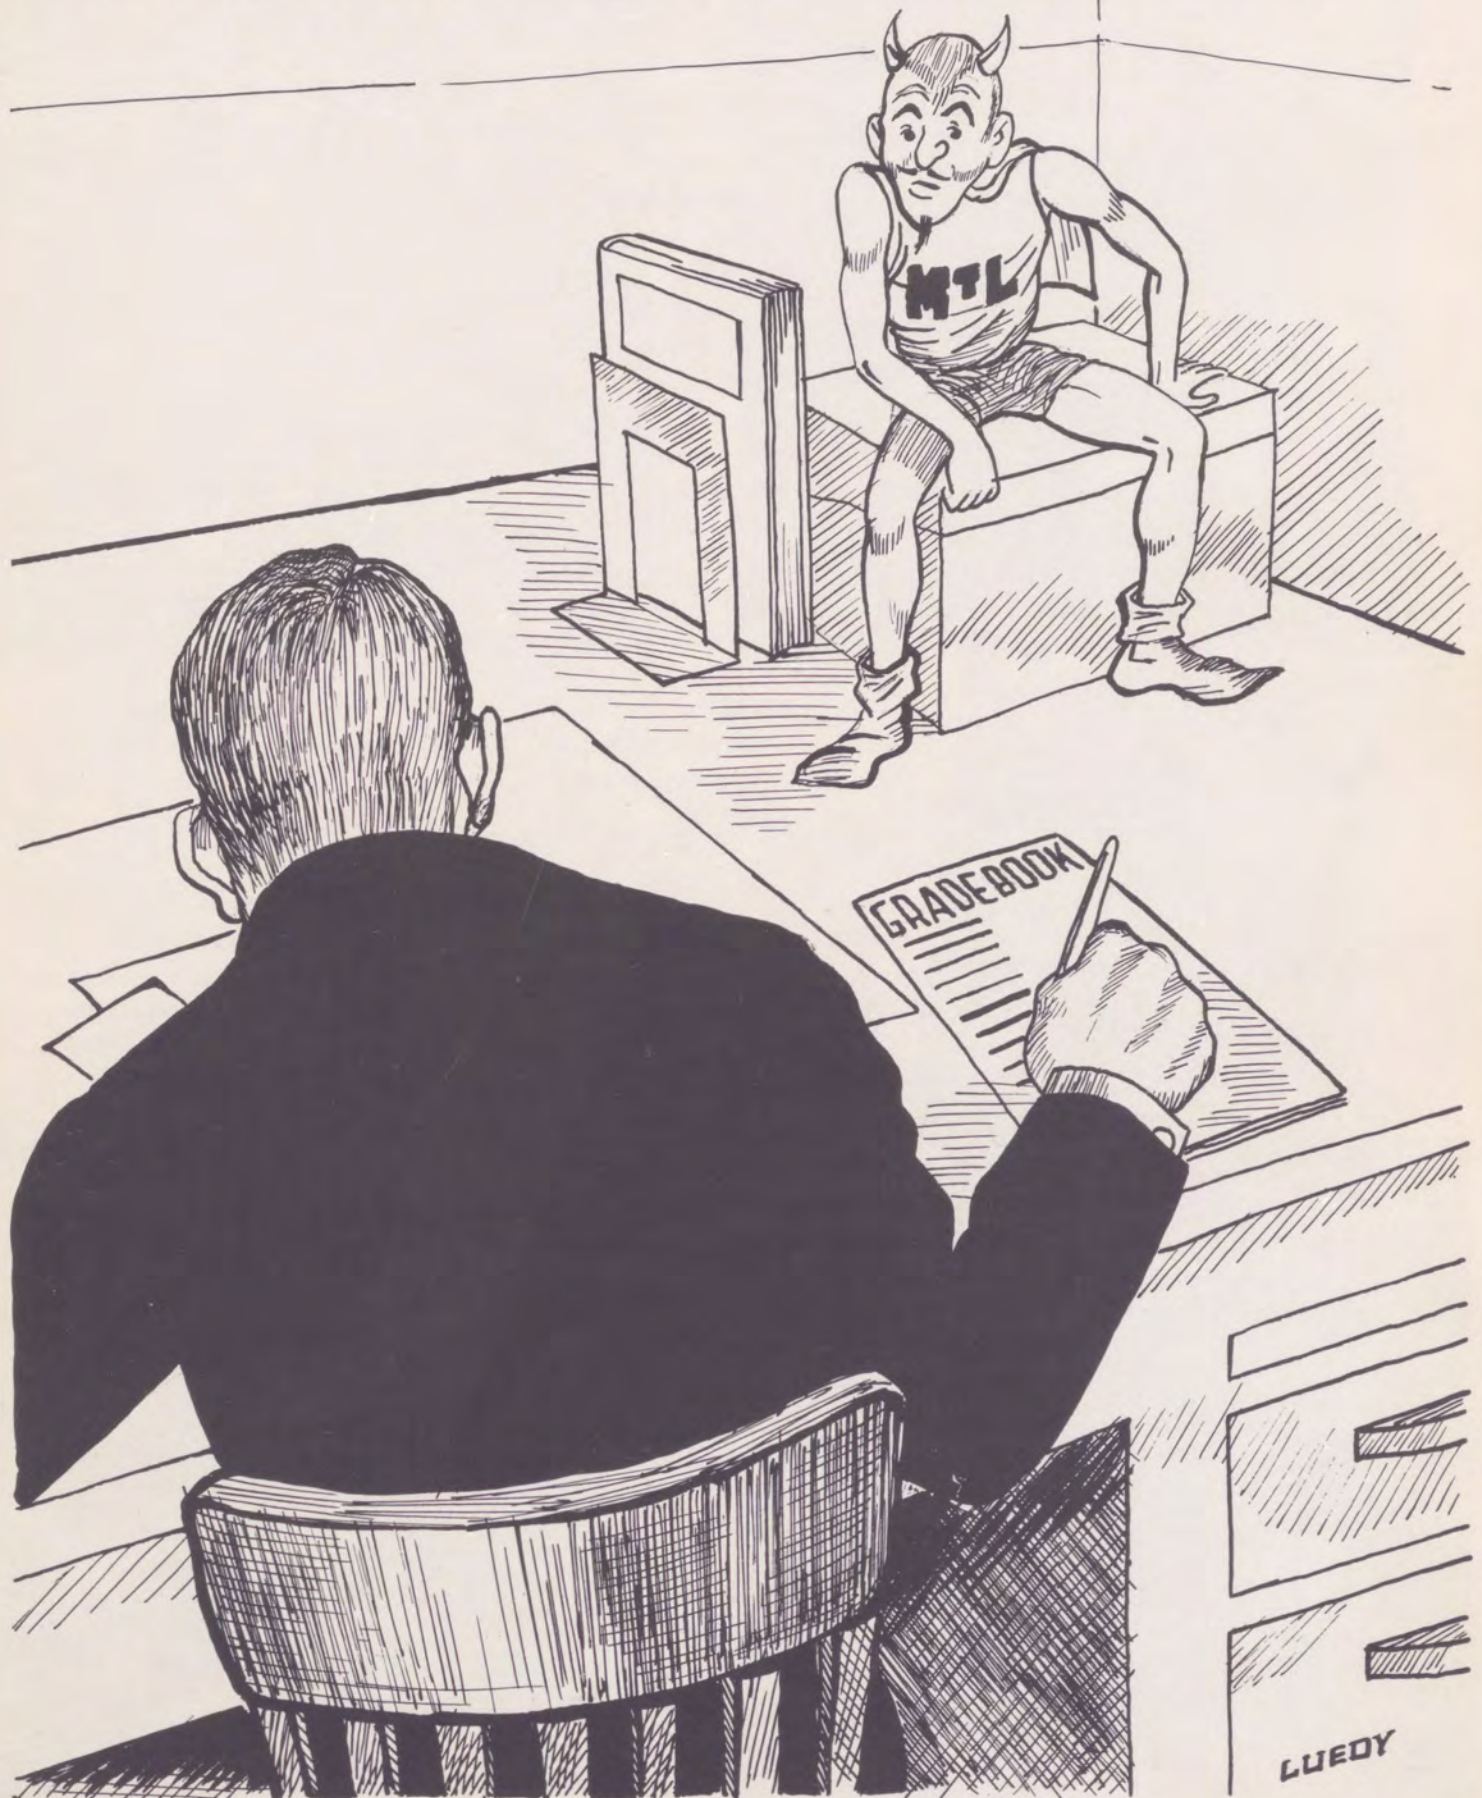

Miss Helen Zahniser

School Board Planned New Annex

Dr. Ralph D. Horsman
Superintendent

Dr. Ross M. Gill
Assistant Superintendent

The Board of Education has possibly the greatest effect of any group on Mt. Lebanon High School. This body of eight, seldom seen as a group by the student body, has charge of the plans for the new high school wing. In this annex are planned an auditorium, able to accommodate the entire student body, modern classrooms to ease the strain on the already crowded school, much needed science laboratories, and a greatly increased library. The present school will be modeled to include new offices and a larger cafeteria. A similar project is being planned and carried out in the elementary schools, a far-sighted project calculated to keep Mt. Lebanon in its traditional place among the best schools of the state.

The Mt. Lebanon school system, however, lost its Assistant Superintendent on February 1. Dr. Ross M. Gill, in the district since 1931 and Assistant to Superintendent of Schools Ralph D. Horsman since 1946, became superintendent in Plainfield, New Jersey, on that date.

BOARD OF EDUCATION

SEATED: Mrs. Donald C. Lewis, Mr. Raymond B. Hecht, Mr. A. C. McMillen, Miss Miriam Headley, Mr. Otis C. Hogsett.
STANDING: Mr. Elmer S. Stanier, Mr. Beckley Smith, Mr. Edward Buck.

They Kept Things Humming

Dr. Joseph C. Keifer

Miss Ella Ion

Under the capable leadership of Dr. Keifer, our principal, and Miss Ion, vice-principal, our school continued to run in its usual smooth manner. Dr. Keifer's busy day was filled with keeping many appointments, co-ordinating the various activities and sports, maintaining harmonious faculty-student relations, organizing the curriculum, and, in general, supervising the overall program of the high school.

If a perplexed student was confronted by a conflicting schedule or had to fill out college entrance forms, he could find willing help in the attendance office. Here, Miss Ion, already busy with the responsibility of checking attendance and the sponsorship of F.T.A. and the Achievement and Class Rank Committees, would take time to help an interested student in his problems of higher education.

One could hardly say that, with their busy schedules, Dr. Keifer and Miss Ion had much free time.

To Miss Gordon, Mrs. Horne, and Mrs. Cargill we take our many problems.

