"Guardians Of Our Youth"

SCHOOL BOARD

The school board established and maintained the high educational policies of our school. The members are: Mr. Samuel A. Schreiner, Miss Miriam Headley, Mrs. Donald C. Lewis, Mr. Otis C. Hogsett, Mr. Willis A. Seigfried, Mr. Robert F. Dyson, Mr. William C. Berg, Jr., Mr. James R Orr.

Superintendent Dr. Ralph D. Horseman and Assistant Superintendent Dr. Joseph Keifer, the foundation of our educational system, who aid in directing the paths of our future, are continually developing ideas to keep our high school at the top.

Dr. Floy Penn supervised our testing programs, evaluated the results through careful analysis, and helped to coordinate the over-all curriculum for our school system in her position as director of instruction for the Mt. Lebanon schools.

Under the administration of Dr. Mills, our principal, school policy, teachers' goals and the interests of the students were integrated and coordinated to make school life meaningful, and the reputation of Mt. Lebanon High School was enhanced by the achievements of the 1959-1960 school year.

New this year to the position of vice-principal of Mt. Lebanon High School, Mr. McDermot was faced with and competently handled the task of arranging and adjusting schedules, preparing college transcripts, registering new students, and determining class rank.

Mrs. Morgan ably handled the difficult task of maintaining student discipline and keeping track of the whereabouts of Mt. Lebanon's 1500 students with authority, understanding and tact.

In the guidance office, college aspirants conferred with the counselors on their curricula, looked through college handbooks, and applied for college board tests. Secretary Mrs. Irwin assisted counselors Mrs. Horne, Miss Frobuck, and Mr. Kobosky.

Two members of the faculty whose special talents kept our school running smoothly were Miss Gordon, who was our home-school visitor, and Mr. Moore, who supervised testing.

Student Court, Student Congress, and our school's many committees and squads had their headquarters in the activities office under the sponsorship of Mrs. Cargill and Miss Mellinger.

Assisting Dr. Mills with their efficient handling of clerical duties, Mrs. Booth and Mrs. Vroble kept the main office running smoothly.

Whether we had a sore throat or a broken finger, Miss High knew exactly what to do for our ailments.

Mrs. Daniels, Mrs. Irwin, and Miss Wass kept in touch with the students as they cheerfully carried out the administrative tasks connected with testing, guidance, and attendance.

Lighting The Lamp Of Knowledge

With the guidance and patience of our teachers, the slow but sure dawn of wisdom came to us in new fields of thought. In some cases, the faculty had to do more pushing than leading, more demanding than reasoning, but under the gruffness of the most exacting perfectionist shone the sympathy of a dedicated teacher.

Our teachers were not so hard to understand. The personality of each was unique. In the classrooms, they assigned term papers and gave surprise quizzes; but they cheered with the rest of us during football season and at the senior play.

The faculty successfully fulfilled the objective of enlightenment and also encouraged our application of instruction. The twenty-one National Merit semifinalists and the one hundred nine Exceptionally Able Youths were shining examples of the scholastic achievements attained at Mt. Lebanon. When the high school was selected as one of forty-four top high schools in the nation, the combined efforts of an excellent teaching staff and of students eager to learn were rewarded. With the help of the faculty—our guiding light—we left to '59-'60 school year, wiser and more confident.

Assuming Leadership And Responsibility

"Will the meeting please come to order?" was a familiar sentence both in the Student Congress and in the homerooms of Mt. Lebanon High School. For the seventy members of Student Congress, it meant the beginning of another Tuesday morning session in the first four rows of the auditorium — a time to discuss matters concerning the school as a whole: the condition of the wash rooms, the efficiency of the current traffic plan, the welfare of the student body. Tuesday morning was a time to voice opinions and formulate solutions, a time to prove the capabilities of the Congress.

In each homeroom, the same sentence began a weekly Thursday morning meeting. This was the time for free expression of individual views, an opportunity to inform the homeroom president of matters to be further considered by the Student Congress.

Some of the accomplishments of Student Congress were that extra butter was made available to students in the cafeteria, parking lot traffic was improved, all stairs were made both up and down, and congestion in the corridors was alleviated. Working hand in hand, the branches of Mt. Lebanon's student government strove to improve the school and to strengthen its reputation as an institution of opportunity.

President Gil McNeish, Vice-President Scott Ward, and Secretary Peggy Theis enthusiastically accepted their responsibilities and competently carried out their duties as first semester officers of Student Congress.

Second semester Student Congress officers, Hetz Marsh, Mouncey Ferguson, and Mary Head, served with ease and assurance as President, Vice-President, and Secretary of Student Congress.

Dave Manoogian, Kip Weldon, Hetz Marsh, Lynn Ricca, Miriam Grove, and Mike Reed make plans for installment of Student Congress officers.

Members of the 1959-60 Advisory Council were Bonnie Kasun, Mrs. Cargill, Dr. Mills, Mrs. Morgan, Ann McMillan, Alan Mandel, Miss Elms, Miss Grove, Mrs. Adamson, Dave Manoojian, and Bruce Schein.

Those who received Activities Keys before the end of the first semester of their senior year were Mary Head, Gwen Grant, Virginia Dau, Judy Dickinson, Marilee Tiberio, Marty Frame, Barbara Neill, Sandy Burr, Nancy Zahnhiser, Ellen Major, Carolyn Burrows, Ann McMillan, Peggy Theis, Jan Hall, Janice Beachler, Carolyn Tamp- lin, Peggy Colvin, Carole Beebe, Pat Ellison, Carolyn Gibson, Al Rimer, Jim Taylor, Sue Harris, Sue Peckham, Judy Allen, Judy Smith, Prissy Munn, Alice Mollenauer, Eva Foldes, Bill Bayers, Bill Lewis, Bruce Schein, Ken Heist, Rick Collins, Dave Gullion, Roger Blair, Ed Cole, Bill Benz, John Young, Scott Ward, Tom Housekeeper, Jeff Neill, Craig Pozzi, Carl von Ende, Don MacKay, and Gary Close.

1960 LEBANON LOG

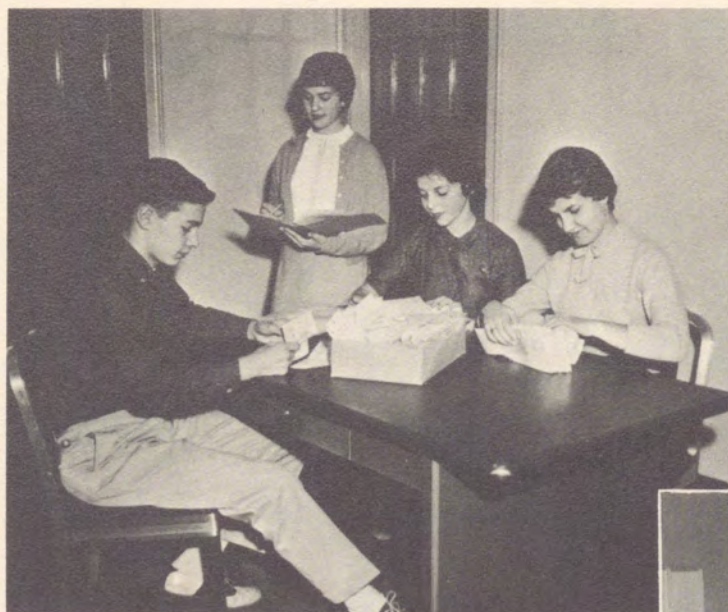

Log Co-Editors Ellen Major and Eva Foldes, Classes Editor Adele Hauser, Art Editor Judy Dickinson, Literary Editor Virginia Bright and Sports Editor John Mather formed a co-ordinated line-up.

In the process of production, the 1960 Log grew from scraps of notebook paper with illegible ink smears on them, from creased photographs blocked in black crayon, from dummy sheets marked with tangled lines, from retyped copy, heads and captions — into a thick collection of memorable people and events enclosed in a blue, white and gold cover. This Log — the synthesis of individual impression unified by hours shared under the single light of the Publications Office — is Mt. Lebanon's record of and tribute to another school year.

To the staff of the 1960 Log, the hustle and bustle and pleasant chaos of the Publications Office became a factor required for concentration. Within the claustrophobia-provoking confines of Miss Hughe's office, great ideas were born to be developed and preserved for the posterity of Mt. Lebanon students. The staff mixed minutes of light-hearted fun with hours of work as they burned the midnight oil to meet their deadlines. Everything from candy bars and glob-forming glue to philosophical comments and corny puns was tossed around by the staff as they strove to create a book of illuminated memories, such as the 1960 Log, for you.

Assistant Editors Nancy Nuernberg, Jean Kernahan, Alan Mandel, Patti Miller, Sharon Shuttleworth, and Kathy Schwarz spent most of their time learning the ropes, so that they would be able to put out next year's book.

Members of the business staff included Jim Kaley, Business Manager Carolyn Tamplin, Ann Goulding, and Circulation Manager Mary Coltman, who promoted and recorded yearbook sales.

Writers Sharon Tazza, Bonnie Baier, Carolyn Burrows, and Sue Hofman made Log write-ups glow with sparkle and spontaneity.

Counting Senior Polls and typing Activity Sheets were only a couple of the tasks of the Classes Staff, composed of Betty Gierhart, Nancy Garis, Laurie Holbrook, Sally Warren, Marty Masterson, and Bonnie Nelson.

Members of the Sports Staff who faithfully followed and reported Mt. Lebanon's athletic life included Jay Alexander, Jim Sayre, Bill Mehaffey, Ed Birdy, Bill Ringham, and Ron Speigel.

Lebanon Lantern

What do you do when a shipment of the Lantern gets lost? Look on the train to St. Louis, of course! But this wasn't the only answer supplied by this year's newspaper. Accurate reporting of the wrestling team's record, the program for the F. T. A. student-teaching program, announcement of the winners of Formal Concert auditions, a picture of three boys passing around a girl's leg — all this and more was spotlighted by the Lantern. Reporters followed continually on the scent of the news and the newsworthy, while the editors worked feverishly to assemble the information. Young writers scribbled desperately to meet deadlines and Devilette reporters hounded classmates for their reactions to improbable situations such as "What would you do if you had a million dollars?" The results of these efforts were the stacks of Scholastic Rotos, Lanterns and stapled Devilettes which piled up in the Publications office nine times a year. After the Lanterns were distributed to the homerooms, sponsor, editors, reporters, and sore fingered typists sat back to enjoy the results of their journalistic handwork.