Classes,

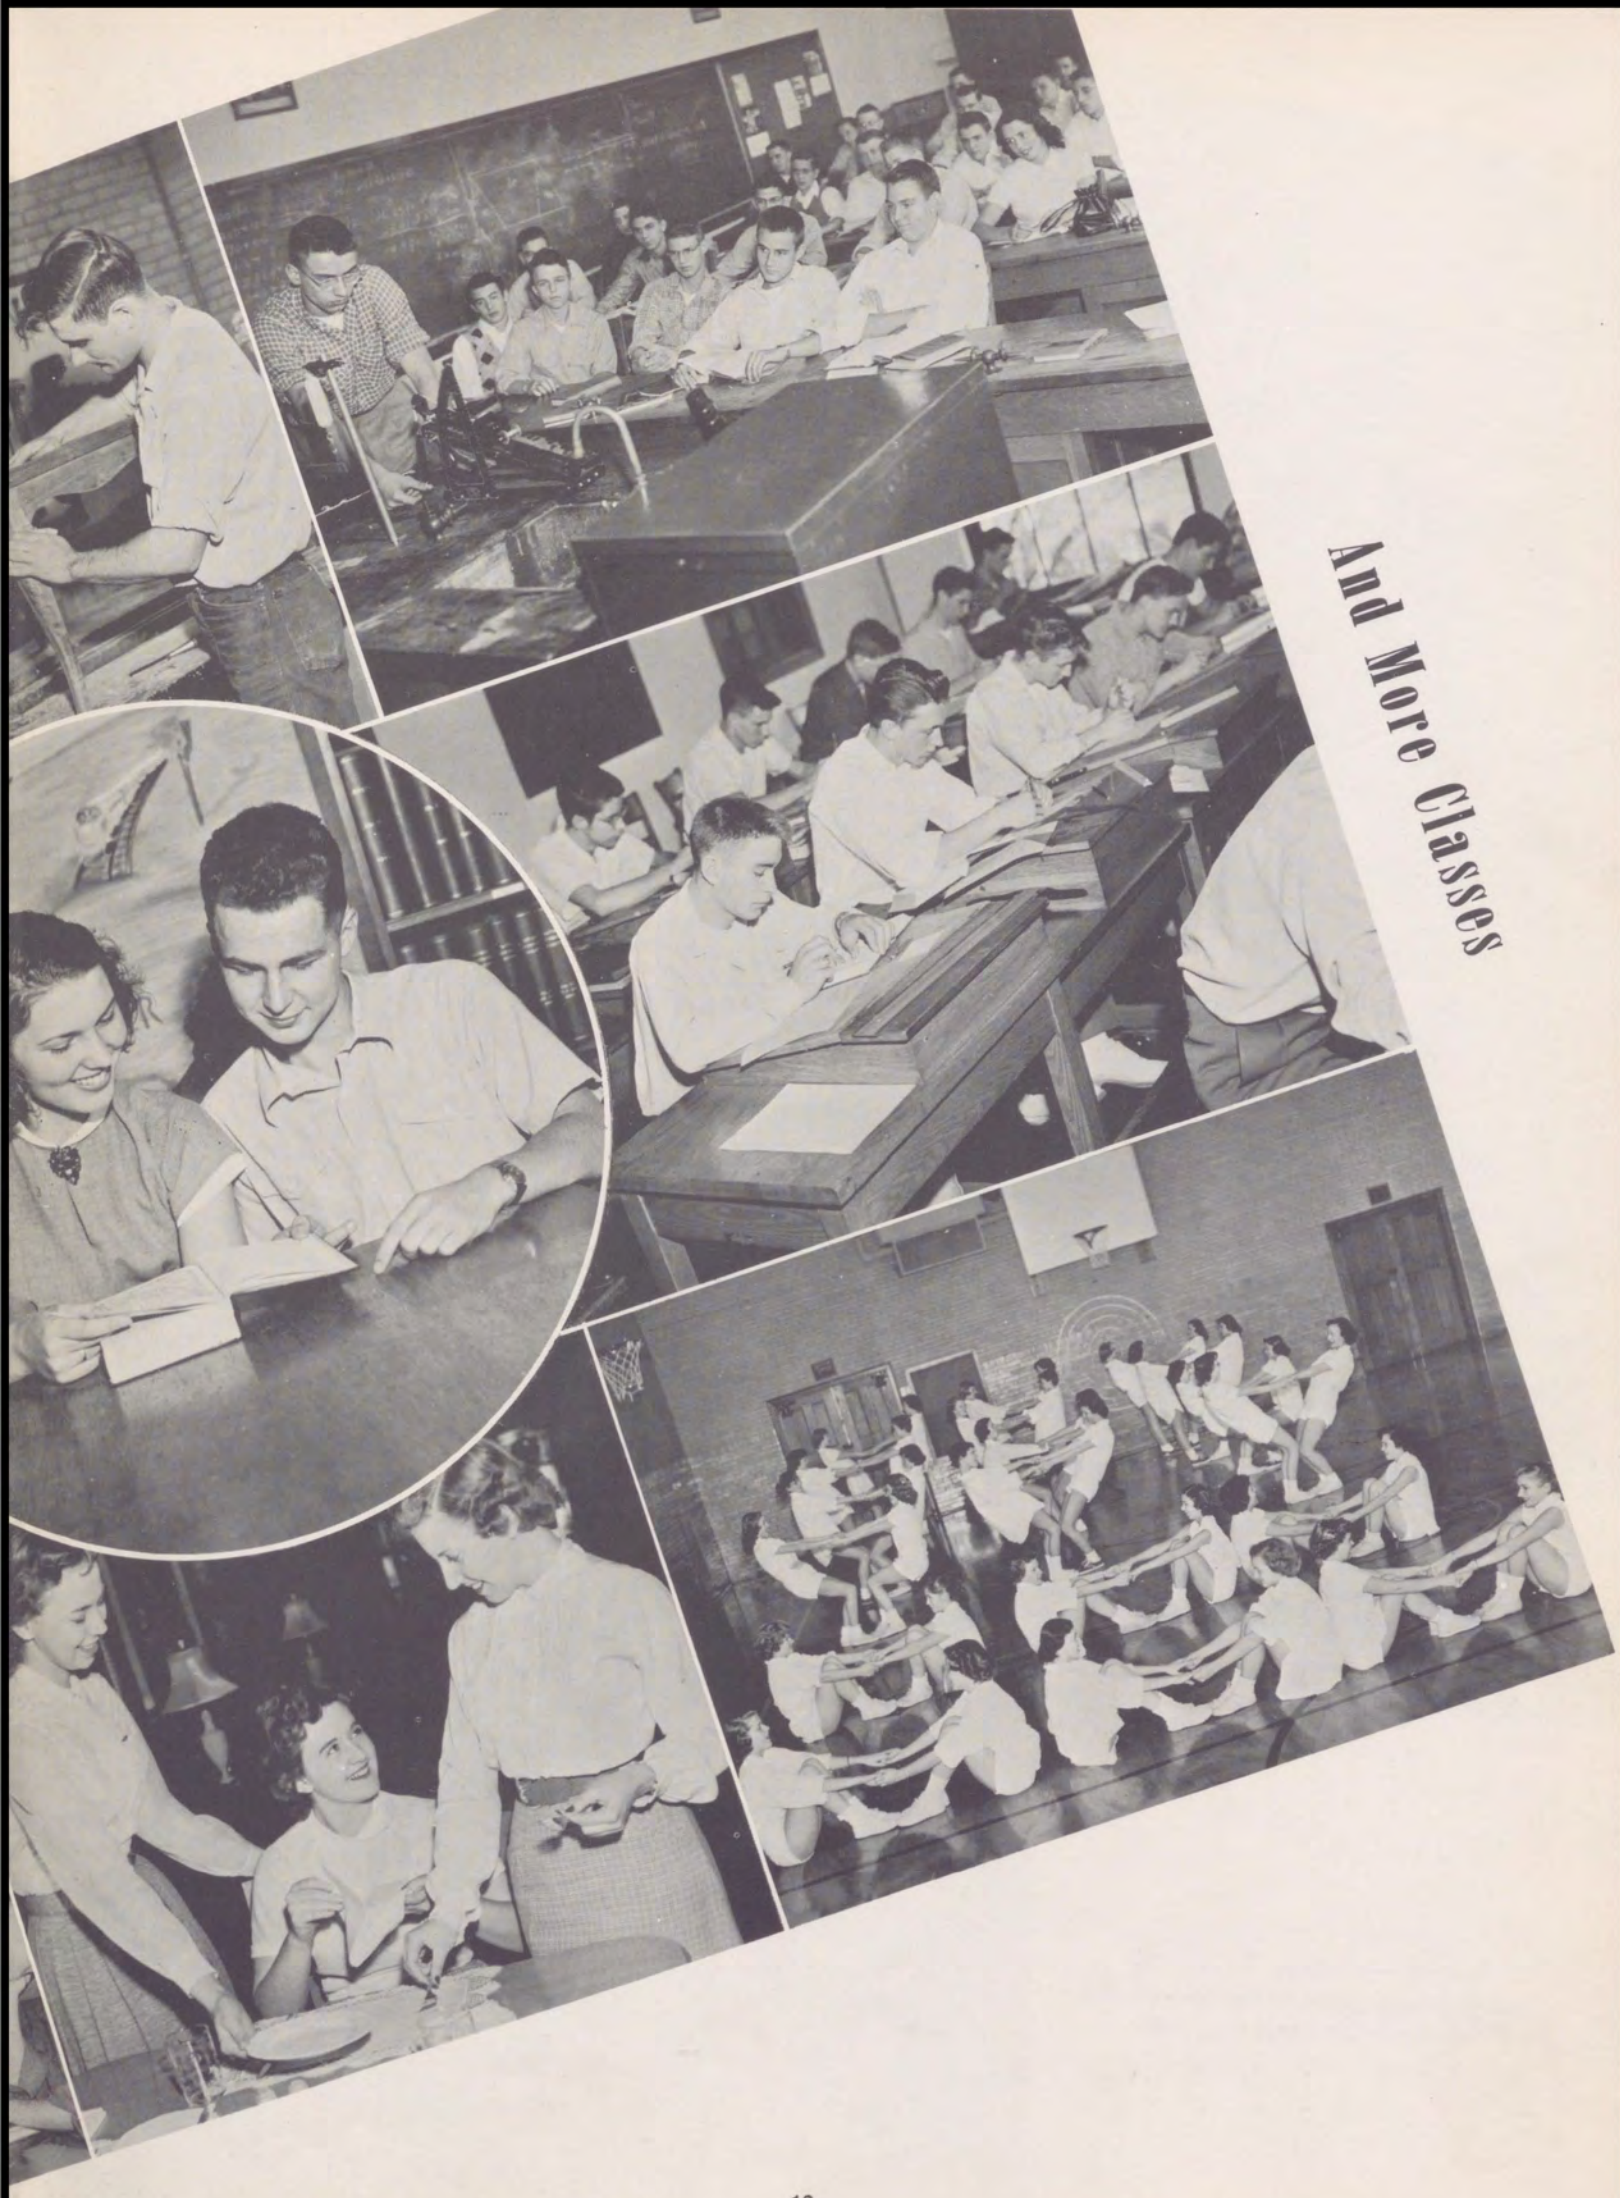

Classes,

This year, for the first time in its history, Mt. Lebanon acquired two German Exchange Students. Lise Maass of West Berlin and Werner Widmann of Weingarten/Wurtemberg were graciously welcomed by the student body and have certainly made an important contribution to the school this past year. It is generally felt that by their presence, the students have profited greatly in a more understanding attitude not only toward the German people but also toward other people in general. On the other hand, Lise and Werner have gained a broader understanding of America and American schools. Surely this has been a wonderful experience on both sides, and we of the LOG hope that it can be continued for years to come.

3:15 And Classes

WORLD HISTORY

The panel is one interesting way of keeping these history students on their toes.

CHEMISTRY

These students learn their chemistry by experimentation as well as through the use of their textbooks.

LIBRARY INSTRUCTION

The library course is designed to alert the tenth grade students to the functions of our modern library.

Ended For Another Day

UNITED STATES HISTORY

One of the most important topics of eleventh grade history is the study of our Constitution and its present day applications.

CLOTHING

These gals are showing off the results of weeks of hard work. It was certainly worth it; the clothes they've made are really tops.

ART

The silk screening process is just one of the many fascinating fields of art.

Starting Classes On September 9

GERMAN

The German classes were especially fortunate in having our two exchange students who gave true-to-life accounts of life in Germany.

SPANISH

The beginners struggled to roll their r's, while the second year classes coped with fifteen minute talks and book reports.

We Met Our Deadlines By June 11

FRENCH

"Mais oui!" These second year students certainly know their French. Here are a few of them putting their new vocabularies to work.

ENGLISH

Although the sophomores and juniors thought their courses were tough, "Double, double, toil, and trouble" was the motto of the seniors.

LATIN

As a reward for their hard work, these students learn not only Latin but also many new English words.

BOOKKEEPING

Keeping records straight is a must for these future office workers. Here they practice writing neat figures in their ledgers.

C L A S S E S

SPEECH

These students put the fundamentals of good speech into practice while they spoke on the art of everything from film developing to waterskiing.

SOLID GEOMETRY

Higher mathematics was a real challenge but loci projects presented no problems to those who were handy with pencil, plywood, and glue.

This year a well chosen committee spent long and eyesore hours trying to find a play that would suit everyone. Finally they hit upon
Cheaper By the Dozen, a comedy with a large cast. Under the direction of Dr. Mills a cast was chosen, rehearsals were held, and a fine performance was given.

At State To Seven

The 1953 cross country team added new laurels to Mt. Lebanon's long record of cross country triumphs. Under the school's track and cross country coach, Mr. Donley Mollenauer, the team won Mt. Lebanon's tenth W.P.I.A.L. title and boosted the school's number of State Championships to seven, winning this one by the widest margin in P.I.A.A. history.