Everyone reads the Lebanon Lantern?

The members of the Devilette staff possessed a nose for news. Anything not heard via the grapevine could be read in the Devilette. The editors were Janis Zivic, Les McCulla, Kay Summers, and Marilee Tiberio, (missing).

Efficient Jim Moran, Diane Kline and Janis Beachler, of the Lantern business staff, landed sales and distributed the widely-read Lantern to homerooms and Mt. Lebanon alumnae.

Jim Carney managed to mimeograph the Devilette and still keep printer's ink off his clothes.

Suzy Dittmar, Bonnie Wilson, Nancy Jo Cotton, and Diane Browarsky typed their way through stacks of illegible copy.

MOUNTY

The Mounty's door is always open.

In 1959-1960, the Mounty of distinction became a magazine of the students. Mt. Lebanon's literary year began with the persistent efforts of "well-adjusted" Mounty salesmen and with daily announcements directed to those individuals known as "in" people, whose intellectual curiosity and friends would eventually force them to buy a Mounty subscription. The ensuing months saw the tiny cubicle which the Mounty called its home crowded with students clutching manuscripts for consideration. The art staff worked out appropriate illustrations, members of the general staff indulged in deep conversation, and the editors tried to organize and unify. By the end of the year, four issues were successfully compiled, edited, printed, and distributed to the readers.

The Mounty's appeal was well-rounded as well as intellectual and literary. It offered the school a variety of student-written poems, essays, sketches and short stores on such subjects as Japanese customs, the patterns in hanging wash, and the individuality symbolized by a pet monkey. The subtleties of satire, the rhythms of blank verse, and the implications of metaphor made the Mounty good reading for Mt. Lebanon students.

The Mounty business staff, composed of Joan English, Gwen Grant, Joan Smith, and Peter Dyer, contributed many original illustrations and posters for the Mounty.

Typing the poems, essays, and stories that were used in the Mounty was the important role of the Mounty typists, Leslie McKinley, Virginia Dau, and Vicki Gribshaw.

Bursting with inspiration and originality, the Mounty writers strove to make this year's Mounty the best ever. The writers include John White, Dave Wyles, Kikuo Sasaki, Steve Raymond, Chuck Garland, Pat Quaid, and Don MacKay.

The "Marching 200" of 1959-1960 was a band of many facets. During football season, the Peter Gunn Theme resounded through the stadium while high-stepping majorettes and Rockettes went through new routines. South Fayette and other school bands joined with Mt. Lebanonites in the Band Revue, which was witnessed by a crowd of three thousand. The outstanding highlight of the band's year was their first trip to Florida at Christmas time. Band members shared the experiences of eating breakfast at 5:30 A.M., trying to sleep in reclining chairs on a lurching train, getting sunburned in the Florida sun, and marching in the Orange Bowl Parade.

As the seasons changed, Mt. Lebo's marching band transformed itself into an equally proficient concert band. The year's work took on a more serious note at the annual Spring Concert held in the auditorium. Syncopated jazz, spirited trumpet-filled marches, rich brass classics, and sophisticated overtures were rendered justice by the approximately 120 band members. The sparkle and polish with which the band performed was a reflection of Mr. Prutzman's direction and of the musicians' efforts. Well-earned applause followed the gold and white uniforms of Mt. Lebanon's band wherever it went—in the floodlights of the stadium, in the footlights on the stage.

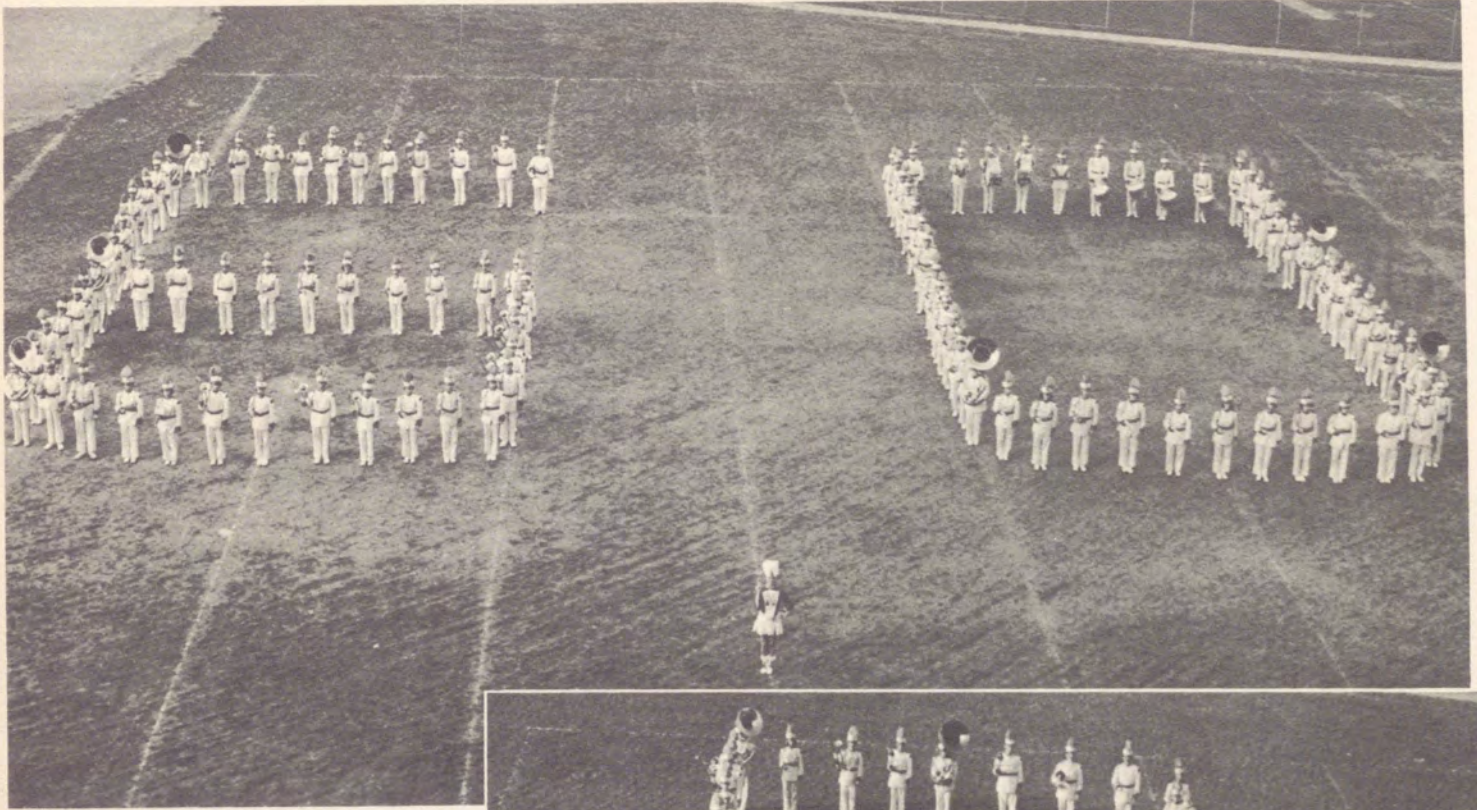

Our high-stepping majorettes lead the band with the

The big "M"

"Presenting the Mt. Lebanon High School Marching Band"

Toward Musical Balance

The strains of music escaping from the orchestra rehearsal room Mondays, Wednesdays, and Fridays during sixth period might have been anything from Mozart's "Ave Verum Corpus" to Meredith Wilson's The Music Man. The orchestra practiced under the experienced direction of Mr. Arthur Yagello at any tempo to polish a well-rounded repertoire of classical and popular selections.

Students heard the group play during many theatrical productions, at the February orchestra assembly and at the May Spring Concert. This year a special honor came to the orchestra when it was invited to present a benefit concert on May fifth for the Canonsburg General Hospital. The concert took place in the auditorium of the new Cannon-McMillan Joint High School. Afterwards, the Canonsburg orchestra joined the Mt. Lebanon performers for a reception.

String bass and piccolo players alike found that as they performed for their own pleasure and the pleasure of others they gained a clearer insight into the beauty and meaning of music. They became aware of the intricate interplay between instruments and of the tonal shadings which are involved in the presentation of a piece of music. Not only to them but also to the student body came a deeper appreciation of music.

The joy of listening and the pleasure of participating gave meaning and memory to the efforts of the chorus in 1959-1960. Snatches of songs overheard in the corridors became amplified expressions when heard in the auditorium. The old Dutch hymn in the Thanksgiving program, "I'm Called Little Buttercup" from Pinafore, and the "Adoremus Te" of the assembly concert represented the range and variety of vocal presentation.

The choral groups, under the direction of Miss Sneary worked to perfect every performance. The Mixed Chorus and Girls' Glee Club studied musical theory as well as musical scores as they sought for quality of tone and accuracy of pitch. Devotional Choir and Triple Trio kept in the public eye with their frequent and excellent contributions to school and community programs.

Members of Mt. Lebanon's choral organizations found that the moods of a ballad, the depth of a Palestrina chorale and the spirit of a light-hearted ditty were all an important part of the responsibilities and rewards of an art.

Spotlight on Sabrina Fair

"Gentle swain . . . at thy request
. . . I am here."

"That's a lie!"

The comedy Sabrina Fair, presented by the Class of '60, succeeded in completely captivating its audience with its subtle humor and family entanglements. The beautiful patio setting, representing a wealthy Long Island home, was the scene of laughter, tears, love, and anger. Each character added his own special sparkle to create the over-all effect of the play.

Sabrina Fair is the story of the once drab and timid daughter of the Larrabee's chauffeur. After five years in Paris, Sabrina returns, a radiant young woman. Her return causes a near catastrophe in the Larrabee family and proves to be both amusing and rewarding. Everyone becomes involved in Sabrina's romances with the Larrabee brothers, Linus and David, and her not-so-far-off Paris beau. Maude's gracious handling of the delicate situation, Linus Sr.'s unpredictable outbursts, Julia's witty sarcasm, and Fairchild's straight-laced behavior kept the story moving and interest piqued.

Under the excellent direction of Mr. Myers, with the help of Sue Harris and Herb O'Dell, Sabrina Fair became alive and meaningful, leaving with the audience a glow of pleasure.

"Then, you're worth around a million dollars?"

"Oh, shut up!"

"Everybody's against me."

"My little Brina!"

"Hello David. How have you been?"

"Will you kindly stop passing my leg around."

To Entertain, To Honor, To Inform

This year's auditorium schedule provided varied programs for the education and enjoyment of the student body. Spotlights followed hydrogen rockets, enthusiastic arguments and volunteer Rockettes across the Mt. Lebanon stage as Wednesday afternoons were enriched by a chemistry exhibition, the Pitt-West Point debate and student variety shows. Just before our Thanksgiving and Christmas vacations, Mt. Lebanon also enjoyed two very successful plays that were based on the exploration of the true meaning of the holidays. Throughout the school year, many well-rounded programs added a note of interest to the school week.

We have the Key to success down to the Letter.

Patched curtain—no patched-up performances!

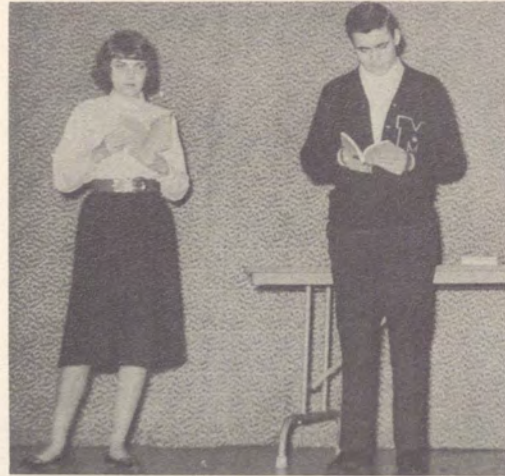

The players find the theme for their Christmas play.

Campaign speeches, music, speaker—what's for today.

"Our Town" in Our School

Unusual and wonderful, Our Town came to life on our stage. The setting was in a small town in New Hampshire, but the play took us far from the narrow confines of Grover's Corners to our own town, our own lives, and the lives of millions. Without props, the actors emphasized the feelings, emotions, and human relationships of the characters. Our Town was truly an experience for those who worked in it as well as for those in the audience.

Auditions require audacity and ambition.

Junior producers prepare for action.

The cast of Our Town crowds Mr. Meyers' well-worn stage.

Quill and Scroll honored Ellen Major, Ann Welty, Eva Foldes, Scott Ward and Pat Ellison for their work on publications.

Thespians provided good dramatic entertainment. This year's officers were Kit Irwin, Sue Harris, Herb O'Dell, and Sue Peckham.

FRENCH CLUB

The activities of the French Club gave the school a French flair. Officers included Ed Sabom, Jerri Delisi, Ann MacMillan, and Anne Nelson.

CHESS CLUB

Enjoying the experience of combined recreation and competition, chess club members sharpened their wits and contributed to Mt. Lebo's reputation for skill and sportsmanship. Members include Jim Sayre, Truman Flowers, Ed Troy, and Jim Stevenson.

DEBATE TEAM

During their first year at Mt. Lebanon, the debaters talked their way to victory for the school in interscholastic competition and won for themselves the personal satisfaction of a good argument. Members include Jean Housekeeper, Jim Carney, Chuck Garland, and Carolyn Gibson, Chuck Cox, Bill Bauer, Fred Feigenbaum, Sharon Tazza.

To Build A Better Future

From the opening Recognition Ceremony until the end of the school year, the activities of the Y-Teens reflected the balance of friendship, fellowship and fun symbolized by the Y-Teen triangle. Under the direction of Miss Frobese, Mrs. Furlong, Miss Manning, and Miss Hay, Y-Teen groups gave covered dish dinners, help programs on "World Fellowship," and organized bowling parties.

The desire to "find and give the best" was fulfilled as Y-Teens took part in projects for the benefit of underprivileged children, veteran's hospitals and other organizations. Some girls also participated with fellow-members from the South Hill Area in the Y-Teen Circus, for the purpose of raising money for worthy causes. Through service to others, Y-Teens experienced physical, intellectual and spiritual growth.

Vince Mathews, Bob Roth, David McRitchie, Len Goodman, were this year's officers of explorer scouts.

"Another gutter ball, huh?"

Delta Y-Teen officers were Rosemary Werner, Bonnie Ballantyne, Kathy Schwarz, Marsha Mock, and Jean Benson.

Beta Y-Teen officers included Adele Hauser, Sonja Smith, Marty Frame, Joan Smith, and Sue Senz.

Mary Beth Anderson, Ann Langreth, Nancy Houser, Alice Kulzer, and Ellen McAuther made up the sophomore Y-Teen cabinet.

Sophomore Y-Teen officers include Joan Archer, Pam Fish, Kathy Birris, Bonnie Ehlers, and Sue Hankey.

The Future Beckons

F.T.A.

Prissy Munn, Patti Grant, Caddy Durkin, and Sandy Kauper, officers of F.T.A., and their fellow future-teachers stepped into a future profession as they took part in teaching at the district grade schools.

F.H.A.

The officers of F.H.A. studied what lay ahead for themselves and other homemakers. They are Georgia Fodor, Carol Crane, Nancy Jo Cotton, and Mary Ellen Skinner.

In order to acquaint interested students with the fields of teaching, nursing, and homemaking, the "Future" clubs of Mt. Lebanon arranged meetings and sponsored related projects designed to provide members with a taste of their future professions. The future Teachers of America Club gave students the opportunity to teach in Mt. Lebanon's elementary and junior high schools, to proctor after-school tests, and to meet persons already engaged in the field of education. Girls in the Future Nurses of America Club met with doctors, nurses, and orderlies and had the chance to see several films and to tour West Penn and Allegheny General Hospitals. Through demonstrations, lectures by experienced speakers, and group discussions, Future Homemakers of America gained knowledge of family life, cooking, sewing and opportunities for a homemaking career.

F.N.A.

Members of the F.N.A. club were provided with a look at a future occupation. Officers of the organization were Holly Wery, Sandy Burr, Jean Housekeeper, and Joyce Humphrey.

LIBRARY SQUAD

Carding and shelving books, sorting date-due slips, repairing ripped binding and answering questions like, "Where can I find Home Life on an Ostrich Farm?" was routine work for the library squad. Members of the squad include Carolyn Gibson, Joan Samuels, Julianne Hering, Pam Rupp, and Ruth Summers.

ATTENDANCE SQUAD

With a system of various slips, form 48's and the absentee list, the attendance squad successfully kept track of Mt. Lebanon's 1750 students. Members include Marty Masterson and Carolyn Burrows.

BULLETIN BOARD SQUAD

Inclosed in their new glass cases, the hall bulletin boards sparkled with originality as they displayed the talents of each squad member. The members are Carol Wimmer, Diane Koerner, and Nancy Degnan.

LOST AND FOUND SQUAD

In the lost and found office, on the second floor, a student could claim or return anything from a contact lens to a French dictionary. Whether a student had lost a chartreuse and pink mitten or had found two left gym shoes, the lost and found squad was always ready to be of service. Members included are Lynn Neilson, Ruth Monsch, Joan Samuels, and Carol Reiley.

ART SQUAD

Talented members of the art squad contrived an appropriate poster, picture, or arrangement for each special occasion. Members include Carol Zepp, Sally Young, and Debbie Hertzog.

CHECK ROOM SQUAD

Members of the check room squad fulfilled their responsibilities and still had time to enjoy joking about the unclaimed odds and ends they collected. Members are Betty Gierhart, Joan Robinson, Joan Booz, and Marilyn Fischer.

USHER SQUAD

With the ease that comes only with experience, members of the usher squad quickly guided students into the proper section and later emptied the auditorium efficiently. Members of this squad are Jim Watters, Chuck Fishburn, John Mather, and Gary Close.

PROJECTION SQUAD

Many excellent films were made available to the student body through the services of the projection squad. Members of this squad include Bill Ringham, Tony Lavelly, George Phillips, and Jeff Randall.

PUBLICITY SQUAD

The frequent announcements and gentle reminders of the publicity squad informed the student body of coming events. Members are Bill Lane, Scott Ward, and Gwen Grant.

SCHOLASTIC COMMITTEE

The scholastic committee was more than happy to record the names of students on the honor roll, although they had to work hard to keep track of all the "intellects." Members are Ellen Major, Edith Bellavar, John Kozma, Linda Menke, and Peter Rzasnicki.

RED CROSS SQUAD

Giving both time and effort to worthy charities and projects, the Red Cross squad gained an understanding of others. Heather McDonough, Larry Phillips, Barbara Neill, Joan Norton, Doug Montgomery and Jeff Rash served as officers.

HONOR AWARD COMMITTEE

Better with numbers than master mathematicians, the honor award committee tabulated all the activity points earned by the student body. Members are Debby Weldon, Heather Hyde, and Nancy Zahnizer.

SOCIAL COMMITTEE

With clever ideas for dances, a storehouse of vitality and hundreds of tickets for sale, the social committee made many Friday and Saturday nights unforgettable. The members of the committee are Scott Wallace, Rickie Peters, Peggy Colvin, and Caddy Durkin.

MEDICAL SQUAD

Whether a student had a headache, an infected cut or a stoved thumb, the medical squad was capable of easing his troubles. The members of the squad include Myra Campbell, Kay Garrett, Diane Krueger, and Emmy Lou Weaver.

HOSPITALITY SQUAD

A smile of welcome to newcomers and cheerful help to visitors were characteristics of the hospitality squad. Members included Mary Coltman, Carolyn Burrows, Bruce Schein, and Stu Herrington.

INFORMATION SQUAD

With the necessary facts on the tips of their tongues, members of the information squad aided both new students and visitors. Members of this squad included Barbara Fortunes, Sandy Green, and Diane Fair.

WAYS AND MEANS SQUAD

The ways and means squad was always on hand to supply students with refreshment, whether after a hard day at school, at a football game or at one of the dances in the gym. Members of the squad are Ann McMillan, Bill Bayers, Ed Cole, and Sue Carmen.