The regular season saw the Mounties barely squeeze by Central Catholic and New Castle. They dropped a meet to Ambridge, the school's first loss in dual competition in four years. However, at the W.P.I.A.L. Championship meet, it was Mt. Lebanon all the way as they finished twenty points ahead of second place Wilkinsburg. At State College the following week, the Mounty harriers not only won the State Championship by a record score but also took individual honors. Bob Lyle finished first in a field of 140 to become the new individual champion, the first in the school's history. Mt. Lebanon also placed Howard Knipe, Dick Denman, and Guy Giordano among the first eleven.

The team was paced throughout the regular season by Howard Knipe and Bob Lyle, who was voted the team's most valuable member. Also placing among the first five were Dick Denman, Jim Crawford, and Guy Giordano. Other runners included J. P. Graham, Paul Garlitz, John Mehl, Bruce Fowler, Carl Templin, and Bob McCown.

The junior varsity also had a successful season. They won the W.P.I.A.L. Junior Varsity Championship. Sophomore Bill Masterson took first place in the meet to become the W.P.I.A.L. JV champion. Sophomores Ted Henderson, Myron Eicher, Bob Lewis, Skip Williams, and Juniors Don Bunting, Gus Wunderly, and Jerry Koller were outstanding runners and should help to maintain Mt. Lebanon's record in cross country.

Bob Lyle becomes the 1953 P.I.A.A. Cross Country champion.

*—League games

Mt. Lebanon came through the 1953 season with a record of three wins, four losses, and one tie. The Blue Devils, under the direction of their new coach, Mr. Ralph Fife, rolled through the exhibition games defeating Waynesburg, Perry, and South Hills. Contributing heavily to these victories were the passing of Dick Drayne, the running of Bill Murray, the place kicking of Dick Jenkins, which won the Perry game, and the defensive play of Dave Love, who grabbed an opposition fumble to score the winning touchdown against South Hills.

Jumping into the W.P.I.A.L. race, Mt. Lebanon battled Penn to a tie, thus eliminating both teams in league competition. In setting up the Mounties' lone score, sophomore ace Dick McDowell was injured and his services were lost for the season. In their second league encounter, the Mounties lost a thriller to Washington, 23-20. The Wilkinsburg game saw the locals take an early lead but succumb to a fourth quarter rally, losing 14-13. In the last two games of the season, the roof fell in as Uniontown and

FOOTBALL JUNIOR VARSITY

The coaches watch a close play.

Drayne gets off a pass.

Butler downed Mt. Lebanon by sizable margins, despite the return of Preston McMurry to the lineup. After recovering from a pre-season injury, he came back to spark the team's offense in these last contests. The Uniontown game was highlighted by the Senior Recognition ceremony, honoring players of the class of 1954. Senior stars included Marv Lebovitz, voted the team's most valuable player, Bob Rhen, Jim Temmel, Ray Simms, Ed Meell, Dick Jenkins, Mike Fodor, Bill Ryan, Dave Kelley, Mike Rafferty, Bob Sparrow, and John Wholey. Underclass stars also included Don Panick, Barry Myers, Pete McNeish, Bill McLain, and Les Karlovitz.

The junior varsity under the coaching of Mr. Lamprinakos, finished the season with three wins and five losses. The Blue and Gold downed Brentwood, Shaler, and Carrick, but lost to Baldwin, Penn, Wilkinsburg, and Dormont.

Since a strong JV team will be returning along with much of the core of this year's varsity the outlook is bright; but however bright the future may be, it will be difficult to surpass 1953 in school enthusiasm and team spirit.

SENIOR LETTERMEN

TRACK

The 1953 Mt. Lebanon track team upheld the Mounty tradition of superiority in track. They won all of their dual and triangular meets and placed among the leaders in championship competition.

During the indoor season Mr. Mollenauer's boys downed Central Catholic and retained the Tri-State Coaches Championship by a wide margin.

The Mounties opened the outdoor season with wins over Carrick, Washington, Dormont, and Penn. The team's greatest test came in the Mansfield Relays, the biggest high school track meet in the nation. Mt. Lebanon finished in third place, running in competition with 77 other schools and some of the best track talent in the eastern United States. The Mt. Lebanon stadium was the scene of one of the most thrilling meets in local history as the Mounties played host to the W.P.I.A.L. Relays Carnival. Mt. Lebanon finished in third place just behind Altoona and Wilkinsburg. Even in losing, the Mounties broke meet records. Crawford, Jon Thomas, Denman, and Lyle combined to set a new mark in the two-mile relay, while Schuchts, Dickinson, Berlin, and Sparrow toppled the shuttle hurdle record. Mt. Lebanon won over nine other schools at the Half milers Lyle, Crawford, and Bell hit the tape.

Washington Invitational Substitute Meet, held at Mt. Lebanon. The Mounties trounced McKeesport, Ambridge, and Shaler, to complete a highly successful dual meet season.

The team's greatest win came in the Allegheny County Independent Districts Championships, the qualifying meet for W.P.I.A.L. The Blue and Gold trackmen qualified in nearly every event. Pacing the Mounties in their triumph were Berlin in the 100 and 220, Sparrow in the hurdles, Bell in the half mile, and Knipe in the mile. However, one week later, the Blue and Gold lost the W.P.I.A.L. Championship by a heartbreaking one and one-half points. In this meet, Howard Knipe won the Kurtz Memorial Mile. At the State Championship Meet, Knipe scored the team's only point. John Thomas, who consistently brought in points for Mt. Lebanon, was voted the team's most valuable member.

Basketball Paced The

The Mt. Lebanon varsity basketball team came through the 1954 campaign with a record of thirteen victories and eight defeats while the junior varsity had fifteen wins and only five losses. The varsity's eight wins and four losses in W.P.I.A.L Section 4 competition earned them third place in section standings.

In the exhibition season the Leboites won over Avalon, Wilkinsburg, Shaler, Crafton, and McKees Rocks, but lost to South Hills, Baldwin, and twice to Uniontown. In league games the Mounties found little resistance as they twice downed Waynesburg, Canonsburg, Burgettstown, and Dormont by an average margin of more than twenty points per game. They, however, ran up against a stone wall when they met Section Champion Washington and second place Trinity.