PHYSICS SQUAD

Extracurricular experiments provided the physics squad with an interesting challenge. Members of the squad are Peter Rzasnicki, Bill Ringham, Jay Alexander, Len Parsons, and Steve Raymond.

BIOLOGY SQUAD

Amid the fumes of formaldehyde, members of the biology squad watered ferns, fed guinea pigs and cuddled snakes. Members of the squad are Steve Moore, Bob Bayers, George Haight, Maria Revesz, Ellen Karnosky, and Scott Kenneman.

CHEMISTRY SQUAD

Careful and cautious, the chemistry squad enjoyed and survived their duties of cleaning the labs and preparing unheard-of concoctions. Members of this squad included Mike Levine, Dave Johns, Joan Brooks, Ken Holtz, Kathy Castor, and Bob Stone.

ATHLETIC USHERS SQUAD

Ushers Bill McLauthlin, Carl Maurhoff, and Bill Mehaffey efficiently managed the enormous crowds that turned out to see Mt. Lebanon's athletic events.

PARKING SQUAD

The members of the parking squad made sure their parking plans were observed. Members are Dan Owens, Peter Olson, and Chuck Cox.

MAKEUP SQUAD

By means of their artistic talent, members of the makeup squad changed a classmate into a wealthy playboy with a sixty-five foot yacht, or a friend into a Pilgrim on his way to America. Members include Sue Brunk, Jan Hall, Phyllis Hardtmayer, and Mary Ellen Anderson.

PROPERTIES COMMITTEE

How to find wrought-iron furniture that matched, how to acquire a doll that looked human and how to transport two concrete lions from a driveway to the middle of the stage were only a few problems encountered and solved by the properties committee. Members of this committee include Sue Peckham, Al Rimer, Larry Phillips, Herb O'Dell, Sandy Burr, and Jerry Narky.

COSTUME COMMITTEE

The costume committee even managed to produce a blue blazer, size 38-long, for Mt. Lebo's dramatic productions. Members included are Mary Ann Higgins, Lucy Colletta, Nancy Kealing, Anne Nelson, Penny Searles, Judy Dickinson, and Kathy Harris.

STAGE CREW

The stage crew seemed to have a knack for creating distinctive sets and effective lighting. Members include Chuck Cox, Ken Heist, Herb O'Dell, Dick Kitchen, and Bill Bauers.

SCENERY PAINTING SQUAD

With a little imagination and a lot of talent, the scenery painting squad produced backdrops for the school's plays. These eye-catching creations supplied the atmosphere and setting for the theatrical productions. The squad consists of Barbara Scott, Sandy Hoecker, Carol Lohman, Peter Dyer, and Bob Russell.

HOST AND HOSTESS SQUAD

Through the effective guidance and planning of the host and hostess squad, cafeteria traffic moved more quickly than ever. Members of the squad are Jim Moran, Karen Bramer, and Regina Hamilton.

PUBLIC ADDRESS SQUAD

The boys of the public address squad kept the studio controls in working order. Members of the squad include Dave Gullion, Dick Kitchen, Ed Meyers, Tom Miller, Loyd Swartz, and Lin McCain.

DEVOTIONAL SQUAD

The devotional squad aimed for inspiration and interest as they prepared programs for Thursday mornings and assemblies. The members include Alice Mollenaur, Bob Sharrow, Marcia Evans, Prissy Munn, and Sue Schneider.