Under the coaching of Mr. Clark the varsity featured such stars as pivot man Jim Jordy and fast break artist Dick Ladley. Bill Jes-teadt's outside shooting saved many a game for the Mounties; George Schoeppner with twenty-eight points against Waynesburg had the highest game score for the season. Other outstanding stars were Ray Simms, Roy Marrs, and Ralph Kragnes. The varsity also included Bob Pfohl, Art Humphreys, Dave Martz, and Pete McNeish. George Schoeppner, a junior, was voted the team's most valuable player.

Under the direction of Mr. Stanish the junior varsity also had a highly successful season. Outstanding players were Marty Gibson, Bob Alter, John Reid, Jim Beery, and Fritz Walker. The squad also included Rod Murtaugh, Dave Owens, Myron Eicher, Keith Pensom, Bill Rankin, Mike Overholt, George Wilson, and Bob Lewis.

The 1954 basketaball team, boasting of the best record since 1947, will have only four members returning next year. These, combined with the hard-working JV's, gave promise of an even better record in 1955.

BASEBALL, 1953

After a year's absence Mt. Lebanon returned to W.P.I.A.L. competition. Though the Mounties' season record of 1-5 was not especially impressive, it failed to tell the whole story. Coach "Speed" Clark fielded a strong but somewhat unbalanced team with powerful pitching and good fielding but weak hitting. Shortstop George Schoepner was voted most valuable player. A sensation in the field and a strong batter, George was the first sophomore in the school's history to be so honored. His hitting and the pitching of Jack Kern were credited with giving Mt. Lebanon its only win, that over Clairton. Roy Marrs was the club's leading batter with an average of .230.

GOLF, 1953

Though graduation robbed Mt. Lebanon of its entire varsity golf team, Mr. Burrows managed to field a hard working and determined team. Although only one of its eight matches was in the win column, a very few strokes could have changed the outcome of more than one of the team's losses. Dick Ladley, who was voted the team's most valuable player, and Andy Temmel represented Mt. Lebanon in the W.P.I.A.L. Championship Matches, scoring 94 and 96 respectively. With most of the team returning, prospects for 1954 are bright.

Rifle Team Won Its First WPIAL Title

The Mt. Lebanon rifle team won its first WPIAL championship and represented the district in the state finals at Dubois. Mr. Streams coached the team to a 13-1 season record, ending the scheduled season in a tie with Munhall. In the shoot-off, by a score of 500 to 499, Mt. Lebanon dethroned Munhall who had been WPIAL champions for the past six years. Perfect targets were shot in that match by Jim Wasson, who was voted the team's most valuable member, Ruth Ann Landefeld, Charlotte Folan, Linn Mollenauer, and Fred Liebler. Other valuable sharpshooters throughout the season were Bob Miller, Jack Hall, George Liebler, Marty Mueller, Carol Corbett, Sanford Nobel, and John Tarn.

The 1954 season saw Rifle take its place as one of the school's outstanding sports. With the return of Bill Babcock, Charlotte Folan, Norman Fuss, Alan Norman, and John Searles, and a strong B squad, Mt. Lebanon hopes to retain its newly-won laurels.

G.A.A. COUNCIL

SEATED: Ryman, Langhart, Semmer, Gianoutsos. STANDING: Henry, Mahoney, Brick, Erskine, Jones, Maxwell, Menke.

Our high school has an abundance of squads, committees, and organizations, but the Girls' Athletic Association is the largest. The G.A.A. has been in existence for 22 years and has shown increasing popularity. This year 330 girls were members.

The organization is run by a council of twelve girls, elected in their sophomore year, and by a sponsor, Miss Wray. G.A.A. offers three major sports—tennis, basketball, and volleyball—and two minor sports—tennis and bowling. The teams are captained by the girls on the council, who also total and record the points earned by each member. These points, which are awarded for participation in the after-school games, contribute to major or minor sports letters and activities keys.

Monday, Tuesday, and Thursday are the days for the after-school sports, and many a rough and tumble game will be remembered. The screams and cries even drew the attention of interested male spectators.

Besides the regular sports program, the G.A.A. sponsors several annual events. The most unforgettable was the G.A.A. Dessert, which was held in February. After breaking all their diet rules and feasting on ice cream, cake, and coke, the girls enjoyed a night of high entertainment. There was a variety of "outside" talent in addition to the regular council skit.

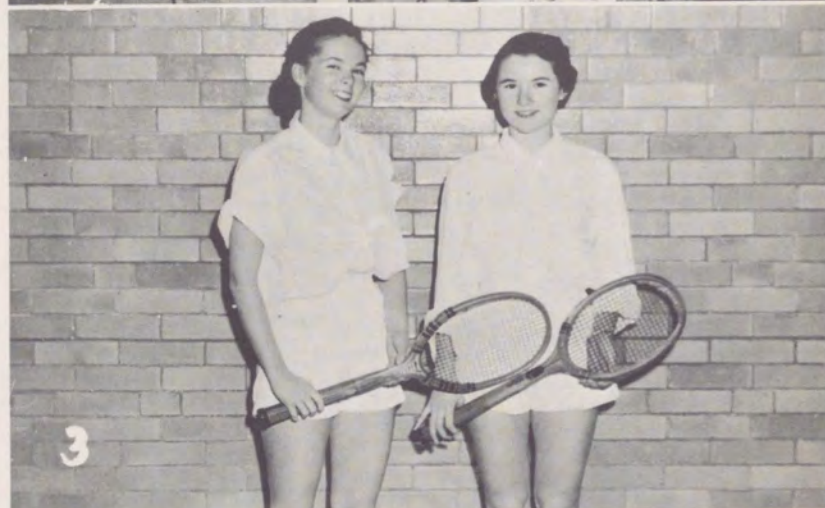

In May Mt. Lebanon welcomed girls from other high schools for Playday. In this event members of G.A.A. with good attendance records joined with the visitors for a day of fun and activity. The upper field was decorated gayly, and there the girls participated in relays and games. Afterwards they enjoyed welcome refreshments. Through Playday we got to know girls from other schools, and unknowingly helped to create goodwill between their schools and ours.