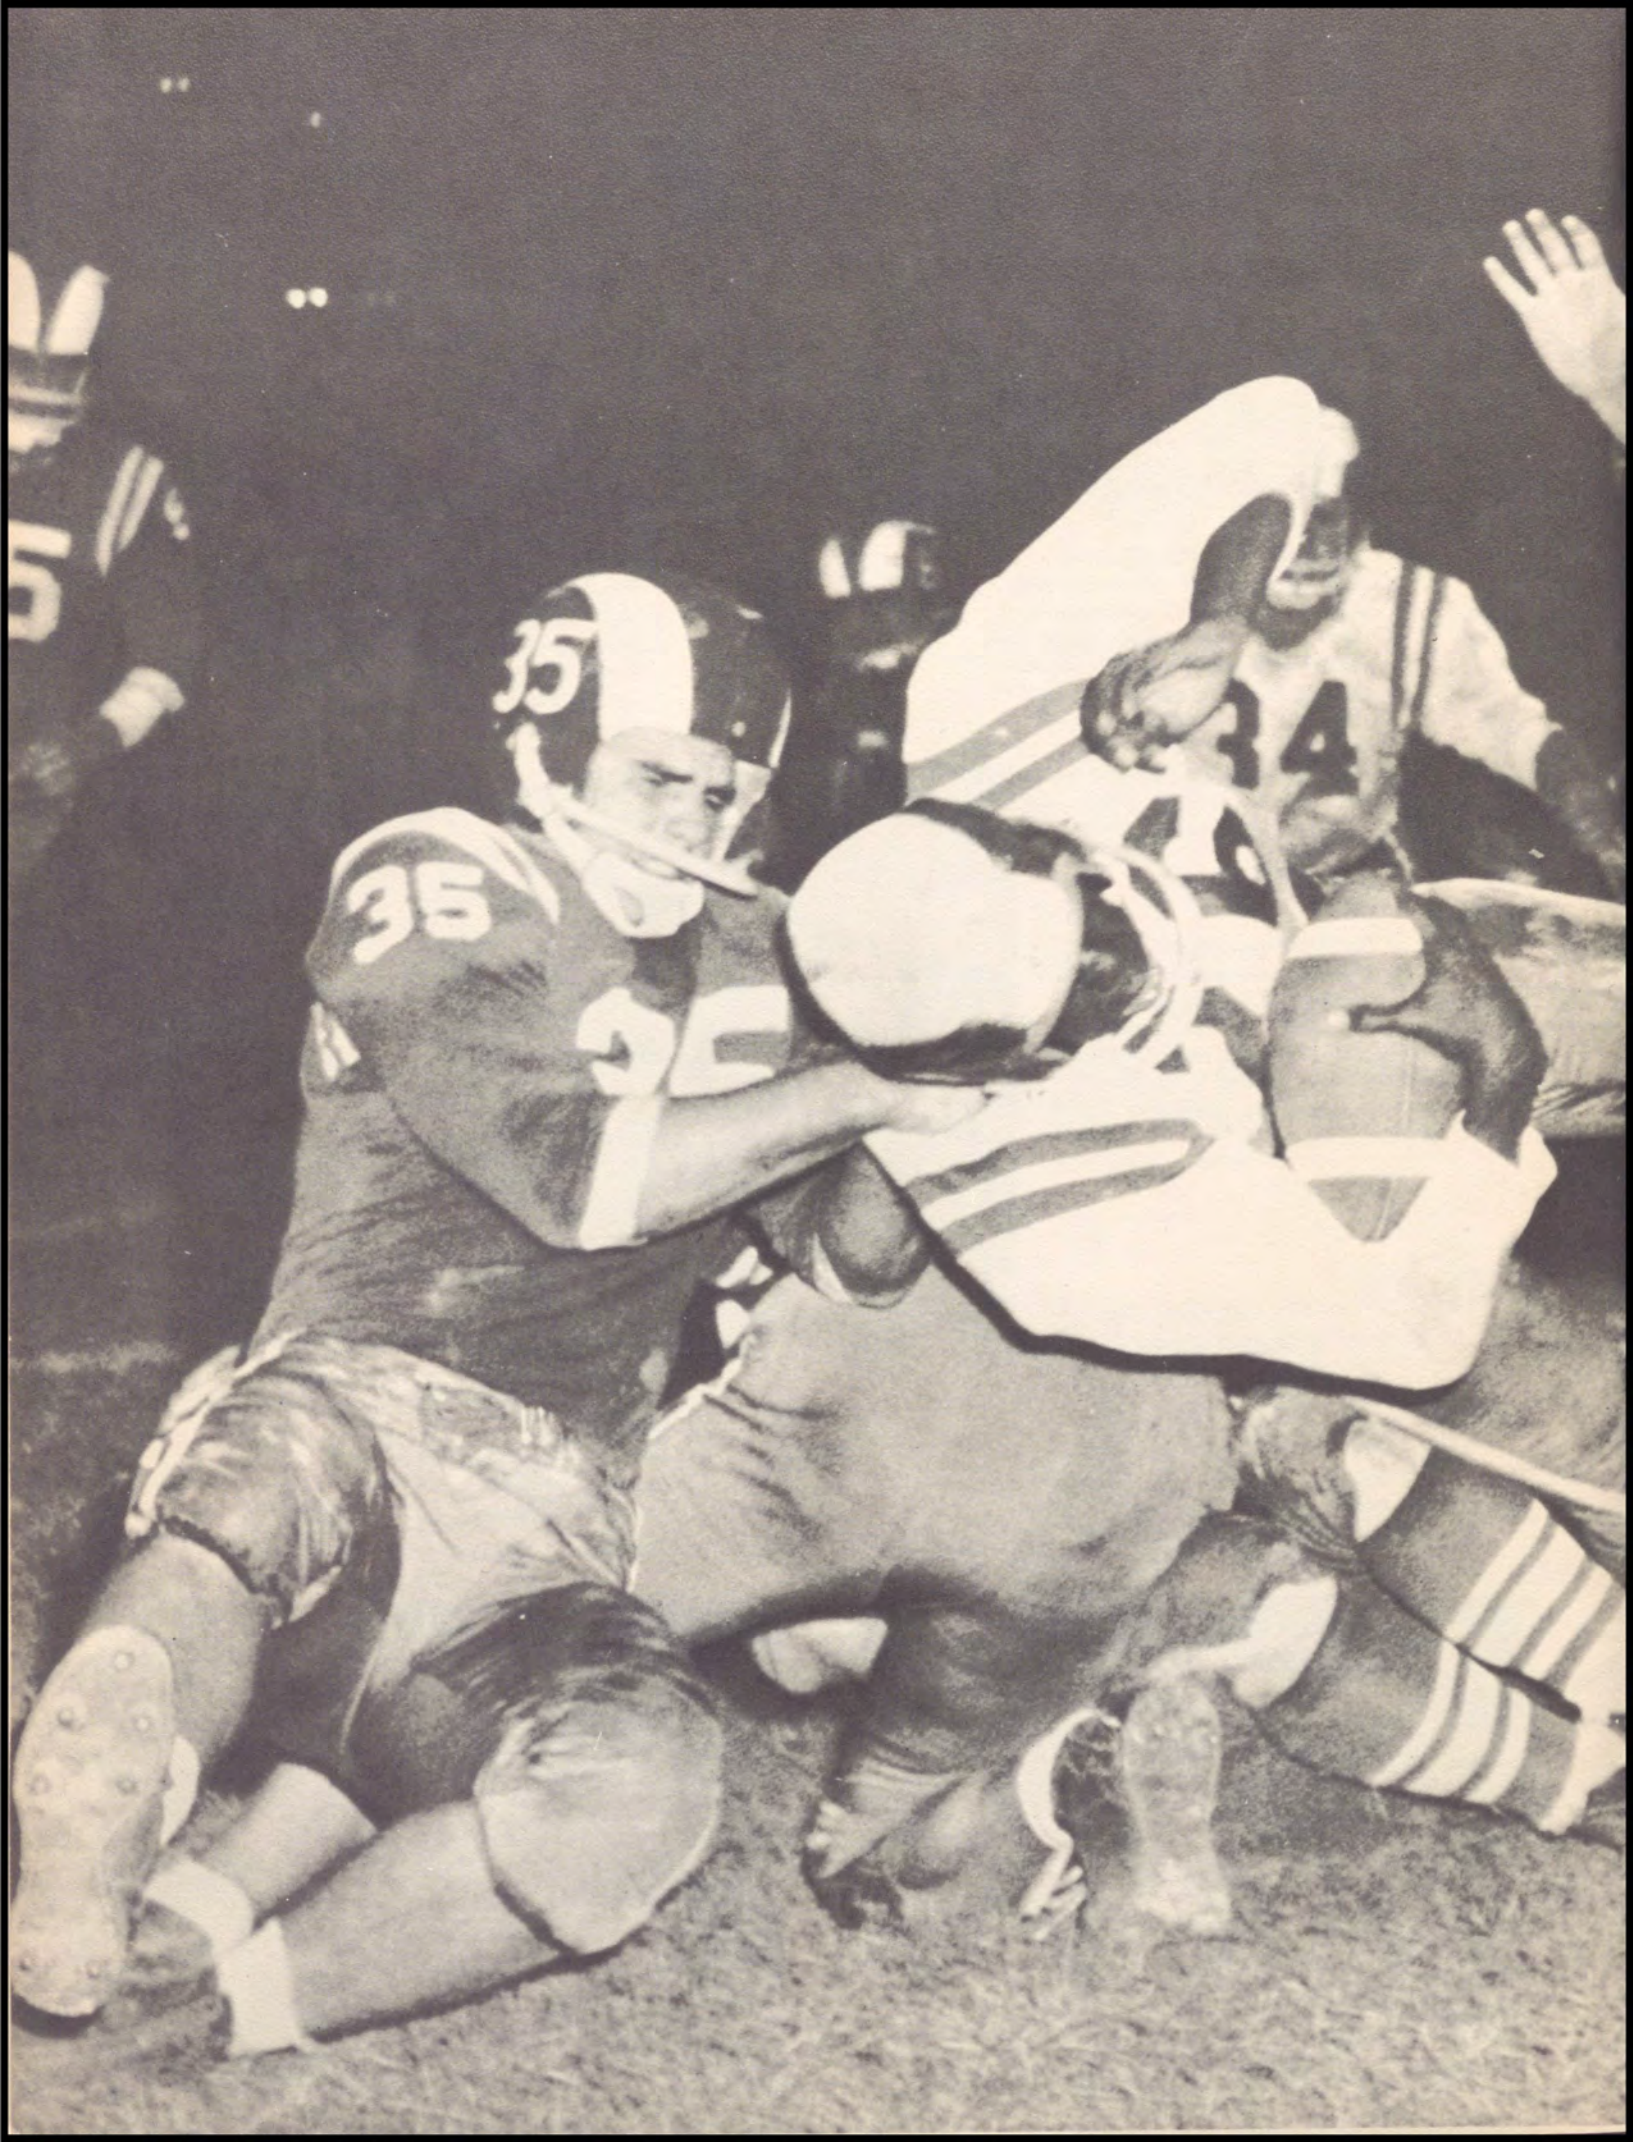

GIRL'S USHER SQUAD

The girl's usher squad added just the right touch to the senior play, the formal concert and lectures, with their bright smiles and billowing formals. Members included Virginia Burrows, Bobby Benz, Mary Coltman, Carol Beebe, and Sandy Kauper.

STUDIO SQUAD

The happy voices of studio staff members awoke students promptly at 8:45 each morning and kept them up to date on meetings, current events and sports. Members include Bruce Schein and Jody Crissman.

A Flash Of Enthusiasm

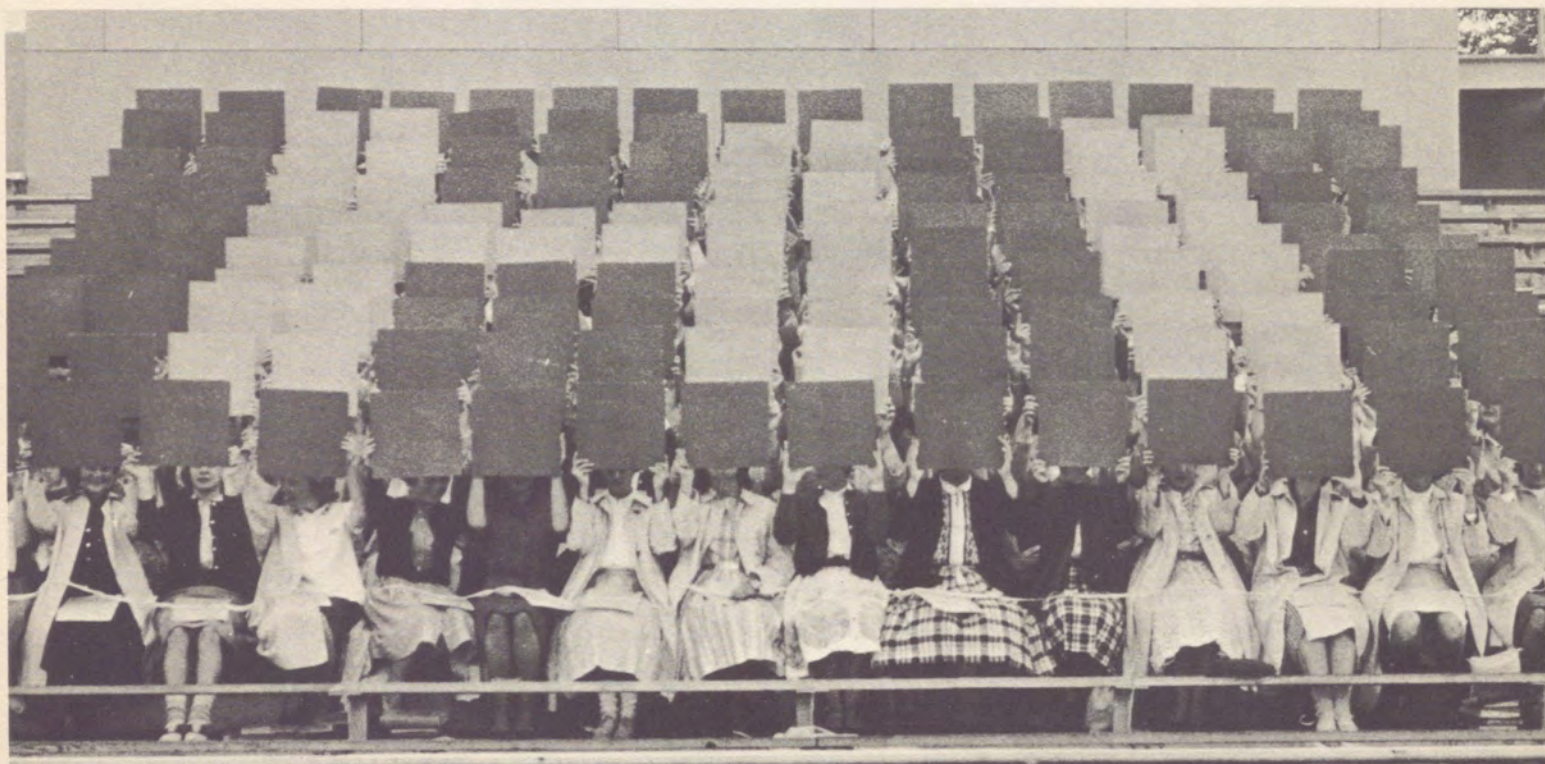

On the road to victory.

The spirit of a school year is an attitude and an action, a feeling forcefully expressed. Its symbols for some are the flames of a kick-off bonfire and the glint of stadium floodlights on polished brass tubas, for others the bows and tassels of blue and gold or a huge football mum. Spirit is never passive: it is the enthusiasm of spectators at a swimming meet as well as the effort of a Mounty wrestler struggling for the decisive pin. Spirit is a quality which links athlete and onlooker in a common goal, which grows with the maturity of accepted defeat and the satisfaction of victory. Throughout the year of '59-'60, this spirit was Mt. Lebanon's.

"All together now?"

"Don't peek!"

"Victory, victory, that's our cry."

"Hi," from the Junior Varsity cheerleaders.

The 1959-1960 Mt. Lebanon cheering squad was composed of Janis Beachler, Carolyn Tamplin, Peggy Colvin, Mary Head, Nancy VanGundy, Judy Dickinson, Dana Simpson, Caddy Durkin, Carla Mueller, Bonnie Hoskin, Mark Wise, Lynn Ricca, Jeanne Heid, Wendy Turner, Hope Steverman, Barb Clinton, Sandy Berg, Cindy Hussing, Andy Gamble, and Jerry Delisi.

Mt. Lebanon Through A Surprising Season

The 1959 - 1960 Mt. Lebanon football team under the guidance of Coach Ralph Fife, compiled a record of seven wins, one loss, and one tie. Thus the team ended the season in a three way tie with Washington and Munhall for the Western Conference title. With only a few lettermen returning from last year's powerhouse, this year's team had to completely rebuild. During the season they proved to be one of the most surprising and exciting teams Mt. Lebanon has ever seen, earning the praise of Coach Fife as "the greatest in Mt. Lebanon's history." A light but stout defense set a new school record by holding our opponents to a meager seventy-one points. In the meantime, a speedy offense was rolling up over two hundred points.

The Mounty gridders shut out their first three opponents—Homestead, South Hills, and Trinity—34-0, 32-0, and 25-0 respectively. The next engagement against a rough Penn Hills squad found the Blue Devils edging the Indians 21-14. However this proved to be a Pyrrhic victory as Gilbert, Malarky, Borgerding, and Foltz were injured. Next came a tough 6-0 victory over traditional rival Washington. One week later, Wilkinsburg played Mt. Lebanon to an exciting 13-13 tie which eliminated the Mounties from contention for the W.P.I.A.L. AA crown. In a torrential downpour that turned the field into a muddy pool not at all suited to Mt. Lebanon's light, fast team, the Blue Devils went down to their first defeat in over two years at the hands of Uniontown, 18-0. The Lebo gridders struck back the next week with a 27-13 win over Baldwin. On Senior Recognition Night, the Mounties wound up an excellent season by crushing North Hills 42-13.

Outstanding performances were turned in by many members of this year's team. Senior halfback Jack Gilbert averaged 9.03 yards per carry and scored ten touchdowns despite an injury in the fourth game which kept him out the rest of the season. The players elected to the Western Conference All-Star Team were end Dick Walker, and halfback Bob Malarkey, on the first team, and tackle Cris Crissman on the second team. Junior halfback Bernie Laquinta received honorable mention on the All-State Team.

With thirty underclassmen on this year's team, Coach Ralph Fife looks forward to an excellent* season next year.

Cross Country

The 1959-1960 cross country team finished the season in traditional Lebo style, capturing both the W.P.I.A.L. and state championships. Coach Mollenauer started off the cross country season with no returning lettermen except Captain Mouncey Ferguson. When Ferguson broke his leg early in the season, things really looked bleak. However, with a great deal of hard work and spirit, George Walther, Jim Taylor, Bob English, John Weisinger, and John Stobie, supported by Tom Swigart, Carl Von Ende, and Charles Perrine, turned in one of the most brilliant seasons in Mt. Lebanon's cross country history.

The Mounty harriers captured all of their dual meets except one with Central Catholic, losing by only one point. In the Slippery Rock College Invitational and in the Central Catholic Invitational, their lone defeat was avenged by defeating Central Catholic 25-40 and 30-99 respectively. Mt. Lebanon won the W.P.I.A.L. championship by beating second place Uniontown 50-119. At state, Stobie placed fourth, Weisinger tenth, Walther twelfth, Taylor fourteenth, and English thirty-third in a field of over 180 runners. Their performances enabled Mt. Lebanon to score 53 points to 111 points for second place Marple-Newton and to carry off the coveted state title.

This year marked the fourth straight year in which Mt. Lebanon has captured both the W.P.I.A.L. and state championships. This year also was the fourteenth year in which Mt. Lebanon has won the W.P.I.A.L. championship and the eleventh year in which Mt. Lebanon has won the state championship since 1940.

Regional And State Championships

Since swimming was added to Mt. Lebanon's athletic program four years ago, Coach Bill Grant has steadily built the team into one of the finest high school swimming powers in the country. The team swept through the regular season by swamping their opponents in twelve dual meets. In each meet the Mounty mermen smashed records right and left.

In the W.P.I.A.L. championship the team rewrote the record book as they set six new W.P.I.A.L. records. Tom Lindsey in the 200 yd. freestyle, Tom Tretheway in the 100 yd breaststroke and Toby McKain in diving set new individual marks. The 200 yard freestyle relay team of Thomson, Martin, Esposito, and Davidson and the 200 yard medley relay team of Lewis, Tretheway, Smith, and Lindsey also erased the old W.P.I.A.L. marks.

Three days later at Lawrenceville, New Jersey, the Mounties captured the Eastern Interscholastic Championship trophy. In this meet the Mounties bettered 525 swimmers representing 86 schools from every state east of the Mississippi. In winning this meet, the team set one national record and three meet records. Tom Tretheway, who had been rewriting the national record in the 100 yard breaststroke all season, lowered his own record time by covering the distance in 1:04.8.

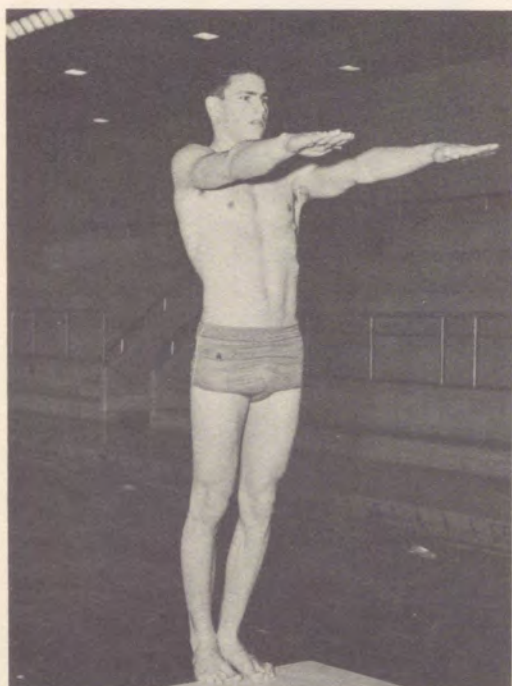

Next, the Western Regional Championship at Grove City fell to the team as they scored 82 points to 47½ for their closest competitor, Erie Strong Vincent. With a large number of boys qualified for the State Championship at Bucknell, the team captured the coveted state title for the second straight year.

Lebo Riflemen Finish Second To Munhall

First Row: Hagan, Greene, Herr, Watters, Warren, L. Dasher, Allen. Second Row: Coach Neal, Taylor, Weisbord, Bokan, Swartz, Holbrook, Gamble, Van Nuise, M. Dasher, Bock, Guess.

Coach Neal's 1960 rifle team shot its way to second place in the W.P.I.A.L. Section Two by posting a 10 and 2 record. Led by Captain Jim Watters, the Lebo sharpshooters downed all competition with the exception of Munhall, the 1960 State Champions. The first loss to Munhall was by only two points. The second loss was a heartbreaker as the Mounties went down to defeat by a single point on the sixth target. This season the Lebo marksmen participated in the N. R. A. postal meet and placed fourth in the nation. The graduation of such steady marksmen as Jim Watters, Sally Warren, Judy Allen, Joyce Hagan and Tom Gamble will leave large shoes for next year's team to fill. Coach Neal, however, has the knack of coming up with new sharpshooters equal to such a task year after year.

Mounty Quintet Finishes Season Winning

"Watch that corner man, Lorry."

A great finish at the end of the season enabled Coach Mercer Clark's basketball team to finish with a record of twelve wins and nine defeats. The Lebo hoopsters managed to win only three of their first eleven games. The team jelled at the end of the season, though, and finished in a rush, winning nine of their last ten games. The high point of the season was the victory over arch-rival Washington on their home floor. This victory marked the first time in ten years that the Mounties were able to turn this trick. The season also showed two victories over neighboring Dormont. A near rival this year was Fort Cherry's top-rate basketball club which downed us twice on their way to the section crown.

The key notes to the success of this year's team were the team's overall balance and depth. Hetz Marsh was the leading scorer with 272 points over the course of the season, thus giving him an average of 11.8 points per game. Bob Malarkey was next with 200 points for the season and a 10-point average. Lorry Hathaway and Bob Bennett handled the rebounding chores, and Jan Clark did a fine job as playmaker. The impressive bench of McNeish, Wunderlich, Couch, Bronner, Wenger, and Moffit contributed many key baskets and added greatly to the success of the team.

Gymnasts Tumble Through Another Season

First Row: Hillman, Templeton, Leash, Steele, Youngling. Second Row: Coach Pagnanelli, Russ, Faircloth, Corrigan, Benson, Sirotin, O'Neil.

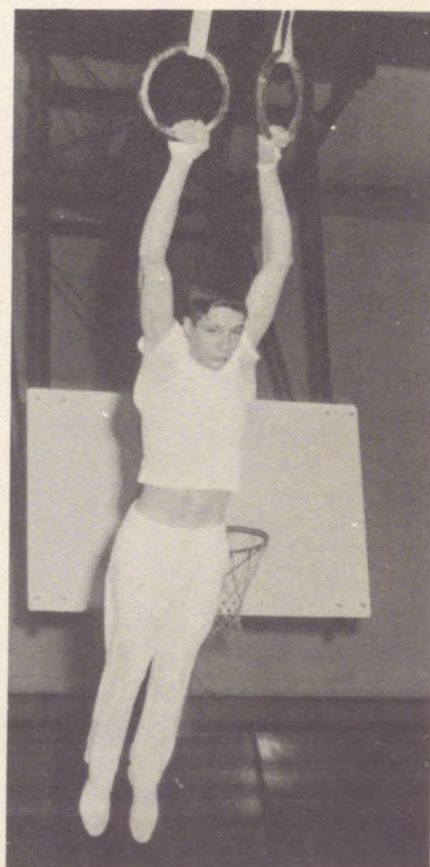

Since gymnastics was added to the athletic program two years ago, it has continued to grow under the astute guidance of Coach Pagnanelli. As few schools have gymnastics teams, there was little chance for the Lebo gymnasts to test their precision skills in competition. The squad, however, practiced diligently for the W.P.I.A.L. meet which was held in March at Lyndora. With an added year of experience, the team improved on last year's fine showing.

Corrigan performs on the ropes.

Mounty Grapplers Turn In Finest Season

Coach Lamprinakos gives advice for the next period.

Wrestling, a relatively new sport at Mt. Lebanon, has grown under Coach Lamprinakos's guidance to the point that it is beginning to rival basketball in popularity as the favorite winter sport. In 1960, the Mounty matmen turned in the finest season in the school's short wrestling history by winning twelve matches and losing only two.

The team opened the season by defeating their first eight opponents. A fine Trinity team then put the first blot on the Mounty grapplers' record. The team bounced back to take two tough matches from North Allegheny and New Castle before being upset by Shaler. Victories over Washington and Kittanning brought a close to the fine season.