To finish off the year, G.A.A. Council held a picnic. In this get-together the seniors recalled events of the past three years, and presented small gold charms to the junior members.

Basketball was the favorite after school sport.

Students Exchanged "Board" For "Congress"

STUDENT GOVERNMENT

The student government of Mt. Lebanon functions through two main bodies—the Executive Board, or governing body, and the Student Court, or judiciary body.

The Executive Board consists of three officers, the president of each homeroom, a representative from each senior section, and the Activities Director. The Executive Board as a body meets every Tuesday morning to hear suggestions brought to it by its council members. If the suggestions are considered important, they are discussed and voted upon. The project of the Board this year was to revise the present constitution and to change the name from the Executive Board to the Student Congress.

The Executive Board as a committee appoints all committee chairmen, temporary committees, members of the Advisory Council and Student Court members, and approves all Executive Board and homeroom nominations.

Handling the disciplinary problems of the student body is assigned to the eight members of the Student Court. Anyone receiving an out-of-order must appear before the court to present his side of the case. The Court consists of four seniors, two juniors, and two sophomores.

Mt. Lebanon should be proud of its student government; through its two governing bodies every student is given the opportunity to help govern his school.

The highest honor Mt. Lebanon can accord, election to the National Honor Society, was given to the usual small group of students. The National Honor Society, however, has proved to be more than just an honor. With Mrs. Morgan as adviser, the business meetings were held at 7:00 P.M. monthly. Here various means of service to the school—proctoring the make-up tests in room 212, administering the society's study hall during the first semester, and keeping a record of Mt. Lebanon alumni—were discussed and acted upon by the membership.

Quill and Scroll, an inactive organization at Mt. Lebanon, elected nine new members—seven seniors and two juniors—to its ranks. Quill and Scroll, the International Honorary Society for High School Journalists, rewards our students for distinguished service on the Log, Lantern, Mounty, and publicity committee. Election also depends on citizenship, scholastic standing, and adviser's recommendation.

Students Gained Renown For Selves And School

Mt. Lebanon High School offered a wide range of activities to all of its students. For those interested in music, there were the band, the orchestra, and the choruses. In the field of athletics, there were eight varsity sports, G.A.A., and Intramural Basketball and Tennis. Student groups made out the class rank and honor roll, maintained the laboratories, operated P.A. system, ran movie projectors, and operated numerous other activities. Chairmen of the committees and squads making up the activities system were named by the Executive Committee, and each had a faculty sponsor. Activities points were given according to amount and quality of work. Ninety point entitled a person to an activities key, while two hundred were needed for a guard. Directing the system was the Activities Director, Mrs. Cargill. Anyone who wanted something to do could find an activity suited to his abilities and desires.

Chet Berlin and Sanford Nobel were the first members of the class of 1954 to receive their Activities Guards.

AWARDS

Mt. Lebanon's brain-power was really put to work this year in the various outside contests held annually around Pittsburgh. In competition, our students won many of these outside honors. Our high school was well represented in the Scholastic Writing Contest, for many students, with the help of Miss Elliott and Miss McLaughlin, submitted interesting and well-written manuscripts. Furthermore, Mt. Leboites were outstanding at the Buhl Planetarium's Science Fair where our budding scientists demonstrated complex and interesting projects. In addition, Mt. Lebanon reigned supreme in the Latin Festival, also held at the Planetarium. Here five artistic students received awards for their beautiful projects displayed at the Festival. Sandy Streepey placed first on the achievement test for third year students.

The whole school points with pride to these outstanding students who succeeded in winning prizes for themselves and honor for our high school.

Each received a $25 bond as a reward for placement in the contest. 2. The wooden model of a Roman temple made by Ray Dilworth took second prize at the Latin Festival held in Buhl Planetarium. The model peristyle of a Roman house by Barbara Grau and the oil painting of the Parthenon by Sandra Smith received honorable mention. 3. Linn Mollenauer received the Bausch-Lomb award for his outstanding work in science. 4. Chet Berlin received the annual award presented by the Harvard Club of Western Pennsylvania to the outstanding eleventh grade boy. 5. The Rensselaer Award for excellence in mathematics and science was awarded to Sanford Nobel.

Rae Stiening and Linn Mollenauer were cited as having "outstanding potential for future careers in science" as a result of grades made in the Westinghouse Science Talent Search Test. Rae was also a winner of one of the Science Expert Quizzes broadcast over station KDKA.

LEBANON LANTERN

Once a month the LANTERN, Mt. Lebanon's school paper, goes to press; and the staff scurries around to cover all the school's news, write copy, proofread, and think up appropriate headlines for the publication.

The combined efforts of nearly 150 students keep us posted throughout the year with colorful stories about all the current events around school.

Editor-in-chief Karen Maegerlein, Assistant editor Barbara Wilson, News editors Annette Gall and Barbara Kern, Feature editors Sally Hawkins and Anna Liadis, Sports editor Sheldon Parker, and Make-up editor Mary Lou Kelly work together with sponsor Miss McLaughlin in planning each issue.

However, these editorial positions, while important, should not exclude from the spotlight the many necessary behind-the-scenes workers, with various jobs ranging from reporting, typing, mimeographing, art work, business, and circulation, to assembling the three sections of the paper: the printed LANTERN, the mimeographed Devilette, and the Scholastic Roto.

This year the Devilette, edited by Marilyn Grant, has expanded into an interesting and lively addition to the school paper. Besides the standard sections of gossip and parties, it contained fashion notes, humor and feature material, personality sketches, drawings, and cartoons.

STAFF—Maegerlein, Liadis, Hawkins, Parker, Wilson, Gall, Kelly, Grant.

BUSINESS AND CIRCULATION—Rider, Fraser, Guy, Gottschall, Knouse.

THE MOUNTY

When you heard on the P. A. "Today's MOUNTY Day!" you knew that the MOUNTY staff was through work on another issue of the school's literary magazine.

The first steps in publication start a month before the issue is sold. These steps this year were handled by Editor-in-Chief Barbara Center and Assistant Editor Gordon Moore, who selected and proofread material. One of the MOUNTY'S purposes is to act as outlet for the writing talents of young writers. Students of all grades submitted stories, poems, essays, and sketches.