A good wrestling team always has plenty of individual standouts, and this year's team was no exception. Ken Linge (12-2), Jay Windfelder (10-2), Bob Webster (11-3), John Duff (9-4-1), Jeff Shilit (11-3), and Robin Laughlin (9-4-1) showed that pound for pound they could trick most anyone around. The heavier wrestlers Berg (12-1-1), Crissman (9-3-1), Walker (13-1) who pinned ten of his opponents losing his only match by a single point, and Wicken (12-2) came through numerous times to overcome early leads built up by opposing teams and bring home victories to Mt. Lebanon.

First Row: Manager Lane, Bachman, Herald, Westerfield, Webster, Coleman, Manager Linsley.

Victory, Extending Winning Streak

Mt. Lebanon's 1959 track team again completed another successful season, breaking many existing records and extending Mt. Lebanon's long string of undefeated dual meets.

After starting the season by sweeping three indoor meets, Mt. Lebanon went on to win the Tri-State Coaches Meet. Led by the three pace-setting co-captains, Seymour, Blumfeldt and Sickles, the Blue Devils extended the dual and triangular meet streak to 112 straight wins. A few weeks later, the Mounties won the W. P. I. A. L. Championship for the fourth straight year and later our W. P. I. A. L. qualifiers placed third in the state championship.

Coach Mollenauer's Mounty thinclads set many new records with outstanding performances by several team members. Stewart, Sickles, Hartquist, and Gregg bettered the old record for the mile relay by turning in a time of 3 minutes, 23 1/4 seconds. Sickles, who was voted the most valuable player, ran the half mile in an amazing time of 1 minute, 59 1/10 seconds. Gregg improved his own quarter mile time by running it in 49 6/10 seconds. Fred Eassa broke the school pole vault record with a jump of 12 feet, 2 3/4 inches.

Mr. Batchelor, sports statistician, rates the 1959 track team on a par with the 1958 squad which swept every title in district competition.

' 59 Golf Team Finishes In Good Standing

After gaining valuable experience during the 1958 season, Coach Burrows' golf team compiled a record of six wins and two losses, thus placing second in Section Five Competition.

Bridgeville, Canonsburg, and Carnegie were each defeated twice by the hard driving and deft putting Mounty squad of Captain Lee Owens, Jim Russel, Denny Sanders, Bob Bell, and Ron Spiegel. But even the best efforts of the Lebo Linksmen could not save them from two defeats at the hands of Centerville.

With two lettermen returning, Coach Burrows is confident that next year's team will also have a successful campaign.

The Mt. Lebanon tennis team under the coaching of Mr. Doak returned another excellent season in 1959. During the regular season, the Mounty netters compiled a record of eight wins and five losses which tied them with Crafton for first place in the section. In the section playoff, Mt. Lebanon narrowly lost to Crafton.

The team was led by seniors Connelly, Hartman, Coe, and Walker. Juniors Montgomery and Phillips added considerably to the success of the team and will be the nucleus around which next year's team will be built.

Connelly tries for another quick point with a smashing serve.

To The W.P.I.A.L. Championship

It looks like a home run!

Driscoll winds up.

The 1959 baseball team under the expert coaching of Mercer Clark proved to be the best and most successful in Mt. Lebanon High School's history. After winning the Section Three championship for the fourth straight year, Mt. Lebanon went on to win the W. P. I. A. L. championship.

During the regular season, the Mounty nine compiled a fine eight and two record. The two losses came at the hands of Chartiers and Washington but were avenged later on in the season.

After defeating Burgettstown, Crafton, and North Hills in the first three rounds of the W. P. I. A. L. championships by the scores of five to four, five to three, and six to two, respectively, Mt. Lebanon went on to win the final playoff game with Munhall by the score of four to two to become W. P. I. A. L. champs.

The mound corps was led by Dan Driscoll, who compiled an eight and two record while striking out ninety-seven batters, and Bruce Upstill who posted a record of four wins and no losses. The offensive punch was provided by Rehm, Perkins, and Shields, who had batting averages of .350, .324, and .316, respectively.

Action prevails on home plate.

Intramurals Provide Keen Competition

It's another two points for the skins.

On Wednesdays and Fridays during the winter, the north gym was occupied by homeroom teams participating in the boys' intramural basketball league. The teams were dressed in an imaginative group of uniforms ranging from rotting gym clothes to silken basketball jerseys. In spite of how the uniforms looked, the games were hotly contested and well-played. To keep the games from resembling five-man football, referees were provided complete with uniforms. The noise of the enthusiastic homeroom cheering sections reverberated through the gym as the games were played.

The direction of the intramural basketball league was handled by the Boys' Intramural Athletic Council. This group also directed the intramural tennis program in the fall. The intramural program was designed to give boys, who had neither the time nor the ability to participate in varsity athletics, a chance to take part in athletics and experience the thrill of competition.

It's a mad scramble.

Will it be good?

Managers Play Vital Role In Sports Program

The unsung heroes of the athletic department are the managers. The manager is a vital spoke in the smooth operation of any team. He is the first person at each practice and game, and the last one to leave the deserted locker room. The responsibility for cleaning, keeping track of, and storing equipment falls on the shoulders of the managers. He is constantly at the "beck and call" of the team. He feels the sharp tongues of the players after a defeat, and the cold showers after a victory. Neither the promise of free admission to the games nor activity points are enough to compensate for the long hours and hard, dirty work. The manager's greatest reward is being part of the team. He expresses the same elation over victory and tears over defeat as the players.

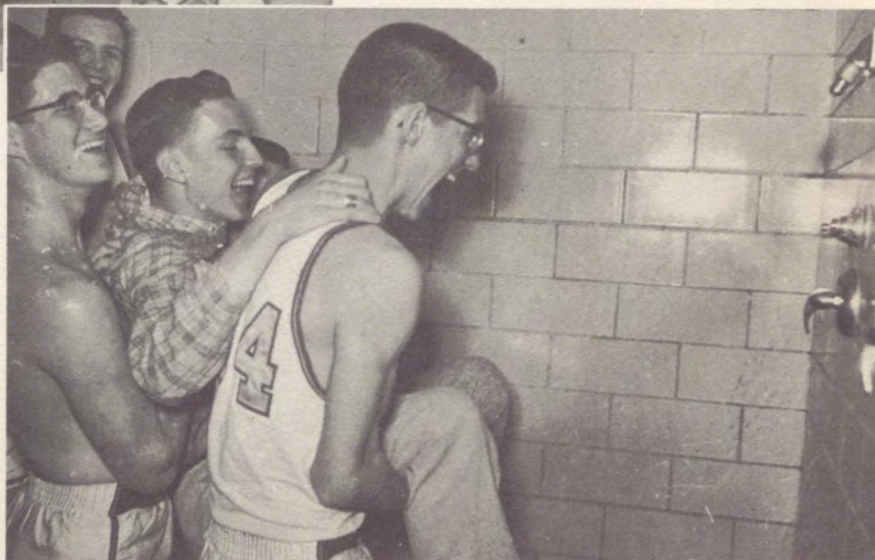

Don MacKay helps Mr. Moore keep the books straight.

Managers Weaver and Richter hand out uniforms.

Victory brings a welcome shower?

Competition and Companionship

The Girls' Athletic Association offered Mt. Lebanon girls a combination of competition and companionship. Beginning in September, a series of well-planned tournaments filled the after-school hours of many active G. A. A. members. Fall was a time of outdoor events. Sunshine and fresh air lured badminton and tennis players to the courts and encouraged softball teams to practice on the field. In the winter months, the north gym rang with cheers as teams competed for the volleyball and basketball championships. February was brightened by the innovation of a bowling tournament. A swimming and diving meet in the spring paved the way for another new feature of the G. A. A. program – a synchronized swimming show built around the theme of "Manhattan at Night."

Highlighting the G. A. A. program were several social events. A Halloween party, the Spring Fantasy, and award banquet and a picnic in the park provided G. A. A. members with entertainment.

Under the capable sponsorship of Miss Shaver, a group of girls with athletic ability, qualities of leadership and a sense of fair play were responsible for organizing all G. A. A. events. This Leaders Club participated in Play Day, an alumnae party and a weekend at Oglebay. By providing examples, Leaders also led other girls to attain the ultimate goal of better sportsmanship.

This year's Leaders Club officers were Sharon Rock, Secretary - Treasurer, Sue Peckham, President, and Gerry Narky, Vice-President.

Members of the 1959-1960 Leaders Club included Claren Brooks, Rhea Rose, Norma Narky, Nancy Zahniser, Bonnie Nelson, Jane Penson, Janet Patterson, Ann McMillan, Peggy Theis, Sue Peckham, Regina Hancock, Carolyn Tamplin, Marty Frame, Sandy Burr, Carolyn Gibson, Pat Ellison, Gay Hugo, Marsha Walsh, Sharon Rock, Gerry Narky, Cathy Cassidy, Marilee Tiberio, Sue Carmen, and Gretchen Sigler.

Annie Chin and Sally Smith entered Mt. Lebanon High School as seniors at the end of the first semester.

Juniors Strive Towards Leadership

The members of the Class of '61 made a lasting impression on Mt. Lebo. Individually, each struggled for enlightenment by spending long hard hours in the library doing research for a history term paper, by preparing experiments in chemistry, or by solving an intricate algebra problem. As a group, the juniors let the personality of their class shine as they cheered for classmates at athletic events and as they danced at the Rec and the Junior -

Senior prom. Bringing honor to their class with outstanding scholarship and steadfast willingness, they advanced by leaps and bounds. Looking to the future, they took the College Boards for practice and ordered their class rings. Then, with a rewarding glow of accomplishment, the Class of '61 received their senior rings and officially became the leaders of Mt. Lebanon High School.

Sophomores Prove Ambitious And Able

The spark of a new idea, the glow of spontaneity, the brightness of friendly faces — the Class of '62 brought these to Mt. Lebo. Ambitious and able, these students made sure they were well represented in sports and activities. Activities such as rifle and orchestra, pep squad and Student Congress, band and cross country provided footholds for the ever-present underclassmen. Remaining as the youngest class at Mt. Lebanon for a second year didn't seem to bother the sophomores as they made enthusiasm a part of school spirit. They studied feverishly for biology, world history, and plane geometry, cheered wildly with the junior varsity cheerleaders for their teams, and chattered happily of things present and of things to come next year, when they will finally be upperclassmen.

The Ritual Of Revival

Kindling school spirit!

Highlighting the school year were the special memories of each student. For some, thoughts of the Snowball and the Stardust brought a recollection of pink gowns, rose corsages, and depleted allowances. For others, the muffled beat of a string bass recalled Rec dances or the whoops of joy as leap-year Daisy Maes plunged into the Sadie Hawkins Dance. Career night lit up the school and helped launch prospective engineers and teachers into the right path. The chill and the cheers of football games gave way to the dignity of the athletic banquet, while scholarship and leadership were recognized at the award assemblies.

Music rang through the year as the orchestra perfected selections from "The Music Man" and the vocal groups developed new additions for its repertory. The band drilled steadily in preparation for a week in Miami's sun and the excitement of another bowl game.

As the months tumbled past, seniors began to realize the nearness of graduation and the climax of four year's effort. Planning for parties, devising slogans for Senior Day vests, and signing of the Log filled the frequently counted "days till graduation." When it came, the last day flashed swiftly into place beside memories of a year of highlights.

School spirit blazes high.

REcognition of a new year is under way!

From The Royal To The Ridiculous

Mardi Gras majesty reigns.

"Is there a Martian in the House?"

Variety is the spice of life.

Shouts For '60 And Thoughts Of Tomorrow

Yeah Sixty!

Snatches Of The Snowball

A diadem of lovely snowflakes crowns the Snowball Court which includes Queen Laurie Rowles, and her attendants Janet Patterson, Peggy Colvin, Nancy Van Gundy, Ellen Sedlak, Judy Hertzog, and Lee McNair.

The court and their escorts take a whirl.

Bright streamers and fragrant corsages add a festive air to the Women's Club.

Melodies mingle with happy thoughts.

"Here We Go Again"

Another Christmas tree sold means another mile closer to the palm trees.

"Let's make a good impression now!"

"Atten . . . tion!"

Bound For The Land Of Oranges

"Is everyone in step?"

Waiting for the game to start.

"We're heading South on 4017!"

From Podium To Pandemonium

The President installs a new group of officers for the next semester.

Everybody moves and grooves at the Rec.

All on a Friday night.

Hearts, Hearts, Hearts

Queen of Hearts, Peggy Colvin, is surrounded by her court consisting of Sue Norseen, Amy MacDonald, Nancy Naismith, Mimi Gambs, and Babs Seamans.

The Queen of Hearts and her escort.

Red and white streamers dip over "sweethearts" at the Ball.

Swingin' In A Dim Gym

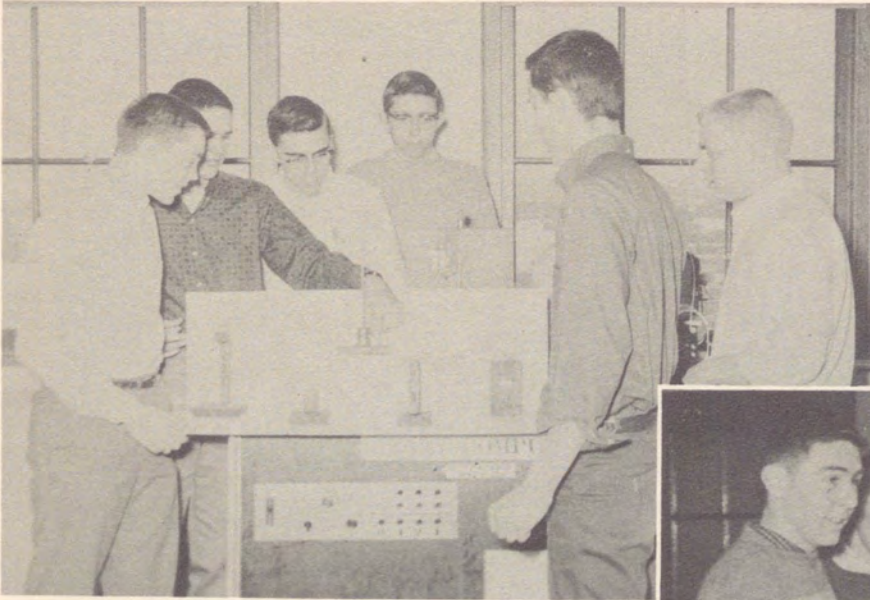

Anyone seen Porky?

Celebrating the victory.

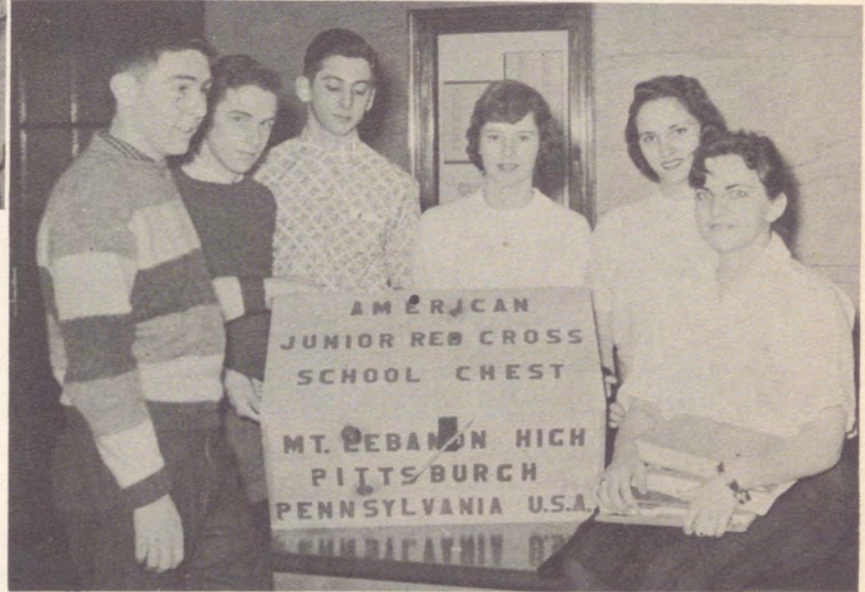

Working And Learning

"Who says these binary computers will replace decimals?"

The Junior Red Cross strove to serve.

"But the stars are composed of the very same elements we have here on earth."

The Evaluators And The Evaluated

Let's hope the evaluators keep smiling.

Candlelight and conversation launch evaluation week.

F-A-C-U-L-T-Y V-I-C-T-O-R-Y!

Fun And Frostbite

"Good grief, we're stuck!"

A little snow never hurt anyone.

"All together now—heave!"

A Flurry Of Activity Ushers In . . .

"How many more vests do you still have to cut?"

"Sign mine first!"

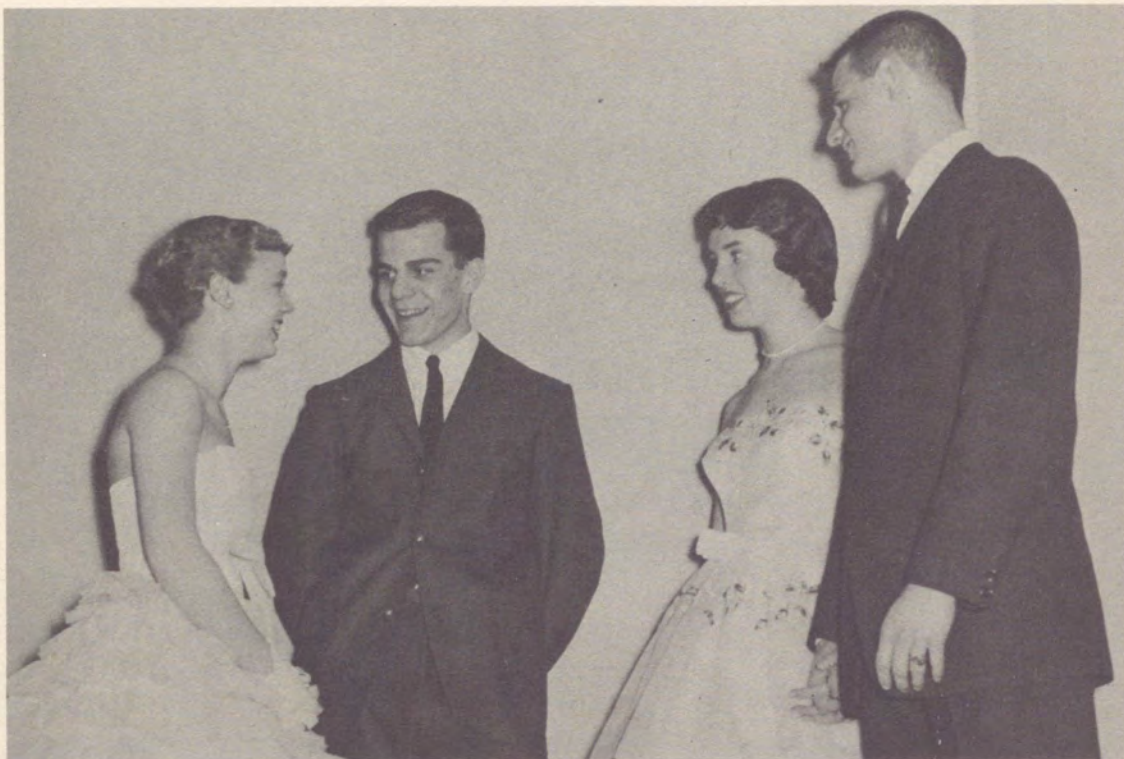

The Prized Symbols Of Achievement

"Did you ever think the 3rd would finally come?"

Last chance for repairs.

The end of a perfect Senior Day.

'Neath cedars stately,
Midst hills so bold,
Stands our Mt. Lebanon,
Realm of Blue and Gold,
Radiant with splendor,
Valor, virtue, and truth,
Moulder of our destiny,
Guardian of our youth.
Ever our praises shall ring,
Alma Mater, for thee.

Charles Ruch, '32

I have been thinking about you
and how much I love you.
I hope you are well and happy.
I am always thinking of you
and how much I love you.
I hope you are well and happy.
I am always thinking of you
and how much I love you.