The typing staff, under the direction of Elizabeth Erskine and Ann Beveridge, typed and stenciled the material in each issue. Then the art staff took over, illustrating the stories and decorating the pages. After being proofread, the pages were turned over to John Mueller's mimeographing staff, which often worked overtime to get the MOUNTY out on schedule. All the various steps concerned with putting out each issue of the MOUNTY would have been impossible had it not been for the advice of the sponsor, Miss Elliott. Finally, after Harriet Coltman's assembly staff put the pages together in order, the MOUNTY was ready to be sold for "only a nickel."

These mimeographers, typists, writers, and art staff all had a hand in bringing us the MOUNTY.

THE LEBANON LOG

Work on the '54 Lebanon Log was actually started in April 1953. A new staff was recruited, contracts were signed with the publishing company, and general plans were drawn up.

At the beginning of school, the Editorial Board comprised of Editor-in-Chief Bill Smith, Literary Editor Marty McKinney, Assistant Literary Editor Clark Dehne, Art Editor Marge Lange, and Sports Editor Bob Calhoon, met three periods a week with Miss Nesbitt, adviser, to plan, page by page, the 1954 Lebanon Log. The staff met after school to complete planning and start actual construction of the yearbook.

This year another step toward a better yearbook was taken with the adoption of the offset method of printing. It made possible more art work and pictures. Despite the many advantages, the staff wrestled with the problem of an earlier deadline date with the publisher. This, however, and many other handicaps were overcome, as the Log climbed to new heights in its march toward perfection.

Band Racked Up New Honors

This was a big year in the history of the Mt. Lebanon High School Band. Perhaps the biggest yet.

Practice started the last two weeks of August of 1953. First new seating arrangements were made, each member trying to be the head of his section or as near to it as possible. Then Jack Greenberg, drill master, set out to whip the band into shape for football season. New steps were added and the old revised, new and fancy drills were executed and after these weeks of grueling marching in the hot sun and sectional practices in the stuffy band room, an excellent band was ready to strut their stuff before the public.

The football performances were highlighted by the annual Stadium Review in which Mt. Leboites were made proud of their fine band.

A few days after Christmas a thoroughly conditioned band left the Pennsy station for the west coast and the famous Rose Bowl. This year those of us left behind saw the band in the Parade of Roses on the television and were we proud!

The Spring Concert brought to a close a highly successful year in Mt. Lebanon High School Band's history. Here's to many equally dramatic years to come.

VIOLINETTES

The Violinettes is a small instrumental group comprised of three violins, one bass violin, and one piano. Specializing in semi-popular and classical music, the group played at certain school affairs and women's clubs. Our hats are off to this group of hard working musicians.

Music, Music, Music

FORMAL CONCERT ARTISTS

ORCHESTRA

This organization has grown both in size and fame under the able direction of Mr. Arthur Yagello.

CHORUS A

Do - re - mi - fa - so - la - la - la—Well, sometimes they make it. All kidding aside, the one hundred and fifty voices of our chorus under the able direction of Miss May Sneary is one of Pittsburgh's best. This chorus has taken part in various types of musical productions in the city as well as in Mt. Lebanon.

After a lot of hard work and much practice, the chorus sang on KDKA School of the Air on Christmas Day and gave its annual presentation of "The Messiah." Their completely original Spring Musical is another great annual affair. They have made recordings for radio and have sung for various church groups. A new honor, an invitation to the In and About Pittsburgh Musical Festival, has been added.

We are all proud of the Triple Trio and their fine blending of voices. Each member of the Trio is capable of solo singing. They have many engagements for different clubs and religious organizations in and around Mt. Lebanon.

The Devotional Choir and the Boy's Quartet are comparatively new this year. The Devotional Choir sings every Thursday morning during the devotional program. The Boy's Quartet took part in the Spring Musical.

The combined choruses presented the "Messiah."

Y-Teens

Lending a helping hand seemed to be the theme of this year's Y-Teens clubs. The tenth grade Beta's, sponsored by Miss Frobese, conducted the Community Chest Drive for the high school and aided a needy family. Mrs. Furlong's Delta's helped the Red Cross squad make yarn dolls for Children's Hospital. Miss Grove's Alpha's radiated the Christmas spirit by adopting a family of seven and making their Christmas merry with gifts of food, clothing, a radio, crib, and washing machine. The senior Sigma's, sponsored by Miss Manning, completed the picture of unselfish giving by collecting warm clothing for school children of South Union-town.

The Y-Teens had many varied programs at their meetings throughout the year. The Alpha's sponsored the inspirational Recognition Service. A model told the Sigma's how to be the best-dressed girls in school. Another speaker enlightened them about the art of gift wrapping. The sophomore clubs heard a panel discussion of teen-age problems and spent a lively evening of square dancing. The senior Sigma's spent a night on the town when they went to an Italian restaurant for a dinner of spaghetti and pizza. These are the unforgettable memories of the Y-Teens.

Hi-Y

The Hi-Y is an organization of purposeful high school boys who are striving to reach high ideals and seeking ways to serve the community in which they live. The club's platform is clean living, clean speech, clean sports, and clean scholarship.

This year boys of all grade levels were combined into one group, the Cedar Hi-Y, with Mr. Whipkey as sponsor. Representatives sent to Camp Konokwee, the Y.M.C.A. training camp, were taught how to put Hi-Y principles into everyday practice.

The activities of the Hi-Y have been extensive. The entire membership attended the Hi-Y convocation at Heinz Chapel. Our Hi-Y basketball team competed in the Christmas tournament, but was defeated by a powerful West View quintet. Four teams have been entered in our school's Hi-Y league. The Cedar Hi-Y participated in many other useful activities.

BACK ROW: Ewing, Gilbert, Overholt.

Mr. Tom McNutt was the speaker at the Y-Teens Recognition Service.

The Hi-Y club sponsored the collection for the Tuberculosis League.

Members of the Future Teachers of America were—

Numerous colleges sent representatives to attract Mt. Lebanon students.

ALMA MATER

'Neath cedars stately, midst hills so bold,
Stands our Mount Lebanon, realm of blue and gold,
Radiant with splendor, valor, virtue and truth,
Moulder of our destiny, guardian of our youth.
Ever our praises shall ring, Alma Mater, for thee.
